

should be made against commission — whether court having jurisdiction to make costs order against commission in favour of other body financed from public funds — whether it could be just and equitable to make order against commission in favour of government department (United Kingdom)

R v Secretary of State for the Home Department, ex parte Gunn; R (on the application of Kelly) v Secretary of State for the Home Department; R (on the application of Khan) v Secretary of State for the Home Department [2001] 3 All ER 481 (CA)

1106

Disclosure of information — interview — caution — police officer interviewing suspect without a solicitor present — suspect making admission — officer concluding that admission rendering suspect suitable for caution — police refusing request by suspect's solicitor to disclose contents of interview — non-disclosure preventing solicitor from giving informed advice on whether to accept caution — police charging suspect — whether police having duty to disclose contents of interview to suspect's solicitor for purpose of enabling him to advise on acceptance of caution — whether failure to give such disclosure rendering subsequent prosecution an abuse of process (United Kingdom)

Director of Public Prosecutions v Ara [2001] 4 All ER 560 (DC)

1109

Justices — evidence — disclosure of information to defence — district judge granting application by prosecution for non-disclosure of material on ground of public interest immunity — whether district judge right to disqualify himself from conducting trial — whether necessary to ensure defendant's right to trial by impartial tribunal (United Kingdom)

Regina (Director of Public Prosecutions) v Action Youth Court [2001] 1 WLR 1828 (DC)

1110

Third parties' rights — legal expenses insurance — solicitor acting for insured in legal proceedings — solicitor's final bill not paid — insured declared bankrupt — solicitor claiming sums due under policy directly from insurers — whether insured's debts to solicitor "liabilities to third parties which he may incur" (United Kingdom)

Tarbuck v Avon Insurance plc [2001] 3 WLR 1502

1111

Solicitor — disciplinary proceedings — disciplinary tribunal — power to refer case to Office for the Supervision of Solicitors — applicant making complaint against solicitors to Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal — Tribunal declining to determine whether prima facie, case made out and referring case to Office for the Supervision of Solicitors — whether tribunal having power to refer case before certifying that prima facie case established (United Kingdom)

R (on the application of Toth) v Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal [2001] 3 All ER 180 (AC)

1111

Inquiry Committee — complaint to Council of Law Society — duty to refer to inquiry Panel — whether discretionary (Singapore) Wee Soon Kim Anthony v Law Society of Singapore [2001] 2 SLR 145 (CA)	1068
Costs — wasted costs order — personal liability of solicitor for costs — whether solicitors had acted improperly, unreasonably or negligently — same firm of solicitors acting for client in both conveyancing transaction as well as litigation arising out of that transaction — failure to advise client to seek independent legal advice — whether wasted costs order justified (Singapore) Ho Kon Kim v Lim Gek Kim Betsy & Ors and another appeal [2001] 4 SLR 340 (CA)	1068
Expert evidence — evidence outside learning of court — evidence based on sound grounds and supported by basic facts — whether judge entitled to substitute unopposed expert's opinion with his own — duty of judge in face of such evidence (Singapore) Saeng-Un Udom v Public Prosecutor [2001] 3 SLR 1 (CA)	1071
Compensation Fund — application of moneys in fund — use of fund to pay off building loan for Law Society — whether building loan was for purpose of fund — whether application should be allowed
Trust property — investment or other transaction — whether s. 56(1) of Trustees Act (Cap 337, 1999 Ed) could be invoked for court to sanction applicant's loan scheme — whether scheme an "investment" or "other transaction" — whether scheme expedient (Singapore) Re Compensation Fund established under s. 75 of the Legal Profession Act (Cap 161, 2000 Ed) [2001] 4 SLR 633 (HC)	1072
Admission of Queen's Counsel — three-stage test for admission — whether applicant suitable for admission — whether issues raised sufficiently complex points of law and/or facts — whether circumstances of case justified exercise of judicial discretion in applicant's favour (Singapore) Re Howe Martin Russell Thomas QC [2001] 3 SLR 575 (HC)	1073
Roll of advocates and solicitors — replacement on Roll — application for replacement on Roll — application made just slightly past five years from date of striking-off order — applicant previously convicted of corruption and criminal breach of trust for which he was struck off — whether applicant fit to have his name replaced on Roll (Singapore) Re Nirmal Singh s/o Fauja Singh [2001] 3 SLR 608 (HC)	1074
Admission of Queen's Counsel — three-stage test for admission — whether case of sufficient difficulty and complexity that local counsel unable to adequately and ably handle — whether circumstances of case warranted court exercising discretion in favour of admission — factors non-exhaustive (Singapore) Re Flint Charles John Raffles QC [2001] 2 SLR 276 (HC)	1074
Show cause action — grossly improper conduct — breach of undertaking to pay moneys held as stakeholder — whether intention to deceive necessary to constitute grossly improper conduct — appropriate penalty (Singapore)

Re Lim Kiap Khee; Law Society of Singapore v Lim Kiap Khee [2001] 3 SLR 616 (HC)

1076

Judgment — alteration — power of court to alter judgment — whether High Court in its appellate capacity has power to alter judgment — definition of “judgment” — whether order of court granting applicant time to settle personal and work affairs before serving sentence of imprisonment regarded as judgment — whether High Court has power to alter such previous order and grant further extension of time before serving sentence (Singapore)

Lim Teck Leng Roland v Public Prosecutor [2001] 4 SLR 61 (HC)

1078

Fundamental rights — remedies — damages — right to the protection of the law — right to be heard — infringement of rights — compensation — assessment — removal of judge from office — right of judge to be heard before any representation made to President to appoint tribunal to investigate whether he should be removed from office — elements to be considered when making award — whether award to be confined to distress and inconvenience — factors to be taken into account in determining inconvenience and distress — whether loss of reputation to be taken into account (Trinidad and Tobago)

Crane v Rees and Others [2001] 3 LRC 510

1079

Constructive fraud — undue influence — legal charge — constructive notice — independent legal advice — guidelines (United Kingdom)

Royal Bank of Scotland v Etridge (No. 2); Barclays Bank plc v Coleman; Bank of Scotland v Bennet; Kenyon-Brown v Desmond Bankes & Co [2001] All ER (D) 156 (Oct), [2001] UKHL 44; Review Para 01/2798

1083

Solicitor — negligence — will — duty of care — instructions to draw up will conferring benefit on identified beneficiary — defendant solicitors failing to execute valid will giving effect to testatrix's testamentary intentions — court ordering costs of proceedings challenging validity of will to be paid out of estate — solicitors paying disappointed residuary beneficiaries sum amounting to full value of residuary estate undiminished by costs of will action — testatrix's personal representative bringing proceedings against solicitors seeking recovery of costs of will action — whether negligent solicitors having liability to testatrix's estate for costs of proceedings challenging validity of will (United Kingdom)

Corbett v Bond Pearce (a firm) [2001] 3 All ER 769 (CA)

1084

Duty owed to client — conflict of interest — termination of retainer — subsequent recommendation to invest in solicitor's business —

failure to insist on independent advice (United Kingdom) Longstaff v Birtles [2001] All ER (D) 373 (Jul); Review para 01/2957	1086
Costs — wasted costs order — order against legal representative — incompetence — judge a witness of fact — judge presiding in primary and wasted costs proceedings — bias (United Kingdom) Re a Barrister (Wasted Costs Order) [2001] All ER (D) 296 (Jul); Review para 01/2004	1087
Duty of care — duty owed to third party — conflict between client's and third party's interests (United Kingdom) Dean v Allin & Watts (a firm) [2001] All ER (D) 288 (May); Review para 01/2190	1087
Jury — civil proceedings — discharge — setting aside discharge — reconsideration of verdict (United Kingdom) Igwemma v Chief Constable of Greater Manchester Police [2001] All ER (D) 206 (Jun); Review para 01/2097	1088
Jury — verdict — jury seeking to amend verdict — discretion of trial judge to permit amendment (United Kingdom) R v Tantram [2001] All ER (D) 328 (May); Review para 01/2097	1089
Right to fair and public hearing — independent and impartial tribunal — jury — misconduct reported by juror after verdict entered (United Kingdom) R v Qureshi, Court of Appeal, The Times , 11 September 2001; Review para 01/2539	1089
Authority of solicitor — client absconded — application for leave to appeal (United Kingdom) R v Charles, R v Tucker [2001] All ER (D) 248 (Jan); Review para 01/766	1090
Conduct of cases — Bar Council rules of guidance — allegation of fraud — application of rules to allegation of malicious falsehood (United Kingdom) Cornwall Gardens Pte Ltd v R O Garrard and Co Ltd, Court of Appeal, The Times , 19 June 2001; Review para 01/1682	1090
Court of Appeal — jurisdiction — appeal from decision of High Court judge (United Kingdom) Foenander v Bond Lewis & Co, Court of Appeal, The Independent , 8 June 2001; Review para 01/1733	1090
Duty of care — ancillary relief proceedings — consent order — failure to advise that order variable — causation (United Kingdom) Westbury v Sampson [2001] EWCA Civ 407; [2001] 2 FCR 210; Review para 01/1901	1091
Disclosure — privilege — legal professional privilege — translations of unprivileged documents — documents selected for purpose of litigation (United Kingdom) Sumitomo Corpn v Credit Lyonnais Rouse Ltd [2001] All ER (D) 273 (Jul) (CA); Review para 01/2303	1091

