

- Sentence—restraint order—power to make restraint order—restraint order for purpose of aiding enforcement of external confiscation order—external confiscation order—United States court ordering shares in company to be forfeited following criminal proceedings—defendant failing to forfeit shares—United States court later valuing shares by adopting notional interest and increasing sum to be paid—whether such an order an external confiscation order (United Kingdom)
United States Government v Montgomery (Montgomery, third party) [1999] 1 All ER 84 (CA) 543
- Conflict of laws—jurisdiction—challenge to jurisdiction—civil and commercial matters—proceedings involving same cause of action issued in England and in Austria—both sets of proceedings commenced before Lugano Convention taking effect between United Kingdom and Austria—whether English court required by convention to stay proceedings against Austrian defendants—Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982, Sch 3C, Arts 21, 54 (United Kingdom)
Davy International Ltd and others v Voest Alpine Industrieanlagenbau GmbH and others [1999] 1 All ER 103 (CA) 544
- Police—allocation of police resources—discretion—police operation mounted in response to animal rights protests against export of livestock—operation mounted at considerable cost but unlikely to meet Home Office criteria for special financial assistance—chief constable deciding not to apply for special financial assistance but to reduce levels of policing and restrict operation to specific days—whether decision in breach of chief constable's duties to enforce law and keep peace—whether decision constituting unreasonable exercise of discretion
- European Community—freedom of movement—goods—exports—quantitative restrictions and equivalent measures—export of livestock—police operation mounted in response to animal rights protests against export of livestock—chief constable deciding to restrict operation to specific days—police indicating lorries would be turned away from port whenever breach of peace foreseeable—whether chief constable's actions amounting to unlawful restriction on exports to Member States—whether chief constable's actions justified on grounds of public policy—EC Treaty, Arts 34, 36 (United Kingdom)
R v Chief Constable of Sussex, ex parte International Trader's Ferry Ltd [1999] 1 All ER 129 (HL) 545
- Conflict of laws—jurisdiction—challenge to jurisdiction—copyright—INFRINGEMENT—breach of Dutch copyright—INFRINGEMENT acts taking place in The Netherlands—plaintiff bringing action in England against defendant domiciled in United Kingdom and other foreign defendants—whether action justiciable in England—whether infringement of Dutch copyright actionable as tort under English law—whether Brussels Convention 1968 excluded by Berne Convention 1886—whether plaintiff's claim bound to fail on the

- Barrister—negligence—immunity from suit—claim for ancillary relief in matrimonial proceedings—settlement negotiated at door of court—consent order requiring approval of court—judge giving approval—claim for negligence against barrister advising client to accept settlement—whether immune from action (United Kingdom)
Kelly v Corston [1998] 3 WLR 246 (CA) 461
- Solicitor—negligence—will—duty of care—instructions to draw up will conferring benefit of identified beneficiary—solicitor failing to ensure that testatrix severed her joint tenancy in property disposed of by will—property passing by survivorship and gift to beneficiary ineffective—whether solicitor owing duty of care to intended beneficiary—whether solicitor liable in negligence to beneficiary (United Kingdom)
Carr-Glynn v Frearsons (a firm) [1998] 4 All ER 225 462
- Solicitor—duty—conflict of interest—solicitor advocate—libel action—solicitor advocate advising defendants that proposed article not defamatory—plaintiff bringing action for libel and second defendant instructing solicitor advocate to represent him—plaintiff applying to court to bar him from doing so—whether breach of Law Society's Code for Advocacy for solicitor advocate to appear as advocate (United Kingdom)
Christie v Wilson and others [1999] 1 All ER 545 (CA) 462
- Solicitor—retained by bank to obtain signature on mortgage—signature forged—solicitor's liability to bank (United Kingdom)
Midland Bank v Cox McQueen (a firm) (1998) 149 NLJ 164 463
- Solicitors—pleading—amendment—leave to amend after expiry of limitation period—plaintiffs claiming damages for negligence—plaintiffs seeking leave to amend statement of claim to allege fraud—whether amendment constituting new claim—whether amendment involving same facts as original claim—whether leave to amend should be granted (United Kingdom)
Paragon Finance plc v D B Thakerar & Co (a firm); Paragon Finance plc and another v Thimbleby & Co (a firm) [1999] 1 All ER 400 (CA) 465
- Solicitor—negligence—will—duty of care—will executed—disappointed beneficiary claiming will failing to record testatrix's instructions—whether beneficiary having remedy in negligence—whether beneficiary should apply for rectification (United Kingdom)
Walker v Geo H Medlicott & Son (a firm) [1999] 1 All ER 685 (CA) 466
- Solicitor—duty—sale of land—provision of purchase moneys by bank—purchaser's solicitor undertaking to apply purchase moneys solely for acquiring "good marketable title"—whether undertaking qualified or absolute—whether solicitor liable for defect in title irrespective of fault (United Kingdom)
Barclays Bank Plc v Weeks Legg & Dean (a firm); Barclays Bank Plc v Layton Lougher & Co (a firm); Mohamed v Farida and Others; N E Hopkin John & Co (a firm) and Another (third parties) [1998] 3 WLR 656 (CA) 466
- Contempt of court—court proceedings—restrictions on reporting—Legal Aid Board terminating solicitors' legal aid franchise following

- allegations of dishonesty—solicitors seeking judicial review—judge refusing solicitors' application for anonymity in proceedings—whether proper—whether legal profession entitled to special treatment
- Law reform—whether necessary—solicitors' disciplinary appeals—need to remove anonymity in appeals to High Court (United Kingdom)
Regina v Legal Aid Board, Ex parte Kaim Todner (a firm) [1998] 3 WLR 925 (CA) 468
- Magistrates—binding over—natural justice—opportunity to make representations—applicant bound over to keep peace—binding over requiring applicant to pay sum in his own recognisance and requiring a surety—applicant not given an opportunity to make representations before order made—whether order to be set aside as being in breach of natural justice (United Kingdom)
R v Clerkenwell Metropolitan Stipendiary Magistrate, ex parte Hooper [1998] 4 All ER 193 469
- Justices—committal to Crown Court—committal for sentence—defendant charged with offences triable either way—justices refusing to commit for sentence following guilty pleas—whether refusals reasonable (United Kingdom)
Regina v Warley Justices, Ex parte Director of Public Prosecutions; Regina v Staines Justices, Ex parte Same; Regina v North-East Suffolk Justices, Ex parte Same [1999] 1 WLR 216 470
- Solicitor—costs—contingency fee—fee payable only in event of party being successful in action—complaint of statutory nuisance—nuisance remedied prior to trial and proceedings withdrawn—complainant applying for costs—solicitors never intending to pursue claim for costs against complainant—whether complainant entitled to recover costs—Solicitors Practice Rules 1990 (United Kingdom)
Hughes v Kingston upon Hull City Council [1999] 2 All ER 49 471
- Professional indemnity insurance—excess insurance policy—repudiation for breach of warranty (United Kingdom)
Kumar v AGF Insurance Ltd [1998] 4 All ER 788; Review para 98/3669 471
- Discovery—legal professional privilege—communications between legal adviser and client—documents containing communications between police and Director of Public Prosecutions—communications concerning evidence in murder investigation—whether documents attracting legal professional privilege
- Discovery—production of documents—order for production for inspection—documents containing communications between police and Director of Public Prosecutions—plaintiff seeking order for production for inspection of documents—whether production necessary for disposing fairly of the action or for saving costs—whether plaintiff satisfying threshold test—whether court should inspect documents for itself when considering application
- Discovery—privilege—production contrary to public interest—documents containing communications between police and Director of Public Prosecutions—communications concerning evidence in murder investigation—public interest immunity attaching to documents as a class—plaintiff seeking order for production for inspection of documents—whether production necessary for disposing fairly of the action or for saving costs—whether plaintiff satisfying threshold test—whether court should inspect documents for itself to carry out balancing exercise between conflicting interests (United Kingdom)

Goodridge v Chief Constable of Hampshire Constabulary [1999] 1 All ER 896

472

Discovery—legal professional privilege—legal advice obtained in furtherance of crime or fraud—loss of privilege—criminal or fraudulent conduct undertaken for purposes of litigation—plaintiff employing agents to investigate defendant's finances—defendant contending that agents had acted illegally—defendant seeking discovery of documents relating to investigation—whether plaintiff entitled to claim legal professional privilege in relation to those documents (United Kingdom)

Dubai Aluminium Co Ltd v Ali Alawi and others [1999] 1 All ER 703

474

Legal aid—expenses—authorisation—travel costs to see expert—impecunious client—Legal Aid Board refusing solicitor's application for authorisation—whether Board having power to authorise travel costs—whether recoverable on taxation—whether disbursement (United Kingdom)

Regina v Legal Aid Board No. 15 Area Office (Liverpool), Ex parte Eccleston [1998] 1 WLR 1279

475

Counsel—negligence—immunity—pre-trial deliberations—advice on prospects of appeal—counsel instructed to appear at civil trial on behalf of plaintiff—judgment entered against plaintiff—counsel advising that no reasonable prospects of appeal—different counsel instructed on behalf of plaintiff—counsel advising good grounds for appeal—appeal successful—plaintiff bringing action in negligence against first counsel in respect of pre-trial deliberations and advice on prospects of appeal—whether counsel immune from suit (United Kingdom)

Atwell v Michael Perry & Co (a firm) and another [1998] 4 All ER 65

476

Costs—non-party—insurer of unsuccessful defendant—discretion to award costs (United Kingdom)

Bristol and West plc v Bhadresa (No. 2); Same v Mascarenhas (No. 2), Chancery Division, The Times, 23 November 1998; Review para 98/3730

