| h Contemporary Law of Superior Responsibility Mas Bantekas   | 573  |
| Important issues arise from the doctrine of superior responsibility for violations of international humanitarian law. Superiors should be deemed in authority and responsible in situations of de facto control of civilian or military authority—operational, tactical, or executive. A presumption of knowledge should exist for subordinate criminal activity that is widespread and notorious. Consideration should be given, furthermore, to a "duty to control."  |      |
| hli Legitimacy of International Governance: A Coming Challenge for" *flernational Environmental Law? Daniel Bodansky  | 596  |
| International responses to environmental problems will require institutions that are stronger, more authoritative and internationally legitimate. The article notes the absence of a cogent theory of international legitimacy and explores possible sources in state consent, democracy, public participation and scientific expertise.  |      |