Trial — preparation for trial — discretion of judge as to what material to read before trial (United Kingdom)
Barings plc (in liquidation) v Coopers and Lybrand, Court of Appeal, The Times , 19 October 2001; Review para 01/2831	1092
Right of audience — right to conduct litigation — litigant in person — litigation friend — rights granted by court — guidelines (United Kingdom)
Noueiri v Paragon Finance plc [2001] All ER (D) 43 (Scp) (CA); Review para 01/2857	1092
Judgment — summary judgment — defence invoking privilege against self — incrimination — availability of privilege in civil proceedings (United Kingdom)
VTFL v Clough [2001] All ER (D) 209 (Oct) (CA); Review para 01/2774	1093
Jury — trial by jury — defamation — summary judgment — claimant bringing proceedings for libel against defendant — judge concluding that words complained of were defamatory and giving summary judgment for claimant — whether judge usurping role of jury (United Kingdom)
Safeway Stores plc v Tate [2001] 4 All ER 194 (CA)	1094
Libel and slander — qualified privilege — malice avoiding privilege — judge withdrawing issue of malice from jury — whether judge in error
Jury — trial by jury — defamation — proper roles of judge and jury in respect of issues of fact (United Kingdom)
Alexander v Arts Council of Wales and another [2001] 4 All ER 205 (CA)	1096
Judgment — handed down judgments — judgments in advance of hearing — judge sending draft judgment to parties' lawyers — parties compromising dispute before judgment formally handed down — whether judge having discretion to hand down judgment notwithstanding settlement agreement (United Kingdom)
Prudential Assurance Co Ltd v McBains Cooper (a firm) and others [2001] 3 All ER 1014 (CA)	1097
Legal aid — order for costs — variation — whether court having jurisdiction to vary costs order against assisted person whose legal aid certificate was subsequently revoked (United Kingdom)
DEG-Deutsche Investitions vnd Entwicklungsgesellschaft mbH v Koshy and others [2001] 3 All ER 878	1098
Practice — personal injuries action — damages — experts' reports — disclosure to other parties — pre-action protocol requiring party to provide other party with names of proposed experts before instructing an expert — protocol giving other party opportunity to object to any of named experts — claimant instructing expert to whom defendant had taken no objection but refusing to disclose his report — whether defendant's failure to object to expert nominated by claimant transforming expert into single joint expert whose detailed items (Malaysia)

John Ang & Jega (suing as a firm) v Kulasingam a/l Sinatamby [2001] 2 MLJ 605 (HC)	1058
Disciplinary proceedings — barrister — voluntary removal from Roll of practitioners — conviction of conspiracy to export foreign currency — drug-trafficking as object of conspiracy — sentence subsequently quashed and conditional discharge entered — barrister seeking reinstatement to Roll — public interest in reputation of legal profession — whether account to be taken of drugs element of offence — Supreme Court refusing reinstatement — role of Privy Council on appeal therefrom (Mauritius)
Chinien v AG and Another [2000] 4 LRC 443 (PC)	1060
Judiciary — judgment — reasons — judge failing to give reasons for judgment — whether judges required to give reasons for decisions — principles governing provision of reasons — requirement of open justice (New Zealand)
Lewis v Wilson & Horton Ltd [2001] 2 LRC 205	1061
Natural justice — fair hearing — bias — appearance of possible impartiality — approach of court (New Zealand)
Man O'War Station Ltd v Auckland City Council [2001] 1 NLZR 552; Review para 01/1675	1063
Costs — wasted costs — abuse of process — liability of legal representative for wasted costs incurred due to abuse of process — jurisdiction of court — guidelines to be followed — compensation (Papua New Guinea)
Polye v Papaki and Another [2001] 1 LRC 170	1064
Judgment — Supreme Court — jurisdiction to correct errors in own judgment — exercise of discretion — appropriate test (Papua New Guinea)
Maino v Avei and Another [2001] 2 LRC 262	1065
Summary judgment — ex parte hearing — court awarding summary judgment in absence of defendant — defendant applying to set aside judgment — defendant claiming to have defence — award of summary judgment in ex parte hearing — whether appropriate — relevant considerations (Papua New Guinea)
Smith v Ruma Constructions Ltd [2001] 2 LRC 191	1065
Professional discipline — procedure — extent and manner of application of rules of natural justice to proceedings by inquiry committee — function of inquiry committee — whether inquiry committee must interview witness in presence of solicitor under inquiry — whether inquiry committee under obligation to invite or allow submission in support of complaint — period of notice to be given to solicitor under inquiry under s. 86(8) of Legal Profession Act (Cap 161, 2000 Ed) (Singapore)
Subbiah Pillai v Wong Meng Meng & Ors [2001] 3 SLR 544 (CA)	1066

report was available to both parties — whether refusal to disclose report of expert to whom no objection made by other side constituting non-compliance with protocol (United Kingdom)

Carlson v Townsend [2001] 3 All ER 663 (CA)

1099

Costs — order for costs — personal injury claims — claimants seeking damages for minor injuries suffered in road traffic accidents — solicitors instructed under conditional fee agreements with success fees — claimants taking out insurance covering risk of liability to pay defendants' costs — claims settled without issue of proceedings — defendants agreeing to pay reasonable costs — whether success fee and insurance premium recoverable — whether amount of success fee reasonable (United Kingdom)

Callery v Gray; Russell v Pal Pak Corrugated Ltd [2001] 1 WLR 2112

1100

Costs — taxation — legal expenses insurance — claimant taking out legal expenses insurance in respect of claim against defendant — insurance providing cover against risk of liability to pay defendant's costs and own disbursements — claim settled with defendant agreeing to pay reasonable costs — whether premium recoverable as costs — whether premium reasonable (United Kingdom)

Callery v Gray (No. 2) [2001] 1 WLR 2142 (CA)

1101

Costs — order for costs — legal expenses insurance — before-the-event (BTE) insurance — after-the-event (ATE) insurance premium — driver having motor vehicle insurance policy containing BTE legal expenses cover — whether passenger entitled to recover ATE premium in small personal injury claim where BTE cover available under driver's insurance policy

Solicitor — practice — costs — before-the-event (BTE) insurance — steps to be taken by solicitor to discover whether BTE insurance available to client — guidance (United Kingdom)

Sarwar v Alam [2001] 4 All ER 541 (CA)

1102

Privilege — legal professional privilege — telephone conversations between solicitor and client in matrimonial proceedings — client making threatening and abusive remarks in course of conversations — solicitor's affidavit in support of application to be removed from record in client's matrimonial proceedings disclosing content of conversations — affidavit inadvertently sent to client's wife's solicitors — wife seeking to adduce affidavit in evidence — whether communications criminal in themselves — whether aim of communications obtaining of appropriate legal advice — whether protected by legal professional privilege (United Kingdom)

C v C (Privilege: Criminal Communications) [2001] 3 WLR 446 (CA)