477

Legal aid—order for costs—award of costs in favour of assisted person—order not complied with—assisted person serving statutory demand for payment of costs with consent of Legal Aid Board—whether order for costs debt—whether assisted person having locus standi to serve statutory demand—whether Legal Aid Board having power to authorise service of statutory demand

Insolvency—statutory demand—debt—costs—order for costs made in favour of assisted person—whether court order creating judgment debt (United Kingdom)

Re a debtor (No. 68/SD/97) [1998] 4 All ER 779

478

Misuse of Drugs (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	179
Undesirable Publications (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	180
Criminal Injuries Compensation Bill 1999 (Trinidad and Tobago)	181
Cultural Affairs
Films (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	182
Defence Forces and Police
Singapore Armed Forces (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	183
Elections and Polls
Registration of Political Parties Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	184
Government of Wales Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	184
Scotland Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	184
Northern Ireland Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	184
Environment
Control of Plants (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	185
Control of Vectors and Pesticides Act 1998 (Singapore)	185
Pesticides Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	187
Extradition of Fugitive Officers
Extradition (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	187
Family Law
Birth (Equality of Status) (Amendment) Act 1998 (Australia—ACT)	188
Finance, Trade and Economic Development
Economic Expansion Incentives (Relief from Income Tax) (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	190
Income Tax (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	190
Banking (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	191
Central Provident Fund (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	192
Competition Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	193
Regional Development Agencies Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	195
Health, Education and Social Welfare
Medicines (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	197
Holidays Act 1998 (Singapore)	197
Immigration
Immigration (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	198
Industrial and Intellectual Property
Copyright (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	198
Maritime Law
Merchant Shipping (Civil Liability and Compensation for Oil Pollution) Act 1998 (Singapore)	201
Privacy
Freedom of Information (No. 2) Bill 1998 (Trinidad and Tobago)	202
Data Protection Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	206
Public Utilities
Telecommunications Authority of Singapore (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	209

Discovery—collateral use of information obtained—implied undertaking not to use disclosed documents for collateral or ulterior purpose—different proceedings—documents produced in a taxation—whether implied obligation arising—whether documents produced in a taxation could be used in different proceedings in English court or in foreign proceedings
Discovery—privilege—confidential documents—documents obtained for purposes of legal proceedings—documents produced for purposes of a taxation—documents produced including scientist's report supplied to expert witness but not being referred to in evidence—whether waiver of privilege attaching to scientist's report limited to production for purposes of taxation (United Kingdom)
Bourns Inc v Raychem Corp and another [1999] 1 All ER 908	479
Law Reform
Circulation of Legal Advice to Government (Australia—New South Wales)	480
 Ombudsmen	 485
Recent publications	485
Judicial Decisions
Pension—pension scheme—maladministration of pension scheme—National Health Service—initial occupational pension increasing annually by compound percentage increase—initial pension subject to reduction on entitlement to state pension—Department of Health determining reduction to be from initial pension, not from increased pension (United Kingdom)
Department of Health v Pensions Ombudsman and another [1998] 4 All ER 508 (CA)	485
Trusts—pension scheme—transfer of benefits—compensation scheme—company entering receivership—suspension of payments and termination of scheme—application to pensions board for extension of statutory period for making payments—whether extension validly granted—whether members entitled to priority in winding up—whether members having contractual rights to cash equivalents (United Kingdom)
Law Debenture Trust Corporation Plc v Pensions Ombudsman and Others and related actions [1998] 1 WLR 1329	486
Pension—pension scheme—maladministration of pension scheme—jurisdiction of Pensions Ombudsman—injury allowance scheme—local authority at first refusing to entertain application for allowance and then making small award—Pensions Ombudsman finding maladministration and directing local authority to back date allowance and pay damages for distress—whether Ombudsman having jurisdiction to entertain complaint (United Kingdom)
Swansea City and County v Johnson [1999] 1 All ER 863	487

amount—whether trial judge was correct in awarding RM10 nominal damages (Malaysia)
Hock Huat Iron Foundry (suing as a firm) v Naga Tembaya Sdn Bhd [1999] 1 MLJ 65 (CA)	254
Remedies—sale of goods—breach of implied terms—whether purchaser entitled to rescission and damages—whether plaintiff precluded from remedy because of clause on invoices stating goods sold not returnable—power of court to order rescission or award damages where seller in breach of contract—whether conditions on reverse side of certificates accompanying goods precluded purchaser from rescinding contracts of sale—purchase of gemstones including 39 beryls by plaintiff from defendants—discovery of nature of beryls by plaintiff after sale—whether Maxixe-type beryls considered “gemstones” acceptable in gemstone trade—implied terms—purchase of beryls by plaintiff from defendants—whether beryls corresponded with description in invoices/cash memos—whether beryls of merchantable quality—whether beryls fit for intended purpose—whether breach of implied terms—plaintiff claimed defendants made representations, inter alia that beryls “genuine, natural, without flaw and not treated in any way”—whether representations made—whether representations constituted terms of collateral contract or series of collateral contracts pursuant to which plaintiff agreed to enter into sale contracts
Tort—misrepresentation—negligent misrepresentation—plaintiff induced by misrepresentations into purchasing large quantity of gemstones from defendants—plaintiff relied on misrepresentations, to base both tort and contract actions against defendants—whether plaintiff to be precluded from founding his case on tort (Singapore)
Darwish M K F Al Gobaishi v House of Hung Pte Ltd [1998] 3 SLR 435 (HC)	255
Mistake of fact—claim for recovery of money paid under a mistake of fact—nature of settlement agreement
Partnership—existence of partnership—dispute as to existence—alleged oral agreement (Singapore)
Lek Bong Hua v Lek Boon Chye [1999] 1 SLR 523 (HC)	260
Guarantee and indemnity—liability—intention to become guarantor—whether all persons named in guarantee document intended to be liable—insertion of name of person in guarantee document not conclusive evidence of intention (Singapore)
The Tai Ping Insurance Co Ltd v Fan Chun Wah &amp; Anor [1998] 3 SLR 968	261
Employment contract—construction—whether employment on fixed yearly contract—implied terms—applicable principles—whether employee entitled to retrenchment benefits
Loh Siok Wah v American International Assurance Co Ltd [1999] 1 SLR 281 (HC) (Singapore)	262
Vendor and purchaser—specific performance—option to purchase—option to purchase freehold in “property known as” given address—property comprising freehold house and adjoining leasehold garage registered under separate title numbers—incorrect title number included in option agreement—whether garage included in sale—

- Civil procedure—foreign proceedings—obtaining evidence for foreign proceedings—appointment of examiner—whether foreign proceedings were civil proceedings—applicable tests—Evidence (Civil Proceedings in Other Jurisdictions) Act (Cap 98) s. 3 (Singapore)
Securities Exchange Commission v Ong Congqin Bobby & Anor [1999] 1 SLR 310 (CA) 537
- Conflict of laws—sovereign immunity—visiting forces—defendant employed as educational services officer at US military base in England—plaintiff teaching at base as part of her employment by US university—defendant publishing memorandum of complaints about plaintiff's performance—plaintiff commencing defamation action in England—whether defendant immune from suit—State Immunity Act 1978 (c. 33), ss. 1(1), 16(2) (United Kingdom)
Holland v Lampen-Wolfe [1999] 1 WLR 188 (CA) 538
- Conflict of laws—foreign judgment—enforcement—co-defendants in proceedings in Florida entering default judgments in respect of cross-claims against defendant—whether defendant submitting to jurisdiction of Florida court in relation to cross-claims—whether default judgments enforceable in English court (United Kingdom)
Murthy and another v Sivajothi and others [1999] 1 All ER 721 (CA) 538
- Extradition—committal—evidence—authentication of documents from requesting state—whether Home Secretary entitled to grant authority to proceed in absence of authenticated documents—whether Magistrate entitled to make committal order in absence of authenticated documents—whether Magistrate entitled to commit on documents not before Home Secretary—Extradition Act 1989, s. 26(1)—European Convention on Extradition Order 1990, Sch 1, Art 12, Sch 4, Art 12(4) (United Kingdom)
Re Cuoghi [1999] 1 All ER 466 (QBD DC) 539
- Value added tax—supply of goods or services—supply of services for a consideration—maintenance services—firm of solicitors appointed maintenance trustee of block of flats—maintenance trustee providing staff and paying them out of maintenance fund—lessor and tenants contributing to maintenance fund—whether provision of services of maintenance staff by maintenance trustee a supply of services for consideration—whether staff employed by maintenance trustee—whether maintenance trustee merely being reimbursed expenses “paid out in the name and for the account of” lessor and tenants as purchasers or customers—whether supply of staff's services exempt—Value Added Tax Act 1983, s. 5, Sch 6, Group 1, item 1—Council Directive (EEC) 77/388, Art 11A(1) (United Kingdom)
Nell Gwynn House Maintenance Fund Trustees v Customs and Excise Commissioners [1999] 1 All ER 385 (HL) 541
- Criminal law—appeal—criminal cause or matter—restraint orders made for purpose of aiding enforcement of external confiscation order—judge subsequently setting aside restraint orders—whether Court of Appeal, Civil Division having jurisdiction to entertain appeal against judge's decision—whether judge's decision in a “criminal cause or matter”—Supreme Court Act 1981, s. 18(1)(a)

Torts

Should a Claim for the Loss of a Chance of Future Earnings Survive Death? (Canada—Alberta)	411
Apportionment of Civil Liability (New Zealand)	431

