Determinate sentencing:

will it mean
the end of rehabilitation?

On the U.S. Circuit Judge Nominating Commission
- Ralph N. Kleps 370 Query
Can state courts receive federal help without federal control?
- David F. Fogel 372 Justice, not therapy: a new mission for corrections
By offering simple justice, determinate sentencing could put an end to the game of 'rehabilitation' that convicts now play.
- Leonard Orland 381 Is determinate sentencing an illusory reform?
The new sentencing philosophy won't eliminate sentencing disparity, and it may seriously undermine our efforts to rehabilitate offenders.
- James J. Bagley 390 Why Illinois adopted determinate sentencing
We may not be able to rehabilitate criminals or reduce recidivism, says an attorney who helped draft the new law, but we can establish a sentencing policy which is just and fair.