1105

Community legal service funding — unassisted person's costs out of community legal service fund — jurisdiction — whether proper for trial court to determine in principle whether costs order

xxxi

Children Development Co-Savings Act 2001 (Singapore)	776
Private Security Industry Act 2001 (United Kingdom)	778
Health, Education and Social Welfare
Civil Service College Act 2001 (Singapore)	780
Home Affairs Uniformed Services Superannuation Act 2001 (Singapore)	780
Health and Social Care Act 2001 (United Kingdom)	782
Immigration
Immigration (Carriers' Liability) Act 2000 (India)	786
Passport (Entry into India) Amendment Act 2000 (India)	787
Housing and Construction
Control of Rent (Abolition) Act 2001 (Singapore)	788
Industrial and Intellectual Property
Patents (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	790
Land
Land Titles (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	791
Singapore Land Authority Act 2001 (Singapore)	794
Natural Resources and Energy
Energy Market Authority of Singapore Act 2001 (Singapore)	795
Electricity Act 2001 (Singapore)	796
Gas Act 2001 (Singapore)	798
Privacy
Whistleblowers Protection Act 2001 (Australia — Victoria)	802
Official Secrets (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	821
Public Utilities
District Cooling Act 2001 (Singapore)	821
Public Utilities Act 2001 (Singapore)	823
Singapore Broadcasting Authority (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	823
Gas Act 2001 (Singapore)	824
Electricity Act 2001 (Singapore)	824
Transport
Road Traffic (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	824
Trusts and Trustees
Trust Companies and Offshore Banking Act 2000 (Anguilla)	825

- Judgment — alteration — variation of decision after judgment delivered — judge's power to recall and change judgment — whether exercise of power dependent on existence of exceptional circumstances (United Kingdom)
Compagnie Noga D'Importation et D'Exportation SA v Abacha and another (as personal representatives of Sani Abacha (deceased)); Attorney General of the Federal Republic of Nigeria and another v Abacha and another (as personal representatives of Sani Abacha (deceased)) [2001] 3 All ER 513 1113
- Evidence — interview evidence — interpreter — confidential communications — legal professional privilege (United Kingdom)
R (on the application of Bozkurt) v South Thames Magistrates Court [2001] All ER P 175 (May); Review para 01/1739 1114
- Award — appeal against award — dismissal of appeal — refusal of leave to appeal — duty to give extended reasons for refusing leave (United Kingdom)
Mousaka Inc v Golden Seagull Maritime Inc [2001] All ER (D) 418 (Jul); Review para 01/2629 1115
- Duty owed to client — purchase of property — limitation of actions — concealment of facts — actions amounting to concealment (United Kingdom)
Tucker v Allen [2001] 26 EG 161 (CS); Review para 01/2113 1115
- Duty of care — duty owed to intended beneficiary under will — failure to prepare new will (United Kingdom)
Hooper v Fynmores (a firm) [2001] All ER (D) 298 (May); Review para 01/2189 1116
- Costs — civil proceedings — assisted person — costs funded by third party — personal liability — costs order (United Kingdom)
Stacey v Player [2001] All ER (D) 151 (Jan); Review para 01/689 1117
- Right to fair and public hearing — criminal proceedings — legal advice — consultation with solicitor — confidentiality (United Kingdom)
Brennan v United Kingdom, Application 39846/98 European Court of Human Rights, The Times, 16 October 2001; Review para 01/2758 1117
- Fundamental rights — protection of property rights — compulsory acquisition of property — taxation — capital gains withholding tax — effect — collection mechanism — applicant alleging withholding tax irrational, unfair and unconstitutional — whether infringing fundamental right — whether unconstitutional — whether not reasonably justifiable in democratic society — onus of proof — statutory instrument subsequently passed introducing exemption mechanism effect
- Fundamental rights — enforcement — locus standi — Law Society — statutory body — whether having standing to challenge

constitutionality of legislation — appropriate test — whether real and substantial interest in proceedings (Zimbabwe) Law Society of Zimbabwe v Minister of Finance (Attorney General Intervening) ; Mollatt v Minister of Finance (Attorney General intervening) [2000] 4 LRC 52	1118
--	------

Ombudsmen

1121

Legislation

Children's Commissioner for Wales Act 2001 (United Kingdom)	1121
---	------

Judicial Decisions

Pension — pension scheme — unfunded scheme — private sector hospital operating unfunded occupational pension scheme — scheme providing no benefits for early leavers — employee leaving early and claiming right to deferred pension under statutory provisions requiring defined category of occupational pension scheme to preserve short service benefit for early leavers — whether preservation requirements applying to unfunded private sector occupational pension schemes (United Kingdom) Royal Masonic Hospital and another v Pensions Ombudsman and another [2001] 3 All ER 408	1121
---	------

International Developments

1123

Conventions and Agreements

ASEAN: e-ASEAN Framework Agreement	1123
Council of Europe: Additional Protocol to the European Agreement on the Transmission of Applications for Legal Aid	1127
Council of Europe: Convention on Information and Legal Co-operation concerning "Information Society Services"	1131
Council of Europe: European Convention for the Protection of the Audiovisual Heritage	1136
Council of Europe: Protocol to the European Convention for the Protection of the Audiovisual Heritage, on the Protection of Television Productions	1142
Council of Europe: Second Additional Protocol to the European Convention on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters	1145
FAO: Agreement for the Establishment of a Commission For Controlling the Desert Locust in the Western Region	1160
FAO: Convention on the Conservation and Management of Fishery Resources in the South Atlantic Ocean	1168
UNEP: The Stockholm Convention On Persistent Organic Pollutants (POPs)	1190

Legislation
Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act 2001 (South Africa)	1218

Other Developments
Organization of American States: Declaration of Lima: Inter-American Charter	1219

Articles 1227

The OECD, Harmful Tax Competition and Tax Havens: An Update (Professor William Gilmore)	1227
Advocating Constitutional Rights Cases in the Courts (Cyrus V Das)	1231
Constitutional Modelling: The Domestic Effect of International Law in Commonwealth Countries (Brian R Opekin)	1242
An Appraisal of the Constitutional Provision for the Delivery of Judgments in Nigeria (E S Nwauche)	1278
Customary Law in Conflict: The Status of Customary Law and Introduced Law in Post-Colonial Solomon Islands (Jennifer Corrin Care)	1290
New Frontiers in Public Law — A Perspective from Trinidad and Tobago (Carla Herbert)	1303

Miscellaneous 1341

Some Notes 1341

Seventeenth Meeting of the Commonwealth Ministerial Action Group on the Harare Declaration, 20 December 2001	1356
Genetic Privacy (Australia)	1358
Championing the Cause in Cameroon (Cameroon)	1359
Canada makes cannabis legal for seriously ill (Canada)	1360
New Zealand "will be republic" (New Zealand)	1361
Judges' challenge on age of consent (United Kingdom)	1361
Justice reform in jeopardy, survey finds (United Kingdom)	1362
JPs' guide to end silence in court (United Kingdom)	1363
Late night courts to cut street crime (United Kingdom)	1364
Proposal for special courts to tackle drugs crime (United Kingdom)	1365
Metal detectors for police in clampdown on knife crimes (United Kingdom)	1366
Judges told to cut jail sentences by up to half (United Kingdom)	1366
Review of sentencing framework (United Kingdom)	1367
Company law review (United Kingdom)	1368
Surprise divorces "worse for children" (United Kingdom)	1369
Scotland rules out Sarah's Law (United Kingdom)	1370
No smacking rule for children under three (United Kingdom)	1371