Legal Profession

437

Judicial Decisions

Courts and judicial system—High Court—bias—disqualification—whether reasonable apprehension of bias—whether reasonable apprehension that judge not impartial and unprejudiced (Australia) Kartinyeri and Another v Commonwealth of Australia (1996) 156 ALR 300 (HC)	437
Supreme Court decision enunciating a principle of law—ordinarily applicable to all cases—doctrine of prospective overruling—an exception (India) Arjun Sethi v LA Collector, Cuttack , AIR 1998 Orissa 34	437
Petitioners, law students, detained from appearing in examination because of less attendance—students of other faculties given exemption—petitioner terming it hostile discrimination—discrimination cannot be pleaded because students of other faculties are not similarly placed—court can show no sympathy (India) Arjun Singh v The Vice-Chancellor, Jamia Millia Islamia , AIR 1998 Delhi 82	438
Agency—solicitor—client was abroad—matter within the ordinary authority of counsel—whether consent of the client needed—whether client was bound by compromise entered into by counsel in the absence of the client
Formation—agreement to compromise/settle suits—correspondence between both parties—proper approach to consider all correspondence—whether upon true construction there is an offer substantially accepted in terms which constitute a contract (Malaysia) The Ka Wah Bank Ltd v Nadinusa Sdn Bhd &amp; Anor [1998] 2 MLJ 350 (FC)	439
Professional discipline—misconduct—standards of conduct to be applied—whether for members of the Bar to decide what amounts to misconduct according to standards established by members of the profession—whether courts must exercise caution when dealing with cases on unprofessional conduct—when court will be entitled to interfere
Professional discipline—misconduct—wrongful appropriation of rental sum as mesne profits in the absence of judgment in client's favour—whether merely guilty of error of judgment not amounting to professional misconduct (Malaysia) Gana Muthasamy v LM Ong &amp; Co [1998] 3 MLJ 341 (CA)	441
Trial—close of prosecution's case—trial judge applied prima facie test—whether beyond reasonable doubt test should have been applied—whether trial judge had misdirected herself Trial—misdirection by trial judge on burden of proof—breach of a provision in the Criminal Procedure Code (FMS Cap 6)—breach of a

facts—Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982, Sch 1, Arts 2, 6 (United Kingdom) Pearce v Ove Arup Partnership Ltd and Others [1999] 1 All ER 769 (CA)	547
Conflict of laws—jurisdiction—challenge to jurisdiction—claim by insurer—insurer domiciled in Lithuania repudiating liability to English company—insured claiming against insurer—insurer serving defence and counterclaim—insurer seeking to join further parties as defendants to counterclaim—whether court having jurisdiction over counterclaim—Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982, Sch 1, Art 11 (United Kingdom) Jordan Grand Prix Ltd and others v Baltic Insurance Group and others [1999] 1 All ER 289 (HL)	548
Other Developments
Council of Europe: Europe in a Time of Change: Crime Policy and Criminal Law	550
Council of Europe: Family Mediation	553
UNCITRAL: Report of the Working Group on International Contract Practices	556
Miscellaneous	560
Some Notes	560
Meeting of Commonwealth Law Ministers, Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago, 5–7 May 1999	560
Announcements	574
Personalia	574
Secretariat Legal Publications	Inside Back Cover

Statutes and Statutory Interpretation
Interpretation (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	210
Transport
Road Traffic (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	211
Private Hire Vehicles (London) Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	212
 Judicial Decisions	 215
Administrative Law
Appeal from Administrative Appeals Tribunal—question of law or question of fact—application of statutory words to facts as found Taxation and revenue—customs and excise—diesel fuel rebate—mining operations—fuel used in transporting materials to site for construction of processing facility—whether transport was within “other activities undertaken in the preparation of a site”
Words and phrases—“mining operations”—“preparation of a site” (Australia)
Chief Executive Officer of Customs v WMC Resources Ltd (1998) 158 ALR 241 (Fed C of A—Full Court)	215
Enquiry—administrative adjudication—right to cross-examine and obtain copies of reports—whether applicant entitled to cross-examine witnesses and obtain copies of reports tendered during enquiry (Malaysia)
Ng Tang Chi v Tan Sri Datuk Chang Min Tat &amp; Ors (Cheah Swee Aun, Intervener) [1999] 1 MLJ 485 (HC)	216
Remedies— habeas corpus —accused serving sentence imposed by sessions court—allegation that sessions court had no competent jurisdiction to hear and sentence accused—whether application of writ is as of right—whether existence of alternative remedies is bar to right
Criminal procedure—prosecution—right to conduct prosecution—discretion of Public Prosecutor to institute, conduct or discontinue criminal proceedings—whether discretion extends to syariah court
Islamic Law—jurisdiction—syariah court—offence of “liwat” under Syariah Criminal Offences (Federal Territories) Act 1997—offence of “gross indecency” under Penal Code—whether jurisdiction of sessions court ousted (Malaysia)
Sukma Darmawan Sasmitaat Madja v Ketua Pengarah Penjara Malaysia &amp; Anor [1998] 4 MLJ 742	216
Public servants—dismissal—natural justice—appellant dismissed as public servant—failure to present a case of substance that exculpated appellant—committee of inquiry not appointed—whether there was a breach of natural justice—whether appellant should have been allowed legal representation (Malaysia)
Ganasan a/l Marimuthu v Public Services Commission &amp; Anor [1998] 4 MLJ 280 (CA)	218
Judicial review—interim relief—stay of proceedings—decision of Pesticides Safety Directorate to approve herbicide—competitor seeking stay of approval pending judicial review of decision and ruling of

Court of Justice of the European Communities—whether damages adequate remedy—whether stay to be granted (United Kingdom)
Regina v Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and Another, Ex parte Monsanto Plc (Clayton Plant Protection Ltd, Intervener)
 [1999] 2 WLR 599 (QBD)

219

Arbitration

Stay of proceedings—application—dispute between parties—agreement to refer disputes to arbitration—defendant applied to stay action—stay refused on ground that dispute did not come within terms of agreement to arbitrate—whether parties should be compelled to adhere to agreement—whether controversy between parties amounted to “dispute or difference concerning the contract”—judicial commissioner required defendant to show reasons why parties should arbitrate—burden imposed by law reversed—whether judicial commissioner had erred—whether arbitration clause ousted jurisdiction of court (Malaysia)

Accounting Publications Sdn Bhd v Hoo Soo Furniture Sdn Bhd
 [1998] 4 MLJ 497 (CA)

221

Shipping and navigation—arbitration—security to cover arbitration awards—power of court to order security under s. 7(1) of International Arbitration Act (Cap 143A, 1995 Ed)—arrest of vessel—disagreement as to terms of security for release of vessel—disagreement as to right to arbitrate—application for release of vessel and damages—whether plaintiffs’ claim for security to cover arbitration award could be granted in circumstances

Arbitration—international arbitration—security to cover arbitration awards—power of court to order security under s. 7(1) of International Arbitration Act (Cap 143A, 1995 Ed)—arrest of vessel—disagreement as to terms of security for release of vessel—disagreement as to right to arbitrate—application for release of vessel and damages—whether plaintiffs’ claim for security to cover arbitration award could be granted in circumstances

The Sunwind [1998] 3 SLR 954 (HC) (Singapore)

222

Arbitration proceedings—disclosure—disputes concerning shipbuilding contracts referred to arbitration—plaintiffs and other buyers in common beneficial ownership—arbitration in first case between plaintiffs and shipyard—other arbitrations between shipyard and other buyers—whether shipyard entitled to use material generated in first arbitration as evidence in subsequent arbitrations—whether breach of shipyard’s implied obligation of confidentiality—whether injunction restraining use of materials to be granted (United Kingdom)

Ali Shipping Corporation v Shipyard Trogir [1999] 1 WLR 314 (CA)

223

Children and Young Persons

Children—evidence—disclosure—care proceedings instituted following unexplained injuries to child—mother’s admissions to social workers recorded in preparatory documents—resultant assessment report filed with court—police requesting disclosure of preparatory documents and assessment report—whether preparatory documents to be

- disclosed to police without leave of court—whether leave to be granted to see assessment report (United Kingdom)
In re W (Minors) (Social Worker: Disclosure) [1999] 1 WLR 205 (CA) 224
- Minor—change of surname—unmarried parents—mother known by former husband's name—parents separating shortly after birth of child—birth of child registered in mother's name—father applying to change child's name—judge granting application, but Court of Appeal allowing appeal—whether Court of Appeal had exercised its discretion correctly (United Kingdom)
Dawson v Wearmouth [1999] 2 All ER 353 (HL) 225
- Companies and Corporate Bodies*
- Winding up—undue preference—whether set-off pursuant to lease agreement was undue preference—disposition within meaning of s. 223 of Companies Act 1965—whether relevant date is date of set-off and not date of transaction—right to set-off—whether right of set-off would give lessor undue preference over other creditors contrary to s. 293 of Companies Act 1965 and s. 53(1) of the Bankruptcy Act 1967—whether provisions of agreement which give right of set-off should be struck down (Malaysia)
Sime Diamond Leasing (M) Sdn Bhd v J B Precision Moulding Industries Sdn Bhd (In liquidation) [1998] 4 MLJ 569 (FC) 226
- Debenture—nature of—debenture executed by first defendant as security for repayment of loan—debenture did not give lender power to take over management of first defendant—whether debenture contravened s. 132C of the Companies Act 1965—directors—authority—director passed away leaving only one other director—new director appointed—execution of debenture by board of directors—whether debenture was executed by someone with the authority and mandate to do so—whether there was a properly constituted board of directors (Malaysia)
Liwa Holdings Sdn Bhd v Chi Liung Holdings Sdn Bhd & Ors [1998] 4 MLJ 465 (HC) 228
- Director—disqualification—stay of proceedings—abuse of process—double jeopardy principle—director having successfully resisted disciplinary proceedings brought by Securities and Futures Authority on substantially same charges—whether disqualification proceedings an abuse of process—whether proceedings should be stayed (United Kingdom)
Re Barings plc and others (No. 2); Secretary of State for Trade and Industry v Baker and others [1999] 1 All ER 311 (Ch D and CA) 229
- Constitutional Law and Human Rights*
- Constitution—human rights and fundamental freedoms—right not to be treated in “discriminatory manner”—applicant appointed to office in public service by Public Service Commission—removal from office by Prime Minister—whether political discrimination—whether contravention of commission's exclusive right of removal from

- office—whether court having jurisdiction to entertain motion for constitutional relief (Antigua and Barbuda)
Attorney General of Antigua and Barbuda and Others v Cuthwin Lennard Lake [1999] 1 WLR 68 (PC) 231
- Civil and political rights—discrimination—racial discrimination—whether requirement in legislation that person resided in Australia considered discriminatory—whether person entitled to certificate under Defence Service Homes Act 1918 (Cth)—effect of Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth) on Defence Service Homes Act 1918 (Cth)
- Words and phrases—“Australian Soldier” (Australia)
Secretary, Department of Veterans’ Affairs v Mr and Mrs P and Another (1998) 160 ALR 421 (FC of A) 232
- Constitution—fundamental rights and freedoms—sentence of death for murder—appellant’s petition under consideration by international human rights body—government undertaking to allow reasonable time for report—petition outstanding for 20 months—government indicating intention to take action if no report forthcoming by specified date—whether reading of death warrant constitutional—whether legitimate expectation that warrant would not be read pending report—whether reading of warrant reasonable (The Bahamas)
Fisher v Minister of Public Safety and Immigration and Others (No. 2) [1999] 2 WLR 349 (PC) 233
- Fundamental rights—right to equality—discrimination—sexual orientation—provincial human rights legislation—legislation not including sexual orientation as prohibited ground of discrimination—whether such non-inclusion of sexual orientation violating right to equality—Constitution—remedies—defective legislation—reading in—human rights legislation not including sexual orientation as prohibited ground of discrimination—underinclusiveness—legislative purpose—whether reading “sexual orientation” into legislation appropriate to remedy underinclusiveness—whether Charter applying to legislation—whether application of Charter amounting to application to private activity (Canada)
Vriend and Others v Alberta and Others (AG of Canada and others intervening) [1998] 3 LRC 483 (SC) 235
- Constitution—enforcement—jurisdiction—High Court—Constitution conferring jurisdiction on High Court to determine whether Constitution contravened—public officer required to take immediate, indefinite leave exceeding leave entitlement—officer seeking declaration that Constitution infringed—whether court having jurisdiction to entertain application—whether application anticipatory—public service—leave—power to grant leave—conflict between Constitution and Staff Orders—Constitution vesting power to grant leave in Public Service Commission—Staff Orders vesting same power in Chief Personnel Officer—resolution of conflict (Grenada)
Duncan v Attorney General [1998] 3 LRC 414 (CA) 238
- Fundamental rights—right to equality—freedom from discrimination—common law offence of sodomy between males—statutory provisions supporting offence—constitutional validity challenged—whether discriminating against homosexual men—approach to be adopted—whether differentiation—whether rational connection to legitimate government purpose—whether unfair discrimination—impact of discrimination on affected group (South Africa)

National Coalition for Gay and Lesbian Equality and Another v Minister of Justice and Others [1998] 3 LRC 648 (CC)

241

Oral agreement—admissibility of evidence—respondent entered into two written agreements—respondent argued that there was an oral agreement that both written agreements were independent—whether trial judge was correct in admitting evidence under s. 92(b) of the Evidence Act 1950 to establish existence of oral agreement—void contract—non-compliance with statute—respondent entered into two agreements with appellants—agreements made to circumvent Guidelines for the Regulation of Acquisition of Assets, Mergers and Take-overs—agreements contravened Real Property Gains Tax Act 1976 and Stamp Act 1949—whether agreements were unlawful and unenforceable—whether restitution could be ordered (Malaysia)

Thong Foo Ching & Ors v Shingenori Ono [1998] 4 MLJ 585 (CA)

247

Breach—fundamental breach—appellant applied for bridging loan and end-finance—approved by respondent—no end-finance available to appellant—whether this constituted fundamental breach that went to root of contract—whether obligation on respondent to provide end-finance—construction of terms of contract—whether approval subject to any condition precedent or syndication of end-finance—misrepresentation—negligent misrepresentation—representations by respondent's manager to appellant—reliance on representations—whether representations gave impression of certainty of end-finance—whether manager was negligent in making statements—whether representations amounted to collateral warranties

Evidence—parol evidence rule—pre-contract promise—certainty of end-finance not in letter of approval—additional evidence on collateral warranties—nature of written agreement—whether additional evidence on collateral warranties fall within s. 92(b) of Evidence Act 1950 and admissible

Civil procedure—res judicata—cause of action estoppel—negligent misrepresentation and breach of collateral warranty—respondent argued both causes of action already litigated—burden on respondent to establish that both causes of action adjudicated upon—whether respondent established this—whether res judicata applied (Malaysia)

Kluang Wood Products Sdn Bhd & Anor v Hong Leong Finance Bhd & Anor [1999] 1 MLJ 193 (FC)

249

Breach—time of the essence—building contract—plaintiff failed to complete within agreed completion date—defendant did not rescind contract but allowed plaintiff to continue—whether time was essence of contract—whether compensation payable—variations in the work—plaintiff claimed for additional works on variation orders—pleaded in statement of claim but not prayers—whether trial judge was wrong in granting additional variation amount—damages—nominal damages—counterclaim by defendant for liquidated damages and loss of income and interest on investment—failure to prove

xiii

International Developments

489

Conventions and Agreements

- Council of Europe: Convention on the Protection of the Environment through Criminal Law 489
- Council of Europe: Protocol amending the European Convention on Transfrontier Television 494
- Council of Europe: Protocol of Amendment to the European Convention for the Protection of Vertebrate Animals used for Experimental and other Scientific Purposes 503

Legislation

- Misuse of Drugs (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore) 505
- Merchant Shipping (Civil Liability and Compensation for Oil Pollution) Act 1998 (Singapore) 505

Judicial Decisions

- European Community—free competition—services—taxation of life assurance policies—insurance companies established in member state taxed on yield on policies—policyholders with companies established elsewhere taxed on premiums—policies with companies established elsewhere having relatively onerous tax features—whether consequential infringement of freedom to provide services—EC Treaty (QJ 1992 C224 p 6), Art 59 (European Court of Justice)
- Safir v Skattemyndigheten* [Case C-118/96] [1999] 2 WLR 66 (ECJ) 505
- Revenue—value added tax—supply of goods or services—taxable amount—bank making no charge for foreign exchange dealing for customers—bank's profit from spread between bid and offer prices—whether foreign exchange transactions supply of services for consideration—what constituting taxable amount—Council Directive (77/388/EEC), Arts 2(1), 11(A)(1)(a) (European Court of Justice)
- First National Bank of Chicago v Customs and Excise Commissioners* (Case C-172/96) [1999] 2 WLR 230 (ECJ) 506
- International Court of Justice—jurisdiction of the Court—application by Spain against invocation of Canadian fisheries legislation—Canadian acceptance of compulsory jurisdiction of the Court excluding “disputes arising out of or concerning conservation and management measures relating to NAFO Regulatory Area”—whether Canada entitled to exercise jurisdiction on high seas—whether violation of Spain's rights under international law—preliminary issue of jurisdiction (International Court of Justice)
- Case concerning Fisheries Jurisdiction (Spain v Canada)*, International Court of Justice, Communiqué No. 98/41bis, 4 December 1998 507
- Special Rapporteur of Commission on Human Rights—immunity from legal process—words spoken by Special Rapporteur during interview—request for advisory opinion from Court (International Court of Justice)
- Difference Relating to Immunity from Legal Process of a Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights*, International Court of Justice, Communiqué No. 99/16bis, 29 April 1999 526

Words and phrases—"particularly serious crime" (Australia) Betkoshabeh v Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (1998) 157 ALR 95 (FC)	312
Citizenship and migration—refugees—protection visa—nationality— "effective nationality"
Words and phrases—"effective nationality" ((Australia) Lay Kon Tji v Minister for Immigration and Ethnic Affairs (1998) 158 ALR 681 (FC)	314
Citizenship and migration—refugees—Convention definition of "refugee"—meaning of "political opinion"—whether an asserting of fact can amount to "political opinion"—Convention relating to the Status of Refugees Art 1A
Words and phrases—"refugee"—"political opinion" (Australia) Ranwalage and Others v Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (1998) 159 ALR 349 (FC)	315
Citizenship and migration—visa—temporary visitors from Sri Lanka— visas extended only for persons entering Australia before particular date—whether regulation providing for extension invalid as unreason- able or discriminatory
Civil and political rights—discrimination—racial—immigration—visas granted to temporary visitors from Sri Lanka—visas extended only for persons entering Australia before particular date—whether regulation providing for extension invalid as discriminatory (Australia) De Silva v Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs and Another (1998) 159 ALR 355 (FC)	316
Citizenship and migration—refusal of protection visa—judicial review of decision of Refugee Review Tribunal—whether well-founded fear of being persecuted due to political opinion—degree of confidence of tribunal in its factual findings—whether tribunal should consider chance its findings incorrect in determining whether applicant's fear well founded—language used by tribunal to express real doubt as to its findings—refusal of protection visa—whether tribunal must state what activities give rise to well-founded fear (Australia) Zuway v Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (1998) 160 ALR 391 (FC)	317
Citizenship and migration—refugees—protection visa—persecution— torture—severe mistreatment—indiscriminate treatment—motivation for treatment—real chance test—reasons for decision—failure to set out findings on material questions of fact (Australia) Paramananthan v Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (NG 533 of 1998); Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs v Sivarasa (NG 652 of 1998) (1998) 160 ALR 24 (FC)	318
Internal flight option—whether open to asylum-seeker (United Kingdom) Singh v Secretary of State for the Home Department , Outer House, 4 December 1998, The Times : 27 January 1999	321