- defamation settled law in Malaysia — whether complex and novel issues requiring expertise of applicant (Malaysia)
Re Geoffrey Robertson QC [2001] 4 MLJ 307 (HC) 1051
- Costs — security for costs — dormant plaintiff company — delay in filing application for security — tardiness of defendant's previous solicitors — whether security for costs against plaintiff should be allowed (Malaysia)
Strukturmas (Selangor) Sdn Bhd v Majlrs Perbandavan Petaling Jaya [2001] 3 MLJ 344 (HC) 1053
- Affidavits — deposition by solicitor — conditions to be fulfilled before solicitor could depose on behalf of litigant — whether affidavit defective (Malaysia)
Malayan Banking Bhd v Charterfield Corp Sdn Bhd [2001] 3 MLJ 160 (HC) 1053
- Judge — self-disqualification by — fear of bias — criminal judge was brother of head of prosecution who signed charge of accused — parties did not object to judge hearing the case — public perception of absence of impartiality — test to be applied — whether judge should recuse himself (Malaysia)
Public Prosecutor v Mohamed Ezam bin Mohd Nor [2001] 3 MLJ 34 (HC) 1054
- Appeal — appeal from registrar to judge in chambers — right of parties in interlocutory proceedings to apply to set aside ex parte order — whether decision should be set aside — stay of execution of judgment — application for — pending appeal — neglect of counsel — appeal would be rendered nugatory and defendant would be made bankrupt if stay not granted, whether good grounds to grant stay (Malaysia)
RHB Bank Bhd v FGG Wood Mouldings Industries Sdn Bhd & Ors [2001] 4 MLJ 86 1055
- Admission — period of instruction (pupillage) — qualification of master — meaning of "active practice" — whether includes tenure served in judicial and legal service by advocate and solicitor — failure of Bar Council to object to plaintiff's petition of admission, whether estoppel applied — whether court should remove plaintiff from Roll (Malaysia)
Akberdin bin Hj Abdul Kader & Anor v Majlis Peguam Malaysia [2001] 4 MLJ 381 1056
- Remuneration — taxation of costs — application by solicitor for taxation of costs by s. 126 of the Legal Profession Act 1976 — whether s. 126 the correct section — whether court has inherent jurisdiction to hear and entertain application — whether application made within the span of one year after the delivery of the bill of costs — whether prohibition in s. 128(2) applicable — no agreement between parties as to costs — client did not request for bill containing detailed items — whether client has lost right to taxation of a bill containing

Administrative Law

Judicial review — application — delay — prompt application required — unreasonable delay — consideration — relevant considerations — whether merits of application relevant — grounds — legitimate expectation — Government advertising post in public press — person appointed not meeting advertised criteria — rejected applicant meeting criteria — whether legitimate expectation that applicant meeting such criteria would be appointed — executive action — presumption of legality — presumption that executive action correct until rebutted — reciprocal duty to act fairly — transparency in government — appointment in public service — prior consultation — whether appointment to be set aside — relevant considerations (Botswana) Peloewetse v Permanent Secretary to the President and Others [2001] 4 LRC 580 (CA)

826

Exercise of judicial functions — judicial review — power of court to interfere with punishment meted out — police officer dismissed from service — whether court may judicially review order of dismissal — rights and liabilities of public servants — dismissal — disciplinary proceedings — application of principle of autrefois convict and acquitt to disciplinary proceedings — whether disciplinary action could be taken against police officer for the second time based on same facts after he had been convicted or acquitted in earlier disciplinary proceedings — fundamental liberties — freedom of religion — requirement of permission for superior officer prior to second marriage — whether unconstitutional for disciplinary authority to require member of police force to obtain prior permission from his superior officer before entering into a polygamous marriage (Malaysia)

Zakaria bin Abdul Rahman v Ketua Polis Negara Malaysia and Anor [2001] 3 MLJ 385 (HC)

829

Remedies — prerogative of mercy — clemency proceedings — prolonged delay in execution of death sentence — no acceptable reasons given — whether breach of constitutional right to life — whether court can adjudicate on power of clemency of the Ruler (Malaysia)

Juraimi bin Husin v Lembaga Pengampunan, Negeri Pahang & Ors [2001] 3 MLJ 485 (HC)

831

Consultation — requirement to consult with such persons and entities as the Minister considers appropriate — content of obligation to consult — whether consultation prior to passage of Act satisfied requirements of Act (New Zealand)

McInnes v Minister of Transport [2001] 3 NZLR 11 (CA)

832

vii

Ships' names — Chevron North America (United Kingdom)
BP Exploration Operating Co Ltd v Chevron Shipping Co; BP Exploration Operating Co Ltd v Chevron Tankers (Bermuda) Ltd;
BP Exploration Operating Co Ltd v Chevron Transport Corpn
[2001] 3 WLR 946 (HL)

857

Criminal Law and Procedure

Criminal law — search and seizure — whether search warrant valid — whether sufficient compliance with requirements of Act — whether authorisation to search indiscriminately broad — whether searching lawful — officers entered premises before applicant and warrant holder — possession seized outside premises — whether authority of warrant expired — whether reasonable grounds for searching — whether multiple searches — whether presence of warrant holder necessary — whether items seized unlawfully — whether reasonable suspicion that items were evidence of offence

Evidence — admissibility — items seized during searches — whether search warrant valid — whether searching or seizure unlawful (Australia — Northern Territory)

R v Cant (2001) 138 NTR 1 (SC)

859

Extraordinary remedies — certiorari — to quash committal for trial — accused charged with first degree murder for killing victim while committing forcible confinement and other offences against separate victim — accused committed for trial on first degree murder — superior court quashing committal to stand trial on first degree murder on basis that victim of murder and victim of enumerated offences must be same — Court of Appeal reversing superior court and restoring committal — appeal dismissed — review on certiorari restricted to jurisdictional errors of absence of evidence on essential element of offence or infringement of rules of natural justice — error alleged by accused jurisdictional in nature — accused alleging no evidence on essential element of first degree murder, that victim of murder and enumerated offence same person — if accused's argument on scope of s. 231(5) of Criminal Code correct, no evidence on essential element of offence — while decision reviewable, preliminary inquiry judge correct in interpretation of provision — while evidence open to interpretation that two crimes distinct, properly instructed jury could find that enumerated offence committed to facilitate commission of murder, or vice versa — murder — first degree murder — while committing forcible confinement — accused alleged to have killed deceased in basement of home after leaving third party forcibly confined in bedroom — accused committed for trial on first degree murder — superior court quashing committal to stand trial on first degree murder on basis that victim of murder and victim of enumerated offences must be same — Court of Appeal reversing superior court and restoring committal — appeal dismissed — on plain reading, land occupied without permission after leaving informal squatter settlement where living conditions intolerable — state faced with massive shortage in available housing and extremely constrained budget — whether state housing programme failing to make reasonable provision within available resources for people desperately in need of access to housing — whether state housing programme complying with constitutional requirements — rights of children — child's right to shelter — applicant children in care of parents — applicants evicted from private land occupied without permission after leaving informal squatter settlement where living conditions intolerable — whether primary obligation to provide shelter imposed on parents or family — whether state obliged to provide shelter to such children (South Africa)

Government of the Republic of South Africa and Others v Grootboom and Another [2001] 3 LRC 209 (CC)

840

Fundamental rights — remedies — damages — right to the protection of the law — right to be heard — infringement of rights — compensation — assessment — removal of judge from office — right to judge to be heard before any representation made to President to appoint tribunal to investigate whether he should be removed from office — elements to be considered when making award — whether award to be confined to distress and inconvenience — factors to be taken into account in determining inconvenience and distress — whether loss of reputation to be taken into account (Trinidad and Tobago)

Crane v Rees and Others [2001] 3 LRC 510

843

Prisons — prisoners' rights — women prisoners — separation from children — prison policy requiring children to cease to live with mothers in prison on reaching age of 18 months — policy applied regardless of impact of separation upon mother and child — whether application of policy lawful (United Kingdom)

Regina (P) v Secretary of State for the Home Department and another; Regina (Q and another) v Secretary of State for the Home Department and another [2001] 1 WLR 2002 (CA)

843

Criminal law — contempt of court — scandalising the court — ingredients — whether remaining part of the law of contempt

Constitutional law — fundamental rights — right to freedom of expression — contempt of court — scandalising the court — applicant publicly criticising leniency of sentence imposed by High Court judge in criminal case — judge issuing citation against applicant for contempt of court — whether criticism attracting protection of right to freedom of expression — right to freedom of expression — limitation — contempt of court — scandalising the court — judge — criticism attracting protection of right to freedom of expression — whether limitation imposed by offence of contempt reasonably justifiable in democratic society — appropriate test — relevant considerations — right to

Announcements	1373
Chief Justices of Commonwealth Countries	1373
Coming Events	1381
Secretariat Legal Publications	Inside Back Cover

served in event of breach — plaintiff landowner serving notice — whether landowners joint or several parties to contract — whether common law presumption that parties joint applicable — whether plaintiff having power to serve notice without agreement of others