Commonwealth Law Bulletin

Commonwealth Law Bulletin

- whether exercise evidence admissible as to identity of property
(United Kingdom)
Freeguard and Another v Rogers and Another [1999] 1 WLR 375
(CA) 264
- Sale of goods—implied condition as to merchantable quality—sale in the course of a business—meaning—sale of fishing vessel used exclusively for purposes of fishing business—condition that vessel of merchantable quality only implied if sale “in the course of a business”—sale of vessel incidental to business—whether sale made in the course of a business—whether condition implied as to mer-chantable quality (United Kingdom)
Stevenson and another v Rodgers [1999] 1 All ER 613 (CA) 265
- Courts Practice and Procedure*
- Costs—apportionment—state government supplied gas to premises occupied by bank—appellant joined state government and bank in same action—trial judge did not make Sanderson order—whether order on costs should be varied
- Damages (Personal Injury or Death)—fatal accident—dependency claim—deceased killed in explosion—appellant as widow sought damages—trial judge deducted  $\frac{1}{3}$  from general damages for loss of dependency—whether trial judge had erred in making deduction—whether Parliament intended to depart from common law practice of making  $\frac{1}{3}$  deduction
- Tort—negligence—fire—apportionment of liability—premises owned by bank—gas supplied by state government—trial judge apportioned 90 per cent of liability to state government and 10 per cent to bank—whether bank should bear more responsibility—whether there was misdirection by trial judge (Malaysia)
Takong Tabari v Government of Sarawak & Ors and another appeal [1998] 4 MLJ 512 (CA) 266
- Parties—death of plaintiff—plaintiff commenced action in High Court—plaintiff died when appeal pending in Court of Appeal—appellant substituted for deceased plaintiff—whether hearing of appeal could have proceeded without order for substitution made—whether order made in Court of Appeal was irregularity or nullity (Malaysia)
Asiah bte Abdul Manap & Anor v Capital Insurance Bhd [1998] 4
MLJ 361 (FC) 267
- Pleadings—findings on matters not pleaded—statement of claim did not aver to general orders relied on by appellant—show cause letter and subsequent correspondence referred to general orders—trial judge held that appellant could not question respondent’s action under general orders due to omission to so aver in statement of claim—whether trial judge had erred
- Evidence—witness—plaintiff was sole witness to give oral evidence—no other witnesses called—whether plaintiff had proved his case—whether trial judge was wrong in concluding that appellant called no witness
- Public servants—dismissal—termination of service—consideration of extraneous material—no opportunity for appellant to rebut—no explanation as to what information was considered by disciplinary committee—whether this had prejudiced appellant—whether such misdirection had occasioned a miscarriage of justice (Malaysia)

Mohd Najib bin Haji Ahmad v Lembaga Padi dan Beras Negara
[1998] 4 MLJ 425 (CA)

268

Contempt of court—failure to comply with court order—plaintiffs sued defendant for defamation—settlement reached and read in open court—undertaking by defendant—defendant later nullified proceedings—whether defendant should be cited for contempt—whether defendant should be given custodial sentence—whether Bar Council should be allowed to have watching brief (Malaysia)

M Bf Capital Bhd & Anor v Tommy Thomas & Anor and Other suits [1999] 1 MLJ 139 (HC)

270

Writ—amendment of endorsement—substitution of ship's registered owners' particulars with bareboat charterers' particulars—whether omission of bareboat charterers' address from writ an irregularity curable under O 2 r 1 Rules of Court 1996—bareboat charterers' claim time-barred—compliance with conditions set out in O 20 r 5(3)—whether appellants satisfied conditions

Shipping and navigation—admiralty proceedings—meaning and ambit of "owners" of ship or vessel—whether "owners" included bareboat charterers—whether any indication in present circumstance suggesting bareboat charterers party to proceedings (Singapore)

The Pacific Wisdom [1998] 3 SLR 705 (CA)

271

Coroner—inquest—directions to jury—misdirection—role of High Court on application for judicial review—extent of coroner's discretion not to leave possible verdict to jury—whether desirable in interests of justice to quash verdict (United Kingdom)

R v Inner South London Coroner, ex parte Douglas-Williams
[1999] 1 All ER 344 (CA)

273

Discovery—production of documents—production before commencement of proceedings—insurers refusing to indemnify employer in respect of employee's claim for damages for personal injuries—employee obtaining judgment for damages to be assessed—employee contemplating action against insurer and applying for pre-action discovery of documents relating to claim for insurer—whether discovery should be ordered—whether contemplated action "claim in respect of personal injuries"—whether claim "likely to be made"—discovery against persons not parties to proceedings—employee applying for non-party discovery from insurer of documents to assist in claim against director of company employer—employee's claim against employer being in respect of economic loss based on failure to maintain insurance policies—whether claim for personal injuries—whether documents relevant to issue likely to arise (United Kingdom)

Burns v Shuttlehurst Ltd and another [1999] 2 All ER 27 (CA)

274

Criminal Law and Procedure

Appeals—trial by judge alone—failure by judge to record in reasons for judgment warning required to be given to jury—whether wrong

decision on question of law—whether miscarriage of justice— whether verdicts unsafe and unsatisfactory (Australia)	275
Fleming v R (1998) 158 ALR 379 (HC of A—Full Court)
Revision—remand proceedings—application to transfer applicant from Bukit Aman Police Headquarters to Sungai Buloh prison— application filed under certificate of urgency—applicant improperly held at Bukit Aman—whether Director General of Prison did satisfy the requirement of procedural fairness—whether s. 31(1)(a) of Prisons Act 1995 ultra vires Art 5 of the Federal Constitution
Evidence—affidavit—affidavit evidence—application for affidavit to be sealed from public—affidavit contained scandalous material— whether applicant would be prejudiced if application not granted— hearsay—affidavit contained statements without any source identified—whether statements constituted hearsay evidence (Malaysia)
Nallakaruppan a/l Solaimalai v Ketua Pengarah Penjara, Malaysia &amp; Ors [1999] 1 MLJ 96 (HC)	277
Attempting to obtain sexual favours—what amounts to attempt—inter- ruption in completion of crime—whether preparation to commit crime go beyond an attempt—sentence—mitigation—use of agent provocateur in commission of crime—whether operate as mitigating factor in sentencing
Evidence—tape recording—admissibility—whether authenticity of recordings have been proved beyond reasonable doubt—whether trial within a trial is necessary to admit tape recording in evidence— whether tape recordings were wrongly admitted in evidence (Malaysia)
Mohd Ali Jaafar v Public Prosecutor [1998] 4 MLJ 210 (HC)	279
Corrupt acceptance of gratification—whether solicitation is an ingredient—whether trial court misdirected itself in requiring proof of solicitation—whether accused had knowingly, inadvertently or unwillingly accepted gratification for not issuing summons against complainant (Malaysia)
Public Prosecutor v Jamil bin Mahmod &amp; Anor [1998] 4 MLJ 681 (HC)	280
Dangerous drugs—trafficking—defence of duress—whether duress was imminent, extreme or persistent—whether trial court considered defence from all angles—whether there was a misdirection (Malaysia)
Chu Tak Fai v Public Prosecutor [1998] 4 MLJ 246 (CA)	281
Murder—common intention—whether trial judge erred in finding appellants shared necessary common intention—whether evidence supported trial judge's finding of common intention between appellants—diminished responsibility—second appellant suffered neurological illness in infancy—whether trial judge failed to consider damage to brain structure—whether trial judge correct in understanding of psychiatric evidence—whether evidence supported trial judge's finding that second appellant not suffering from abnormality of mind—Penal Code (Cap 224) s. 300 exception 7— intention to cause fatal injury—whether trial judge erred in finding appellants intended to inflict injuries leading to death of deceased—liability under s. 34 Penal Code (Cap 224)—whether necessary to find intention to commit crime for which accused charged (Singapore)

Mansoor s/o Abdullah &amp; Anor v Public Prosecutor [1998] 3 SLR 719 (CA)	283
Controlled drugs—trafficking—presumption of knowledge of nature of drugs—whether presumption of knowledge rebutted—transporting—meaning of “transporting”—whether first appellant had trafficked in drugs by transporting drugs
Criminal procedure—statements—admissibility (Singapore)
Cheng Heng Lee &amp; Anor v Public Prosecutor [1999] 1 SLR 504 (CA)	285
Conspiracy to cheat—whether appellant agreed to act of deception—whether agreement could be inferred from evidence—District judge’s evaluation of credibility of witnesses—Penal Code (Cap 224) ss. 120A & 420—sentencing—conspiracy to cheat—whether sentence manifestly excessive
Evidence—accomplice evidence—evaluation of evidence of accomplice who had already pleaded guilty—whether evidence should be treated with caution—Evidence Act (Cap 97) s. 116 illustration (g) (Singapore)
Tay Huay Hong v Public Prosecutor [1998] 3 SLR 926 (HC)	287
Evidence—defendant’s failure to give evidence—defendant called by court—no examination-in-chief—whether failure to give evidence—whether prosecution entitled to cross-examine—whether adverse inference to be drawn (United Kingdom)
Regina v Bingham; Regina v Cook [1999] 1 WLR 598 (HL)	291
Public order—trespassory assembly—order in force prohibiting trespassory assemblies—peaceful, non-obstructive assembly on highway—extent of public’s rights of access to highway—whether assembly trespassory (United Kingdom)
Director of Public Prosecutions v Jones (Margaret) and Another [1999] 2 WLR 625 (HL)	291
Sentence—life imprisonment—discretionary life sentence—adult defendant committing a “serious offence”—defendant having previous conviction for another “serious offence”—whether exceptional circumstances justifying court in not imposing life sentence (United Kingdom)
R v Kelly; Attorney General’s Reference (No. 53 of 1998) [1999] 2 All ER 13 (CA)	292
Sentence—custodial sentence—seriousness of offence—offence so serious that only custodial sentence can be justified—guidelines (United Kingdom)
R v Howells and other appeals [1999] 1 All ER 50 (CA)	293
Theft—property belonging to another—removal of human body parts from medical institution—whether body parts “property”—whether medical institution in “possession” of body parts (United Kingdom)
Regina v Kelly; Regina v Lindsay [1999] 2 WLR 384 (CA)	294
Trial—open court—proceedings to be held in open court—application by defendants in criminal proceedings to stay proceedings on ground of abuse of process—application by defendants that that application

- be heard in camera—correct procedure—whether application “part of a trial” (United Kingdom)
Ex parte Guardian Newspapers Ltd [1999] 1 All ER 65 (CA) 295
- Sentence—life imprisonment—discretionary life sentence passed on young offender—judge specifying relevant part to be served before consideration by Parole Board—remand time to be taken into account (United Kingdom)
Regina v M (Discretionary Life Sentence); Regina v L [1999] 1 WLR 485 (CA) 296
- Defence Forces and Police*
- Police—negligence—duty to take care—appropriate adult—plaintiff acting as appropriate adult during interviews of murder suspect considered to be mentally disordered—plaintiff claiming damages against police for psychological injury—whether police owing duty of care to plaintiff—Code of Practice for the Detention, Treatment and Questioning of Persons by Police Officers (United Kingdom)
Leach v Chief Constable of Gloucestershire Constabulary [1999] 1 All ER 215 (CA) 297
- Corroboration—child giving unsworn evidence—trial judge warned jury of risks of accepting child’s evidence—jury warned that appellant cannot be convicted on uncorroborated evidence of child witness—whether judge’s summing-up was fair and in accordance with evidence—whether there was sufficient corroboration of evidence—judge—direction to jury—appellant convicted of murder—defence of denial—no other defence tendered—failure to direct jury on lesser charge or exceptions—whether failure by judge was a misdirection
- Criminal procedure—trial—close of prosecution’s case—trial judge said prima facie case established against appellant—if unrebutted would warrant conviction—whether prosecution had actually proved case beyond reasonable doubt (Australia)
Shanmugam a/l Munusamy v Public Prosecutor [1999] 1 MLJ 288 (CA) 298
- Evidence—privilege—discovery—legal professional privilege—whether obtaining search warrant for purposes of pending prosecution was a valid exercise of Commonwealth authority’s investigatory power—whether legal advice from Director of Public Prosecutions to a Commonwealth authority in respect of search warrant was deliberate abuse of statutory power
- Criminal law—criminal procedure—investigation into alleged Medicare fraud—consideration of when investigation is complete—whether Commission’s investigation and investigatory power came to an end upon laying of charges under Health Insurance Commission Act 1973 (Cth)
- Statutes—interpretation—Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1983 (Cth)—whether giving of legal advice by DPP to Commonwealth authority or agency where it is not a party to a proceeding is ultra vires power of DPP
- Words and phrases—“investigation”—“in connection with” (Australia)
Health Insurance Commission and Another v Freeman and Another (1998) 158 ALR 267 (Fed C of A—Full Court) 299

autrefois —duty of tribunal charged with controlling conduct of advocates and solicitors to decide whether plea of autrefois available in any case—whether s. 94A Legal Profession Act (Cap 161, 1994 Ed) impinged on availability of principle of autrefois in disciplinary proceedings—procedure under s. 94A
Show cause action—respondent convicted of criminal offence—respondent paid fine imposed by Council of Law Society—whether respondent could raise plea of autrefois convict at show cause proceedings—whether prior inquiry committee proceedings and fine imposed by Council amounted to “conviction” to justify raising autrefois convict
Show cause action—power of court to quash or stay show cause order where proceedings would be oppressive to respondent or abusive of disciplinary process—whether any abuse of process or oppression to respondent if present show cause proceedings proceeded with—whether order to show cause should be made absolute
Show cause action—respondent convicted of criminal offence—whether respondent should be struck off roll of advocates and solicitors—whether respondent had shown cause why he should not be struck off roll, suspended or censured—whether suspension inadequate (Singapore)
Law Society of Singapore v Edmund Nathan [1998] 3 SLR 414 (HC)	455
Natural justice—bias—judge in own cause—request for extradition of former Head of State for human rights crimes—applicant claiming immunity—human rights body joined as party to proceedings—judge unpaid director and chairman of charity closely linked to human rights body—connection not disclosed to parties—whether judge automatically disqualified—whether appearance of bias (United Kingdom)
Regina v Bow Street Metropolitan Stipendiary Magistrate and Others, Ex parte Pinochet Ugarte (No. 2) [1999] 2 WLR 272 (HL)(E)	457
Practice—discovery—use of documents—documents prepared by prosecution in course of investigation disclosed to accused in criminal proceedings—documents shown to plaintiff by accused’s solicitor—plaintiff bringing libel action based on documents—whether abuse of process—whether implied undertaking not to use documents for purposes other than defence in criminal trial—whether absolute immunity from suit (United Kingdom)
Taylor and Another v Director of the Serious Frauds Office and Others [1998] 3 WLR 1040 (HL)(E)	458
Discrimination—religious belief or political opinion—employment—applicant for employment—solicitors’ firms applying for appointment to provide legal services—applications designating individual solicitors responsible for carrying out work—whether “contract personally to execute any work”—complaints by sole practitioner and by partner on failure to appoint—whether complainants “seeking employment”—whether appointment “qualification” (United Kingdom)
Kelly v Northern Ireland Housing Executive; Loughran v Northern Ireland Housing Executive [1998] 3 WLR 735 (HL)(E)	459
	xxxi

child to acquire British citizenship and right of abode in United Kingdom—whether benefits accruing from acquisition of citizenship relevant in considering adoption application (United Kingdom) In re B (A Minor) (Adoption Order: Nationality) [1999] 2-WLR 714 (HL)	306
Health, Education and Social Welfare
Negligence—duty of care to whom?—local education authority—pupil referred to educational psychologist employed by local authority for assessment—failure to diagnose dyslexia—whether failure to mitigate consequences of dyslexia injury—whether educational psychologist owing duty of care to pupil (United Kingdom) Phelps v Hillingdon London Borough Council [1999] 1 WLR 500 (CA)	307
Mental disorder—restricted patient—discharge—offender with psychopathic disorder seeking discharge from mental hospital—whether suffering at time of hearing from disorder making it “appropriate for him to be liable to be detained”—whether requirement that treatment in hospital “likely to alleviate or prevent” deterioration of condition (United Kingdom) Reid v Secretary of State for Scotland [1999] 2 WLR 28 (HL)	308
Housing and Construction
Landlord and tenant—eviction—unlawful eviction of tenant—damages—joint secure tenancy—wife obtaining ouster injunction requiring husband to leave property—short notice to quit served by wife ineffective to determine joint tenancy—local authority believing notice to be effective and excluding husband from property—whether unlawful eviction—whether husband entitled to damages—measure of damages (United Kingdom) Osei Bonsu v Wandsworth London Borough Council [1999] 1 All ER 265 (CA)	309
Immigration
Refugees—whether Refugees Convention precluded persons who had a well-founded fear of persecution for reasons of what they had done as individuals—whether well-founded fear of persecution may be motivated directly or indirectly by reason of religion—application of common sense to interpretation of Art 1A(2) of Refugees Convention—(CTH) Migration Act 1958 ss. 36, 476(1)(e)—(INT) Convention relating to the Status of Refugees—(INT) Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties Art 31 (Australia) Okere v Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (1998) 157 ALR 678 (FC)	311
Citizenship and migration—deportation—deportation of refugee—whether refugee had committed “particularly serious crime” within meaning of Art 33 of Convention relating to the Status of Refugees 1951—whether offence of “threat to kill” constituted particularly serious crime—whether refugee’s psychological condition was factor that should have been considered in determining whether he had committed particularly serious crime—whether misconstruction of Convention was error of law

- containing detailed items and not to gross sum bill—whether client entitled to taxation on the gross sum bill as provided by s. 121(1)(b) and (c)—whether client had lost his right to taxation of a bill containing detailed items
- Words and phrases—“bill of costs” (Malaysia)
Yau Jioh Hua v Sykt Kilang Bata-Bata Chip Siah Sdn Bhd [1998] 3 MLJ 753 (HC) 447
- Crime—jury—retirement to consider verdict—communication to judge of proposed verdicts and rider—judge discussing rider in chambers with foreman of jury—judge not informing counsel of rider or inviting submissions thereon before verdicts announced—whether material irregularities—whether miscarriage of justice—whether defendant denied fair trial (New Zealand)
Keith Douglas Ramstead v The Queen [1999] 2 WLR 698 (PC) 449
- Solicitors—apparent authority—ostensible authority of solicitor in negotiating with third party to do acts on behalf of clients—when solicitor possessed apparent authority—whether solicitors’ representations binding on client
- Guarantees—validity—signatures of some guarantors omitted from guarantee document—whether done with knowledge and consent of other guarantors
- Res judicata*—principles—whether issue put before court in related action but orally withdrawn by solicitor may be subsequently litigated (Singapore)
Abacus Realty Pte Ltd & Ors v Indian Overseas Bank [1999] 1 SLR 1 (CA) 450
- Admission of Queen’s Counsel—three-stage test for admission—whether applicant suitable for admission—whether issues raised sufficiently complex points of law and/or facts—whether circumstances of case justified exercise of judicial discretion in applicant’s favour (Singapore)
Re Price Arthur Leolin QC [1998] 3 SLR 782 (HC) 451
- Practising certificates—imposition of conditions while practising certificate still in force—application by Law Society under s. 27A of Legal Profession Act to suspend practising certificate of one defendant and to impose conditions on certificate of second defendant—defendants were partners of firm—first defendant misappropriated money from client account—principles governing application of s. 27A (Singapore)
Law Society of Singapore v Lim Yee Kai & Anor [1999] 1 SLR 336 (HC) 452
- Solicitors—vendors appointed solicitors acting on their behalf on sale of property as stakeholders for contract deposit—whether appointment of vendors’ solicitors as stakeholders under sale agreement concurrent and inseparable from their appointment as vendors’ solicitors (Singapore)
Promenade Properties Pte Ltd v Gabriel Peter & Anor [1998] 2 SLR 751 454
- Show cause action—respondent convicted of criminal offence—respondent paid fine imposed by Council of Law Society—whether respondent could show cause by invoking common law principle of