Equity — trust — fiduciary duty — agreement to acquire timber rights on customary land — company entering into contract with nine landowners acting on behalf of tribe members — whether landowners trustees — whether trustees in relation to each other — whether landowners required to exercise contractual power jointly — whether plaintiff landowner having power to serve notice to suspend contract without agreement of other landowners (Solomon Islands)

Harry v Kalena Timber Company Ltd [2001] 3 LRC 24 (CA)

852

Courts Practice and Procedure

Reciprocal enforcement of judgments — setting aside registration of foreign judgment — allegation of no service of original process — whether signing of guarantee providing for application of Singapore Law Society's Conditions of Sale meant that defendant had submitted to jurisdiction of Singapore court — defendant was guarantor under loan agreement — whether could be included as a party to the suit (Malaysia)

Wong Teck Lim v Sim Lim Finance Ltd [2001] 3 MLJ 19 (CA)

855

Coroner — inquest — duty to hold — coroner satisfied following post mortem that inquest unnecessary — certificate issued stating death due to natural causes — deceased's family subsequently claiming new evidence showing death due to unnatural causes — whether coroner having power to order inquest — whether functus officio (United Kingdom)

Terry v East Sussex Coroner [2001] 3 WLR 605 (CA)

856

Fatal Accidents Acts — action — right to bring — writ claiming loss of dependency issued but never served — second writ issued claiming same relief — whether action commenced by unserved writ precluding bringing of action by second writ — whether dependant's right to access to court barred (United Kingdom)

Cachia v Faluyi [2001] 1 WLR 1966 (CA)

856

Limitation of action — period of limitation — interruption — creditor averring it refrained from making claim by reason of error induced by debtor — meaning of "refrain" — when interruption of prescription period commencing — when prescription period recommencing after interruption

Shipping — charterparty — liability to undertakers — vessel under bareboat charter causing damage to loading arms on jetty — liability of "owners" — whether including charterers

Bankruptcy and Insolvency

Practice and procedure — liquidation — application to fix liquidators' remuneration — criteria to be applied — form of application (New Zealand)

Re Medforce Healthcare Services Ltd [2001] 3 NZLR 374 (HC)

833

Companies and Corporate Bodies

Company — liquidation — insolvency — hotchpot rule — foreign proceedings — property available for distribution — company providing letter of credit as security to defendant for judgment sum — company entering voluntary liquidation — foreign judgment entered for sum larger than that secured — defendant entering proof for outstanding sum — whether hotchpot rule applying to sum received under letter of credit — whether inequitable to obtain judgment after liquidation commenced

Insurance — reinsurance — retrocession agreement — claims "incurred but not reported" (IBNR) — liquidation of reinsurer — claim by insurer — proof of sum estimated in respect of IBNR claims — whether premature — construction of contract (Cayman Islands)

Cleaver and Another v Delta American Reinsurance Co (in liquidation) [2001] 3 LRC 685 (PC)

835

Directors — meetings of shareholders — shareholder requested special meeting of shareholders to consider motion for removal of two directors — board failed to call meeting — whether board obliged to call meeting — whether interim injunction to be granted to restrain two directors from attending and voting at board meetings (New Zealand)

WEL Energy Group Ltd v Hawkins [2001] 3 NZLR 374 (HC)

837

Constitutional Law and Human Rights

Fundamental rights — right to freedom of expression — broadcasting — government-owned radio station — phone-in programme — programme host criticising government policy — government suspending programme — whether suspension violating fundamental right of programme host — right to freedom of expression — scope — freedom to receive and impart ideas — broadcasting — listeners — participating listeners — criticising government policy — whether suspension violating fundamental right of participating listeners — whether "participating listeners" (Anguilla)

Benjamin and Others v Minister of Information and Broadcasting and Another [2001] 4 LRC 272 (PC)

838

Fundamental rights — right to housing — right to have access to adequate housing — Constitution requiring state to take reasonable measures within available resources to ensure progressive realisation of right — applicants evicted from private

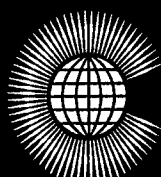

Commonwealth Law Bulletin

Volume 27

No. 2

2001

page
v	Contents
721	Legislation
826	Judicial Decisions
917	Law Reform
1035	Legal Profession
1121	Ombudsmen
1123	International Developments
1227	Articles
1227	The OECD, Harmful Tax Competition and Tax Havens: An Update
1231	Advocating Constitutional Rights Cases in the Courts
1242	Constitutional Modelling: The Domestic Effect of International Law in Commonwealth Countries
1278	An Appraisal of the Constitutional Provision for the Delivery of Judgments in Nigeria
1290	Customary Law in Conflict: The Status of Customary Law and Introduced Law in Post-Colonial Solomon Islands
1303	New Frontiers in Public Law — A Perspective from Trinidad and Tobago
1341	Miscellaneous
1341	Some Notes
1373	Announcements
1373	Chief Justices of Commonwealth Countries
1381	Coming Events
IBC	Secretariat Legal Publications

Commonwealth Secretariat

s. 231(5) not requiring victim of murder and victim of enumerated offence to be same person — other provisions of Code requiring same murder, s. 231(6), suggesting Parliament deliberately not restricting scope of s. 231(5) — multiple — victim scenarios within scope of s. 231(5) and consistent with organizing principle of harsher punishment for killings committed while committing crimes of domination, whether or not same victim (Canada)
R v Russell (2001) 157 CCC (3d) 1 (SC)	861
Sentence — manslaughter — crimes induced by mental disorder — mother killed eight-month-old son while suffering from mental disorder falling short of insanity — whether and to what extent mental disorder of accused should be taken into account in sentencing — whether seven years' imprisonment manifestly excessive
Criminal law — sentence — infanticide — observations on appropriate sentences (New Zealand)
R v Wright [2001] 3 NZLR 22 (CA)	863
Juries — discharge of jury where prejudicial information already in public arena is inadvertently disclosed at trial — whether appropriate to give transcripts of evidence to juries (New Zealand)
R v McLean (Colin) [2001] 3 NZLR 794 (CA)	864
Criminal practice and procedure — evidence — similar fact — whether evidence on one charge could be considered in respect of second charge
Evidence — similar fact — whether evidence on one charge could be considered in respect of second charge (New Zealand)
R v Gee [2001] 3 NZLR 729 (CA)	865
Murder — defence of intoxication — consumption of fair amount of beer before incident — whether accused so intoxicated that he did not know what he was doing — whether accused intended to inflict injuries on deceased sufficient in ordinary course of nature to cause death — defence of grave and sudden provocation — two requirements for defence — subjective requirement that accused deprived of self-control by provocation — objective requirement that provocation “grave and sudden” based on “reasonable man” test — whether defence made out (Singapore)
Seah Kok Meng v Public Prosecutor [2001] 3 SLR 135 (CA)	866
Common law offence — cheating public revenue — offshore companies registered in Jersey — concealment of central management and control in United Kingdom — companies' income deemed to be that of individual resident in United Kingdom — shadow director failing to declare benefits provided by companies and to respond truthfully to questioning — whether deeming provision affecting company's liability to corporation tax — whether infringement of right to peaceful possession of property — whether shadow director liable to tax under Schedule E in respect

- of benefits in kind and accommodation — whether violation of shadow director's right to fair trial — (United Kingdom)
Regina v Dimsey; Regina v Allen [2001] 3 WLR 843 (HL) 868
- Double jeopardy — autrefois acquit — prosecution offering no evidence on charge of common assault — not guilty verdict entered — judge permitting Crown to add count alleging assault occasioning actual bodily harm based on same facts — whether defendant entitled to rely on defence of autrefois acquit (United Kingdom)
Regina v G (Autrefois Acquit) [2001] 1 WLR 1727 (CA) 870
- Prisoner — prisoner's correspondence with legal adviser — Secretary of State introducing new policy on searching of cells — policy requiring prison officers to examine prisoner's legal correspondence in absence of prisoner — whether policy unjustifiably infringing prisoners' common law right to confidentiality in legal correspondence and right to respect for correspondence under human rights convention (United Kingdom)
R v Secretary of State for the Home Department, ex parte Daly [2001] 3 All ER 433 (HL)(E) 871
- Elections and Polls*
- Election — petition — allegation of unfair practice — printing election advertisements or handbills without name and address of printer — liability of candidate for acts of his political party members — allegation of corrupt and illegal practices — validity of election rolls — whether contains names of non-citizens and person who had been convicted for possession of fake identity cards — Elections Commission did not hold a public inquiry despite objections — whether election rolls illegal (Malaysia)
Harris Mohd Salleh v Ismail bin Majin, Returning Officer & Ors [2001] 3 MLJ 433 (HC) 872
- Parliamentary election — election petition — appeal — jurisdiction — unsuccessful candidate seeking declaration that constituency election null and void — High Court dismissing petition — appeal to Court of Appeal — Parliament dissolved and new general election called before appeal heard — whether court having jurisdiction to deal with matter — appropriate test — election petition — time limit — appeal — legislation providing two-year period for hearing and disposing of election petition — time limit expressly applying to proceedings in High Court — whether applying to appellant proceedings in Court of Appeal (Tanzania)
Utamwa v Attorney General and Another [2001] 4 LRC 596 (CA) 875
- Environment*
- Resource management — resource consents — whether "permitted baseline test" applied — whether test required "likely", "credible" or "not fanciful" activities — whether density rule in