Industrial Relations

Vicarious liability—employment—course of employment—employee carrying out acts in course of employment—acts tortious only when linked to acts of another outside course of employment—whether employer vicariously liable—whether carrying out of otherwise lawful act with intent to assist another's fraud itself actionable tort (United Kingdom)

Credit Lyonnais Bank Nederland NV (Now known as Generale Bank Nederland NV) v Export Credits Guarantee Department [1999] 2 WLR 540 (HL)

321

Land

Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders—native title—proof—extinguishment—Crown grants—freehold—mining leases—limitation periods—resumption and acquisition of Crown lands—exploration licences—legislation

Evidence—admissibility—proof of elements of native title—expert evidence—use of historical evidence—linguistic evidence—anthropological and genealogical evidence

Words and phrases—“native title”—“identifiable community”—“traditional laws and customs”—“past acts”—“previous exclusive possession acts” (Australia)

Ward and Others (on behalf of the Miriuwung and Gajerrong People) and Others v State of Western Australia and Others (1998) 159 ALR 483 (FC of A)

323

Local Government

Local government—homeless persons—council's duty—decision that applicant not in priority need—provision of accommodation pending review of decision and subsequent appeal—whether local authority under duty—whether county court having jurisdiction to grant injunction (United Kingdom)

Ali v Westminster City Council, Nairne v Camden London Borough Council [1999] 1 WLR 384 (CA)

326

Maritime Law

Shipping and navigation—arbitration—security to cover arbitration awards—power of court to order security under s. 7(1) of International Arbitration Act (Cap 143A, 1995 Ed)—arrest of vessel—disagreement as to terms of security for release of vessel—disagreement as to right to arbitrate—application for release of vessel and damages—whether plaintiffs' claim for security to cover arbitration award could be granted in circumstances

Arbitration—international arbitration—security to cover arbitration awards—power of court to order security under s. 7(1) of International Arbitration Act (Cap 143A, 1995 Ed)—arrest of vessel—disagreement as to terms of security for release of vessel—disagreement as to right to arbitrate—application for release of vessel and damages—whether plaintiffs' claim for security to cover arbitration award could be granted in circumstances (Singapore)

The Sunwind [1998] 3 SLR 954 (HC)

326

Primary Industries and Animals

Animal—dog—out of control—dogs attacking and killing another dog—whether other dogs among species intended to be protected by dog control legislation—whether dogs “dangerous, and not kept under proper control” (United Kingdom)
Briscoe v Shattock [1999] 1 WLR 432 (QBD)

327

Professions and Trades

Accountant or auditor—accountant—conflict of interest—confidential information—duty to former client—plaintiff retaining accountants to provide litigation support services—disclosure of confidential information relating to plaintiff’s financial affairs—accountants subsequently undertaking work for party with interests adverse to plaintiff—whether duty to former client to prevent risk of disclosure of confidential information—whether “Chinese walls” adequate safeguard—whether plaintiff entitled to injunction restraining accountants from acting for new client (United Kingdom)
Prince Jefri Bolkiah v KPMG (a firm) [1999] 2 WLR 215 (HL)

327

Torts

Personal injuries—respondent awarded damages by sessions court—part of injuries in award granted not pleaded—injuries had to be expressly pleaded and proved—whether injuries not pleaded but adduced as evidence without objection can cure absence of plea—personal injuries—loss of future earnings—award did not take into account increase in respondent’s basic salary—whether trial judge had erred—whether offshore allowances were separate from salary (Malaysia)

Chang Ming Feng & Anor v Jackson Lim @ Jackson ak Bajut
[1999] 1 MLJ 1 (HC)

329

Defamation—absolute privilege—statements made at creditors’ meeting—whether defence of absolute privilege extended to maker of statements—publication in minutes of creditors’ meeting—minutes not disclosed under compulsion of court process—whether rights of confidentiality or privilege attached to it—whether plaintiffs’ use of minutes in defamation proceedings against defendant an abuse of process

Civil procedure—abuse of process—documents disclosed voluntarily in legal proceedings—whether libel action in respect of documents disclosed voluntarily an abuse of process of court (Singapore)

Hong Lam Marine Pte Ltd & Anor v Koh Chye Heng [1998] 3 SLR 833 (CA)

330

Damages (Personal Injury or Death)—death—dependency claim—loss of support to deceased’s daughter—defendant the father—assessment of pecuniary loss—daughter’s expenses borne by deceased—position where both spouses worked—defendant supporting daughter up to trial—whether pre-trial loss should be awarded—post-trial loss—applicability of “conventional percentage deduction” approach in assessing claim by estate for “lost years”—whether CPF

Contents

Articles	1
The 1949 London Declaration: Birth of the Modern Commonwealth ( Amitav Banerji )	1
Commonwealth Law Bulletin —Chronicler of a Quarter Century of Change ( Hon Justice Michael Kirby AC CMG )	8
The Common Law: Past, Present and Future ( Rt Hon Lord Bingham of Cornhill )	18
The New Common Law of the Commonwealth: The Judicial Response to Bills of Rights ( James S Read )	31
The Challenge of Bangalore: Making Human Rights a Practical Reality ( Lord Lester of Herne Hill QC )	47
Some Reflections on the Role of the Commonwealth in the Development of National Institutions ( Professor John Hatchard )	64
The Ombudsman and Human Rights Institutions in the Caribbean: An Overview ( Hon Justice Vincent Meerabux )	79
The Commonwealth and Women's Rights ( Professor Christine Chinkin )	96
The Interpretation and Application of Human Rights by Commonwealth Courts to Reproductive and Sexual Health ( Rebecca J Cook and Isfahan Merali )	109
The Commonwealth and Human Rights: An Indian Perspective ( Dr Subhash C Jain )	117
Public Interest Law Revisited ( Jeremy Cooper )	135
 Legislation	 154
Administrative Law
Administration of Parliament Act 1997 (Uganda)	154
Commercial Law
Electronic Transactions Act 1998 (Singapore)	156
Competition Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	160
Constitutional Law and Human Rights
Constitution Alteration (Establishment of Republic) Bill 1999: Exposure Draft (Australia)	160
Presidential Nominations Committee Bill 1999 (Australia)	162
Equal Opportunity (No. 2) Bill 1998 (Trinidad and Tobago)	164
Government of Wales Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	167
Scotland Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	172
Northern Ireland Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	175
Criminal Law and Procedure
Penal Code (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	178
Computer Misuse (Amendment) Act 1998 (Singapore)	178

contributions of deceased formed part of dependency claim (Singapore) Gul Chandiram Mahtani &amp; Anor (administrators of the estate of Harbajan Kaur, deceased) v Chain Singh &amp; Anor [1999] 1 SLR 154 (HC)	331
Defamation—ordinary meaning of words spoken—whether words implied appellant's guilt of criminal offence—whether error in trial judge's findings on ordinary meaning of words—whether words suggested general nature of offence for which appellant might be investigated—damages—whether single lump sum to be awarded or separation of awards for general compensatory and aggravated damages—whether trial judge considered all relevant factors in assessment of damages—areas in which judge erred—award discon- sonant with precedent cases
Civil procedure—costs—defamation—whether trial judge justified in reducing costs of successful party—disparity between meaning of words pleaded and meanings found by trial judge
Civil procedure—pleadings—defamation—plaintiff to plead highest defamatory meaning of words complained of—whether court could find lesser defamatory meaning than that pleaded by plaintiff— whether trial judge could determine meaning more defamatory than that pleaded—pleading of strained and unnatural defamatory meaning totally unwarranted by offending words—amendment of such plead- ings and condemnation in costs (Singapore) Goh Chok Tong v Jeyaretnam Joshua Benjamin and another action [1998] 3 SLR 337 (CA)	333
Damages—measure of damages—negligence—surveyor—surveyor negligently valuing property for mortgagee and private purchaser— property uninhabitable—whether purchaser entitled to recover equivalent of indemnity for past and future mortgage interest payments and insurance premiums—whether purchaser entitled to recover cost of alternative accommodation until resale of property— powers of court on making award of damages (United Kingdom) Patel and another v Hooper &amp; Jackson (a firm) [1999] 1 All ER 992 (CA)	335
Negligence—foreseeability of consequential injury—nervous shock— disaster at football stadium caused by negligence of chief constable and others—police officers suffering psychiatric injury after tending victims—whether owed duty as employees—whether owed duty as rescuers (United Kingdom) White and Others v Chief Constable of South Yorkshire Police and Others [1998] 3 WLR 1509 (HL)	337
Defamation—pleadings—striking out—defence of justification— newspaper article containing two defamatory statements—plaintiffs complaining of only one statement but setting out entire article in pleadings—defendants pleading fair comment and justification in relation to other statement—whether plea of justification to be struck out (United Kingdom) Cruise and Another v Express Newspapers Plc and Another [1999] 2 WLR 327 (CA)	338

Transport

Transport—railways—trade practices—access to services—application for declaration of railway line—whether use of railway line is “government coal-carrying service”

Words and phrases—“service”—“government coal-carrying service” (Australia)

Rail Access Corporation v New South Wales Minerals Council Ltd (1998) 158 ALR 323 (FC of A—Full Court)

339

Trust and Trustees

Equity—trust and trustee—breach of trust—liability of stranger to trust—constructive trustee—knowing assistance—bank—knowledge requirement—customer giving bank loan guarantee supported by collateral mortgage on trust property—whether bank liable for breach of trust on basis of knowing assistance—appropriate test—constructive trustee—knowing receipt—basis of liability—restitution—bank—customer giving bank loan guarantee supported by collateral mortgage on trust property—whether bank receiving trust property for own use and benefit—whether bank liable for breach of trust on basis of knowing receipt—appropriate test (Canada)

Gold v Rosenberg and Another [1998] 3 LRC 366 (SC)

340

Succession—wills—construction—uncertainty—condition subsequent—gift of house to elder daughter on specific condition that she allowed younger daughter and son to stay, and personal friend to stay where necessary—whether condition subsequent valid—whether direction void for uncertainty

Civil procedure—appeal—further evidence—further evidence of matters arising before date of decision from which appeal was brought—admission of—applicable principles

Words and phrases—“stay” “necessary” (Singapore)

Toh Eng Lan v Foong Fook Yue and another appeal [1999] 1 SLR 453 (CA)

343

Civil procedure—judgments and orders—order for retrial—whether case should have proceeded as if begun by writ as questions of fact involved and witnesses should be cross-examined—no application for cross-examination of witnesses—evident that parties prepared to let matter be decided on basis of affidavit evidence

Equity—defences—estoppel—elements of estoppel—acquiescence necessary to raise estoppel—whether acquiescence by respondent to sale of wakaf property—whether respondent estopped in respect of redevelopment works carried out to property by appellant—failure of respondent to inform appellant of its interest in property prior to latter's redevelopment works

Islamic Law—charitable trusts—wakaf created by will—whether property constituted valid wakaf under Muslim law—constituent elements of wakaf

Trusts and trustees—charitable trust by Muslim—whether trustees of wakaf had authority to manage or administer wakaf property—whether trustees of wakaf could obtain sanction of court under s. 59 Trustees Act (Cap 337) for sale of wakaf property—vesting of legal

- principle of general importance in the administration of justice—whether breach could be cured—whether the was substantial miscarriage of justice (Malaysia)
- Harun bin Abdullah v Public Prosecutor* [1998] 3 MLJ 442
- Judgments and orders—consent order—variation—both counsel agreed that issue be decided as a preliminary point, resulting in consent order made—whether court should permit one party to resile from what was decided by his counsel—whether trial judge could reopen matter because no order had been perfected—whether such curative powers can only be exercised under the slip rule—whether order could be varied (Malaysia)
- Visia Finance Bhd v Expert Credit and Leasing Sdn Bhd & Ors* [1998] 2 MLJ 705 (CA) 443
- Judge—application to discharge—no allegation of actual bias—whether judge had pre-judged issue in earlier application—whether fair trial of action before the same judge would no longer be possible—whether there is an appearance of bias—whether delay in application was inordinate—whether there was sufficient reason to require judge to withdraw from the case (Malaysia)
- MBf Capital Bhd & Anor v Tommy Thomas & Anor (No. 8)* [1998] 3 MLJ 232 (HC) 444
- Practice of law—unauthorised person—right to sue—advocate and solicitor began action against co-partner through law firm which he was sole proprietor—no valid practising certificate—whether plaintiff was an unauthorised person—whether plaintiff suing in his personal capacity—whether plaintiff and law firm in fact and law one of the same (Malaysia)
- Shahinuddin bin Shariff v Mohd Amin bin Hasbollah* [1998] 3 MLJ 693 (HC) 445
- Contempt of court—allegation of bias against judge—advocate alleged that presiding judge would be biased against him and all cases handled by him—imputation of judicial misconduct—whether impaired public confidence in the administration of justice—whether court should act summarily (Malaysia)
- Leong Sien Fung & Ors v Leong Shan Nam and other suits* [1998] 4 MLJ 352 (HC) 446
- Prosecution—rights to conduct prosecution—whether any party apart from the Public Prosecutor may be lawfully empowered to conduct prosecution—whether the Attorney General should be the sole or only person to institute, conduct or discontinue any proceedings for an offence—Federal Constitution Art 145(3)
- Prosecution—right to conduct prosecution—whether prospective ruling on the right to conduct prosecution should affect trials of cases which had not been concluded after the ruling was delivered (Malaysia)
- Public Prosecutor v Lee Ming & Anor* [1998] 4 MLJ 113 (HC) 446
- Remuneration—bill of costs—application by client for taxation of counsel's gross sum bill after expiry of six month period prescribed by ss. 126(1) and 128(1)—no agreement between parties in respect of the plaintiff's costs—client did not request for bill containing detailed items—counsel issued writ for recovery of costs under s. 124—whether ss. 121(1)(b), 126(1) and 128(1) refer only to bill

- Conspiracy to cheat—whether appellant agreed to act of deception—whether agreement could be inferred from evidence—District judge's evaluation of credibility of witnesses—Penal Code (Cap 224) ss. 120A & 420—sentencing—conspiracy to cheat—whether sentence manifestly excessive
- Evidence—accomplice evidence—evaluation of evidence of accomplice who had already pleaded guilty—whether evidence should be treated with caution—Evidence Act (Cap 97) s. 116 illustration (g) (Singapore)
- Tay Huay Hong v Public Prosecutor* [1998] 3 SLR 926 (HC) 301
- Crime—evidence—confession—police failing to inform defendant of constitutional right to communicate with lawyer—confession obtained in breach of constitutional right—judge wrongly permitting prosecuting counsel to make closing speech to jury—whether confession obtained in breach of defendant's constitutional rights admissible—exercise of discretion—whether proviso to be applied (Trinidad and Tobago)
- Allie Mohammed v The State* [1999] 2 WLR 552 (PC) 301
- Criminal evidence—interception of communications—telephone intercepts—pager—interception of pager messages from Holland—whether pager messages transmitted by means of public telecommunication system—whether pager messages admissible in evidence (United Kingdom)
- R v Taylor-Sabori* [1999] 1 All ER 160 (CA) 302
- Extradition and Fugitive Offenders*
- Extradition crime—definition—conduct which if it occurred in the United Kingdom, would constitute an offence—date when conduct must constitute an offence—Spanish government accusing former Head of State of conspiracy to torture and torture outside United Kingdom between 1972 and 1990—torture abroad only becoming offence in United Kingdom in 1988—whether sufficient that torture an offence at date of extradition request—immunity from extradition—former Head of State—immunity for acts performed in exercise of official functions as Head of State—whether torture part of official functions of a Head of State—whether former Head of State entitled to claim immunity from extradition for crime of torture (United Kingdom)
- R v Bow Street Metropolitan Stipendiary Magistrate and others, ex parte Pinochet Ugarte (Amnesty International and others intervening)* (No. 3) [1999] 2 All ER 97 (HL); [1999] 2 WLR 827 (HL) 303
- Family Law*
- Divorce—ancillary relief—compromise—negotiations between parties leading to number of draft agreements—husband claiming no agreement—judge determining parties bound by draft agreement—whether judge correct—whether matter to be determined by ordinary contractual principles (United Kingdom)
- Xydhias v Xydhias* [1999] 2 All ER 386 (CA) 305
- Adoption—adoption order—non-patrial—child granted leave to enter United Kingdom for six months to visit grandparents—extension of leave to remain refused—grandparents applying to adopt to enable title to wakaf properties in Majlis Ugama Islam Singapura under Administration of Muslim Law Act (Cap 3) (Singapore)

L S Investment Pte Ltd v Majlis Ugama Islam Singapura [1998] 3 SLR 754 (CA)	347
Equity—compromise agreement—enforceability—whether compromise agreement supervened rights of party under previous agreement with third party—whether conduct of party seeking equitable relief “approbating and reprobating”—whether compromise agreement still subsisted—applicability of maxim “He who seeks equity must do equity” (Singapore)
Lim Sui Hong Katherine v Lim Joo Hien Anthony [1999] 1 SLR 64 (CA)	349
Equity—equitable interest—illegality—house jointly purchased by man and mistress—conveyed into her sole name to avoid potential claim by man’s wife—whether purpose of conveyance into mistress’s sole name illegal—whether man entitled to declaration of beneficial interest in property (United Kingdom)
Lowson v Coombes [1999] 2 WLR 720 (CA)	351
Inheritance tax—lifetime transfer—gift of property subject to a reservation—transfer of freehold interest subject to leases in favour of donor—whether property subject to a reservation of benefit
Lease—grant of lease by nominee to principal—validity—whether breach of principle that person cannot contract with himself (United Kingdom)
Ingram and another (executors of the estate of Lady Ingram (deceased)) v Inland Revenue Commissioners [1999] 1 All ER 297 (HL)	351
Law Reform	353
Annual Reports	353
Arbitration
Arbitration: An International Arbitration Act for South Africa (South Africa)	353
Bankruptcy and Insolvency
Cross-Border Insolvency (New Zealand)	357
Courts Practice and Procedure
Justice: The Experience of Māori Women (New Zealand)	367
Criminal Law and Procedure
Aspects of the Law Relating to AIDS: The Need for a Statutory Offence Aimed at Harmful HIV-Related Behaviour (South Africa)	369
Fraud and Deception (United Kingdom)	384
Housing and Construction
Retirement Villages (New Zealand)	393
Insurance
Some Insurance Law Problems (New Zealand)	400
Land
Retirement Villages (New Zealand)	411
	xxvii