Evidence

Hearsay — exceptions to rule — necessity and reliability — accused charged with first degree murder — accused wishing to rely on statements of dead witness confessing to murder — witness making inculpatory statements to police in British Columbia while under investigation for another murder — witness pleading guilty to other murder and statements made when already decided to plead guilty — witness making inconsistent statements to Ontario police and testifying at preliminary inquiry of accused and essentially retracting BC statements — accused seeking admission of BC statements only — Crown objecting but seeking admission of all statements including preliminary inquiry evidence if BC statements admitted — appeal dismissed — trial judge did not err in admitting statements — at trial accused relying on hearsay exception of statements made against penal interest and principled approach — given penal interest exception based on guarantees of trustworthiness, admissibility better determined on principled approach alone — necessity requirement met because witness dead and no other substitute for statements — reliability requirement not met as statements not taken under oath, or under imperative to tell truth — witness having motivation to lie and insisting on statements not being recorded — that statements against interest made to police officer not bolstering reliability of statements — witness already intending to plead guilty to other murder — no additional penal consequences directly flowing from confession — preliminary inquiry evidence not assuring reliability of BC statements — evidence essentially repudiating statements

Appeal — grounds — raising issue for first time on appeal — accused charged with first degree murder — accused wishing to rely on statements of dead witness confessing to murder — witness making inculpatory statements to police in British Columbia while under investigation for another murder — witness pleading guilty to other murder and statements made when already decided to plead guilty — witness making inconsistent statements to Ontario police and testifying at preliminary inquiry of accused and essentially retracting BC statements — accused seeking admission of BC statements only — Crown objecting but seeking admission of all statements including preliminary inquiry evidence if BC statements admitted — on appeal, counsel for one accused arguing that only preliminary inquiry evidence ought to be admitted — appeal dismissed — accused not permitted to raise issue for first time on appeal as directly contrary to position taken at trial — accused's complaint boiling down to complaint that trial judge failing to make ruling never asked to make — raising new issue making mockery of process

Trial — charge to jury — reasonable doubt — accused convicted of first degree murder — trial judge's charge on reasonable doubt given prior to appellate authority on nature of instruction — appeal dismissed — while charge not containing all requirements of recent authority, no concern about validity of jury's verdict or that accused not receiving fair trial

Murder — first degree murder — committed in course of unlawful confinement — Criminal Code providing that accused guilty of first degree murder when committing certain offences, including forcible confinement — accused convicted of first degree murder on basis of intentional killing committed during course of forcible confinement — appeal dismissed — first degree murder established on basis of "while committing forcible confinement" even though confinement incidental to commission of another offence, such as robbery — purposes of legislation still achieved in circumstances — robbery crime of domination and sometimes involving unlawful confinement — evidence in any event supporting forcible confinement beyond that inherent in robbery (Canada — Ontario)

Regina v Kimberley and Clancey (2001) 157 CCC (3d) 129 (CA)

878

Child witness — corroboration — murder — accused convicted on uncorroborated evidence of child witness aged six years old — whether rule of law requiring corroboration in such circumstances — whether trial judge erring by relying on child's uncorroborated evidence — whether conviction safe (Papua New Guinea)

Morikawa v State [2001] 3 LRC 418 (SC)

881

Extradition and Fugitive Offenders

Procedure — fugitive charged with numerous offences in requesting state and absconding to Canada — Extradition Act permitting reliance on evidence not otherwise admissible under Canadian law if summary of evidence certified by judicial or prosecuting authority in requesting state that evidence sufficient to justify prosecution or evidence gathered in accordance with laws of requesting state — evidentiary provisions permitting hearsay — appeal dismissed — provisions not infringing principles of fundamental justice — application of principles of fundamental justice in extradition context requiring respect for difference in procedures in other jurisdictions — insisting on Canadian evidentiary procedures tantamount to giving Charter extraterritorial effect — Charter not permitting extradition judge to review evidence for reliability — reliability ensured by certification process under Extradition Act — open to judge to exclude evidence if taken in requested state in accordance with

Maritime law — international waters — common law territorial operation — relief available for acts outside Australia

Constitutional law — sovereignty — qualification of sovereignty by pre-existing public rights and international Convention — Convention rights preclude vesting of absolute and unqualified ownership (Australia)

Yarmirr and Others v Northern Territory of Australia and Others (D7 of 2000); Yarmirr and Others v Northern Territory of Australia and Others (D9 of 2000) (2001) 184 ALR 113 (HC)

898

Private International Law

Exclusive jurisdiction clause — stay of proceedings — whether strong case for refusing stay — whether dispute exists for purposes of clause (Singapore)

The Hung Vuong-2; Owners of the Ship or Vessel "Hung Vuong-2" v Owners of Cargo Lately Laden on Board the Ship or Vessel "Hung Vuong-3" [2001] 3 SLR 146 (CA)

901

Torts

Defamation — letter to regulatory authorities — allegation that plaintiff caused substantial loss to defendant in securities trading — recovery action filed against defendant — whether defendant's complaints intended to stall recovery action against him — proof of malice would defeat qualified privilege — whether defendant's complaints connote defamatory meaning as pleaded (Malaysia)

K Magatheram v Shafie bin Hj Kassim [2001] 3 MLJ 86 (HC)

904

Defamation — libel — libellous advertisement — allegation of imitation and unreliability of plaintiff's product — predominant purpose of advertisement, whether to discredit plaintiff — injury to plaintiff's reputation — considerations for awarding of damages

Malicious falsehood — libellous advertisement — allegation of imitation and unreliability of plaintiff's product — predominant purpose of advertisement, whether to discredit plaintiff — whether malicious falsehood proved (Malaysia)

Tan Chong & Son Motor Co Sdn Bhd v Borneo Motors (M) Sdn Bhd & Anor [2001] 3 MLJ 140 (HC)

906

Passing off — trade name — Australian company establishing business in New Zealand — New Zealand and Australian businesses sold to separate entities — Australian company selling products in New Zealand using expired trade mark and well-known abbreviation of parties' name — whether goodwill in name in New Zealand company, Australian company or concurrent — whether passing off — whether misleading and deceptive conduct (New Zealand)

Patience & Nicholson (NZ) Ltd V Cyclone Hardware Pty Ltd [2001] 3 NZLR 490 (HC)

908 procedures that infringe s. 7 — while judge not entitled to assess reliability, required to perform important judicial function of ensuring sufficiency of evidence — record of case containing suggestion that victim providing evidence and available to testify — supplement to record indicating that no information coming from victim and that victim uncooperative with prosecution — certification not false because failing to specify that any particular source of evidence available for trial as long as evidence summarized in record available at trial — appeal dismissed (Canada — Ontario)

United States of America v Yang (2001) 157 CCC (3d) 225 (CA) 883

Family Law

Husband and wife — financial provision — lump sum award — means of parties — family business built up over long period of marriage — husband's exceptional entrepreneurial skill — wife's reasonable requirements no longer relevant criterion — calculation of effect of equal division as check against discrimination (United Kingdom)

Cowan v Cowan [2001] 3 WLR 684 (CA) 885

Husband and wife — divorce — jurisdiction — habitual residence* — matrimonial homes of equal status in United Kingdom and Nigeria — whether petitioner "habitually resident" in England and Wales — Domicile and Matrimonial Proceedings Act 1973 (c. 45), s. 5(2) (United Kingdom)

Ikimi v Ikimi [2001] 3 WLR 670 (CA) 887

Finance, Trade and Economic Development

Shares — failure of client to make payment for shares — right of stockbroker to force-sell shares — whether force-selling of shares was legal — regulation — force-sell of shares — application of Rules and usage of stock exchange, whether can be varied by agreement of parties (Malaysia)

UMBC Securities Sdn Bhd v Tan Chee Aan [2001] 3 MLJ 410 (HC) 888

Industrial and Intellectual Property

Copyright — television broadcasting — two competing television stations — re-broadcasting by one station of excerpts of television programs recently broadcast by other — whether re-broadcaster infringed original broadcaster's television broadcast copyrights by taking "substantial part" of latter's original television broadcasts — meaning of "substantial part" relating to television broadcasts — whether "substantial part" to be measured by reference to whole of any one or more single visual images broadcast, or to whole of television station's daily or weekly emitted television signal, or to whole of television

- proceedings by such acts — whether proceedings should be stayed
- Discovery — privilege against self-incrimination — discovery in aid of Mareva injunction — whether appellant entitled to claim privilege in civil proceedings — Attorney General giving undertakings restricting use in criminal proceedings information extracted from appellant — information barrier between Attorney General, Solicitor General and Anti-Corruption Bureau — whether appellant sufficiently protected by such undertakings or such barrier — whether appellant suffering prejudice (Brunei Darussalam)
- Bolkiah (HRH Prince Jefri) and Others v State of Brunei Darussalam and Brunei Investment Agency (No. 2) and other appeals* [2001] 2 LRC 134 1043
- Adverse remark against Metropolitan Magistrate — High Court averring that she wanted to rope in CPWD officials in criminal case — intent was to pressurise them to act to her advantage — Apex Court termed it not necessary — remark could damage Magistrate's career — opportunity of being heard not afforded to her — expunction ordered (India)
- In the matter of: "K" a Judicial Officer*, AIR 2001 Supreme Court 972; (2001) Vol XXXVIII No. 3 Digest of Legislative and Constitutional Cases 14 1046
- Kerala Judicial Services Rules, 1991 Rule 3 — integration of Criminal and Civil Judicial Services created Kerala Judicial Service — determination of inter-se-seniority in the service — ratio prescribed — neither arbitrary nor irrational (India)
- Kerala Magistrates (Judicial) Association vs. State of Kerala*, AIR 2001 Supreme Court 1075; (2001) Vol XXXVIII No. 3 Digest of Legislative and Constitutional Cases 34 1047
- Courts — independence and impartiality — court-martial — mutiny charges — court-martial convened by, and judgment to be confirmed by, executive minister — fundamental right to fair trial excluded by Constitution in relation to disciplinary laws of military force — whether constitutional protection of independent judiciary applicable (Lesotho)
- Sekoati and Others v President of the Court Martial and Others* [2000] 4 LRC 511 1048
- Judge — retirement — whether court duly constituted — whether judgment pronounced after retirement of two out of three presiding judges a nullity — effective date of judgment (Malaysia)
- Chia Yan Tek & Anor v Ng Swee Kiat & Anor* [2001] 4 MLJ 1 (FC) 1050
- Admission — ad hoc — Queen's Counsel — applicant with his extensive and formidable experience had special qualifications in defamation, media and civil liberties, whether such expertise readily available in Malaysia — whether quantum of damages for station's individual programs or any segments of programs — extent to which criteria for measurement affected by quality of substantial part taken — whether re-broadcasting station's objects or purpose in re-broadcasting excerpts relevant to issue as to "substantial part" taken — difference between purpose or object of satire in contrast to parody or burlesque material in taking — whether defence of fair dealing for purpose of criticism or review open in circumstances of re-broadcasting — whether defence of fair dealing for purpose of reporting news open in any circumstances of re-broadcasting — whether in either fair dealing situation sufficient acknowledgment was made of source of what was re-broadcast

Words and phrases — "substantial part" (Australia)

TCN Channel Nine Pty Ltd v Network Ten Pty Ltd (2001) 184 ALR 1 (FC)

889

Trade marks and trade names — rectification of register — whether use of trade mark likely to deceive or cause confusion — infringement — whether trade marks infringed — whether use of trade mark likely to deceive or cause confusion — whether bona fide use of own name

Tort — passing off — whether misrepresentation in using own name

Commercial law — Fair Trading Act 1986 — misleading and deceptive conduct — whether conduct likely to mislead or deceive significant section of the public (New Zealand)

Anheuser Busch Inc v Budweiser Budvar National Corporation [2001] 3 NZLR 666 (HC)

891

Industrial Relations

Successor rights — PSAC was certified bargaining agent for civilian support staff at military base used for pilot training — duties contracted out — CIRB applying Canada Labour Code, ss. 47, 47.1 concluding no successor rights regarding new NATO flight training program at base — PSAC's certification not extending thereto — Code successor rights provisions explained — legislation amended to extend successor rights where government functions privatized — where, as here, notice to bargain collectively given regarding collective agreement in force prior to severance, Board lacks power to terminate, limit its duration — agreement remains in force till new one made or strike or lockout takes place — effect of Board order to decertify PSAC, contrary to ss. 47, 47.1 — irrelevant to instant application whether these workers will continue with private sector contractors once NATO program begun — decertification application possible at later time — bargaining rights attach to positions of employees in s. 47 severance — purpose of provisions to preserve stability during transition period

Public service — labour relations — successor rights — pursuant to Canada Labour Code, ss. 47, 47.1, existing collective bargaining rights of public service employees engaged in support and administration of pilot training programs at military base not adversely affected or lost upon contracting out of site support services formerly performed by PSAC-represented employees at base — legislative amendment extended successor rights where government functions privatized — bargaining rights attached to positions of employees in s. 47 severance (Canada)

Public Service Alliance of Canada v Bombardier Inc [2001] 2 FC 429 (FC)

894

Insurance

Company — liquidation — insolvency — hotchpot rule — foreign proceedings — property available for distribution — company providing letter of credit as security to defendant for judgment sum — company entering voluntary liquidation — foreign judgment entered for sum larger than that secured — defendant entering proof for outstanding sum — whether hotchpot rule applying to sum received under letter of credit — whether inequitable to obtain judgment after liquidation commenced

Insurance — reinsurance — retrocession agreement — claims “incurred but not reported” (IBNR) — liquidation of reinsurer — claim by insurer — proof of sum estimated in respect of IBNR claims — whether premature — construction of contract (Cayman Islands)

Cleaver and Another v Delta American Reinsurance Co (in liquidation) [2001] 3 LRC 685 (PC)

896

Land

Tenancy — termination of — notice to terminate, whether valid — variation of agreement at negotiation stage by formal contract entered into subsequently by parties — delay in delivering vacant possession — reinstatement works defective — whether landlord entitled to compensation (Malaysia)

Public Bank Bhd v Low Kok Tin & Ors [2001] 3 MLJ 350 (HC)

897

Maritime Law

Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders — native title — recognition of native title — effect of inconsistency — inconsistency between public rights of navigation and fishing and exclusive possession — no recognition where inconsistency — whether two sets of rights can stand together — native title rights and interests over sea can exist — Crown’s radical title not necessary for native title to exist

Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders — native title — evidence — whether evidence demonstrated exclusive rights — sufficiency of evidence of claim boundaries fair trial — contempt of court — scandalising the court — whether person charged entitled to constitutional protection — right to trial by independent and impartial court — judge — bias — contempt of court — scandalising the court — applicant publicly criticising leniency of sentence imposed by High Court judge in criminal case — judge issuing citation against applicant for contempt of court — contempt proceedings assigned to another High Court judge — whether violating applicant's constitutional right — right to be presumed innocent — contempt of court — scandalising the court — accused cited for contempt — accused called upon to show cause why contempt order should not be made — whether violating applicant's constitutional right to be presumed innocent — Constitution — Supreme Court — jurisdiction — reference — appeal — application to High Court to refer questions to Supreme Court to determine constitutionality — High Court refusing to refer certain questions — whether right of appeal to Supreme Court against refusal (Zimbabwe)

Re Chinamasa [2001] 3 LRC 373 (SC)

846

Fundamental rights — right to protection of the law — right to fair hearing — right of access to court — election petition — applicants alleging elections not fair and free — President introducing legislation purporting to preclude claims invalidating election results — whether legislation infringing fundamental rights — whether legislation null and void — fundamental rights — enforcement — procedure — applicants challenging constitutionality of legislation — whether challenge premature — whether domestic remedies exhausted — whether right of challenge in Supreme Court (Zimbabwe)

Movement for Democratic Change and Another v Chinamasa [2001] 3 LRC 673 (SC)

849

Contract

Formation of contract — whether telex constituted complete agreement — letter of offer by telex — negotiation fell through — whether negotiation affected telex offer — telex offer was only invitation to treat — whether terms of offer must be complied to constitute valid contract (Malaysia)

Malayan Flour Mills Bhd v Saw Eng Chee (the administrator of the estate of Saw Cheng Chor, the deceased) & Another [2001] 3 MLJ 69 (CA)

851

Contract — joint parties — whether joint and several — agreement to acquire timber rights on customary land — company entering into contract with nine landowners acting on behalf of tribe members — company breaching environmental requirements in contract — provision for notice of suspension of contract to be

- Defamation — remedies — damages — aggravated damages — measure of damages — plaintiff company libeled by Prime Minister in newspaper advertisement — publication under state crest — damages — company seeking damages for monetary loss, damage to trade reputation and goodwill — company seeking aggravated damages — appropriate remedy (Papua New Guinea)
PNG Aviation Services Pty Ltd v Somare and Another [2001] 4 LRC 603 (SC) 910
- Libel and slander — qualified privilege — public interest — duty to communicate information to public — whether defendant entitled to rely on matters not known at time of publication in support of plea of qualified privilege (United Kingdom)
Loutchansky v Times Newspaper Ltd and others [2001] 4 All ER 115 (CA) 911
- Transport*
- Transport and transport licensing — offences — breath-alcohol and blood-alcohol prosecutions — disclosure — whether defence should have access to evidential breath-testing machine's manufacturer's manual
- Criminal practice and procedure — discovery — pretrial discovery in summary prosecutions — non-party discovery — whether documents in possession of Institute of Environmental Science and Research are in possession or control of police as prosecutor — whether District Court summary jurisdiction includes power to make pretrial rulings — whether pretrial process necessary for right to fair trial (New Zealand)
Attorney-General v Otahuhu District Court [2001] 3 NZLR 740 (CA) 912
- Trusts and Trustees*
- Executors and administrators — Law Reform (Testamentary Promises) Act 1949 — neighbours gave deceased companionship for nearly 20 years before death — deceased's will left large estate to neighbour's children — will invalid as deceased temporarily lacked testamentary capacity — testamentary promise claim by neighbours — competing claims of deceased's next of kin (New Zealand)
Byrne v Bishop [2001] 3 NZLR 780 (CA) 915
- Contract — joint parties — whether joint and several — agreement to acquire timber rights on customary land — company entering into contract with nine landowners acting on behalf of tribe members — company breaching environmental requirements in contract — provision for notice of suspension of contract to be served in event of breach — plaintiff landowner serving notice —

whether landowners joint or several parties to contract — whether common law presumption that parties joint applicable — whether plaintiff having power to serve notice without agreement of others
Equity — trust — fiduciary duty — agreement to acquire timber rights on customary land — company entering into contract with nine landowners acting on behalf of tribe members — whether landowners trustees — whether trustees in relation to each other — whether landowners required to exercise contractual power jointly — whether plaintiff landowner having power to serve notice to suspend contract without agreement of other landowners (Solomon Islands)
Harry v Kalena Timber Company Ltd [2001] 3 LRC 24 (CA)	916

Law Reform 917

Administrative Law
The Legislative Assembly and Conflict of Interest (Canada — Manitoba)	917

Arbitration
Report on Domestic Arbitration (South Africa)	919

Commercial Law
Electronic Commerce: Formal Requirements in Commercial Transactions (United Kingdom)	925

Constitutional Law and Human Rights
The Judicial Power of the Commonwealth (Australia)	928
Damages Under The Human Rights Act 1998 (United Kingdom)	968

Contract
Good Faith and The Individual Contract of Employment (Canada — Manitoba)	974

Courts Practice and Procedure
Interim Payment of Damages (Canada — Nova Scotia)	982
Amicable Settlement of Disputes (Pakistan)	985
Limitation of Actions (United Kingdom)	990

Criminal Law and Procedure
Acquittal Following Perversion of the Course of Justice (New Zealand)	1002
Conferring the Powers Under Section 491(1) (a) & (b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 on the Court of Session (Pakistan)	1004
Age of Criminal Responsibility (United Kingdom)	1008

Evidence
Evidence of Bad Character in Criminal Proceedings (United Kingdom)	1011

Contents

Legislation	721
Children and Young Persons
Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act 2000 (India)	721
Children and Young Persons (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	725
Children's Commissioner for Wales Act 2001 (United Kingdom)	728
Companies and Corporate Bodies
Companies (Amendment) Act 2000 (India)	729
Constitutional Law and Human Rights
Constitution of the Republic of Singapore (Amendment No. 2) Act 2001 (Singapore)	731
Promotion of Equality and Prevention of Unfair Discrimination Act 2000 (South Africa)	732
Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act 2001 (South Africa)	744
Criminal Law and Procedure
Criminal Justice (International Co-operation) (Anguilla) Act 2000 (Anguilla)	747
Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) Act 2000 (Canada)	748
Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (Amendment) Act 2001 (India)	748
Anti-Corruption Act 2000 (Sierra Leone)	752
International Criminal Court Act 2001 (United Kingdom)	761
Defence Forces and Police
Enlistment (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	764
Elections and Polls
Parliamentary Elections (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	765
Parliamentary Elections (Amendment No. 2) Act 2001 (Singapore)	768
Evidence
Blood Tests (Evidence of Paternity) (Amendment) Regulations 2001 (United Kingdom)	770
Finance, Trade and Economic Development
Trust Companies and Offshore Banking Act 2000 (Anguilla)	770
Income Tax (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	771
Banking (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	773
Commodity Futures (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	776

Family Law

Domestic Violence (Namibia)	1018
The Family Courts (Amendment) Ordinance 2001 (Pakistan)	1024

Insurance

Third Parties — Rights against Insurers (United Kingdom)	1032
--	------

Legal Profession

1035

Judicial Decisions

Judiciary — bias — judge — allegation of bias — apprehension of bias in form of prejudgment — judge making reference to parties' evidence — whether sufficient to create apprehension of bias — appropriate test — "fair minded lay observer" — knowledge to be imputed to lay observer (Australia) Johnson v Johnson [2000] 5 LRC 223	1035
Judiciary — bias — judge — allegations of bias — pecuniary interest — appearance of bias — whether judge disqualified — appropriate test — relevant considerations — whether automatic disqualification if direct pecuniary interest — whether duty on judge to disclose interest (Australia) Ebner v Official Trustee in Bankruptcy; Clenae Pty Ltd and Others v ANZ Banking Group Ltd [2001] 2 LRC 369	1037
Judgment — delay in delivering — judgment given 12 months after trial — whether excessive delay — whether delay causing injustice to losing party — whether appellate court entitled to substitute own evaluation of evidence (British Virgin Islands) Cobham v Frett [2001] 1 WLR 1775 (PC)	1041
Judiciary — judge — bias — Chief Justice — independence and impartiality — security of tenure — Chief Justice hearing action by State against brother of Head of State — Chief Justice appointed by Head of State — whether Chief Justice having sufficient security of tenure during term of appointment — whether absolute security — contact with potential witnesses — whether real danger of bias — whether proceedings should be heard by independent judge from outside State (Brunei Darussalam) Bolkiah (HRH Prince Jefri) v State of Brunei Darussalam and Another (No. 1) [2001] 2 LRC 126	1042
Attorney General — powers — undertaking not to prosecute — effect — appellant charged with misappropriating funds while chairman of the Brunei Investment Agency — criminal offence to disclose information about agency's affairs — whether appellant prejudiced in preparing offence — whether Attorney General having power to give undertakings not to prosecute — whether appellant sufficiently protected against criminal	