

Electoral Fraud (Northern Ireland) Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	35
Sex Discrimination (Election Candidates) Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	36
Extradition and Fugitive Offenders
European Union Extradition Regulations 2002 (United Kingdom)	36
Finance, Trade and Economic Development
Securities Act 2001 (Barbados)	37
Securities and Futures Act 2001 (Singapore)	49
Central Provident Fund (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	52
Financial Advisers Act 2001 (Singapore)	52
International Development Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	52
Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) (Amendment) Order 2001 (United Kingdom)	53
Health, Education and Social Welfare
Education Service Incentive Payment Act 2001 (Singapore)	54
Human Reproductive Cloning Act 2001 (United Kingdom)	55
Education (Special Educational Needs) (Wales) Regulations 2002 (United Kingdom)	55
Industrial and Intellectual Property
Trade Marks and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2000 (Australia)	56
Patents and Plant Variety Rights (Compulsory Licensing) Regulations 2002 (United Kingdom)	66
Registered Designs Regulations 2001 (United Kingdom)	66
Registered Designs (Amendment) Rules 2001 (United Kingdom)	67
Insurance
Insurance (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	68
Land
Land Registration Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	69
Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	72
Professions and Trades
Financial Advisers Act 2001 (Singapore)	76
Public Utilities
Office of Communications Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	78
Transport
Travel Concessions (Eligibility) Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	81

- Practice — Supreme Court — rights of audience — unqualified person assisting unrepresented litigant — Court's discretion to grant right of audience — power to ban persons making practice of representing or conducting litigation on behalf of unrepresented litigants — need for vigilance by court officials (United Kingdom)
Paragon Finance plc v Noueiri (Practice Note) [2001] 1 WLR 2357 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1402 390
- Contract — parties — unformed company — solicitors to unformed company signing agreement for sale of land as agents for unformed company — whether solicitors entitled to enforce contract (United Kingdom)
Braymist Ltd and others v The Wise Finance Co Ltd [2002] 3 WLR 322 (CA); [2002] 2 All ER 333 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 127 390
- Vendor and purchaser — leasehold property — contract for assignment — landlord's consent necessary — letter from landlord's solicitors marked "subject to licence" indicating consent "in principle" to assignment of lease subject to execution of licence containing covenant by tenant to observe and perform all covenants of lease — whether consent required to be in writing — whether landlord's solicitors' letter constituting consent in writing — whether purchaser entitled to rescind contract (United Kingdom)
Aubergine Enterprises Ltd v Lakewood International Ltd [2002] 1 WLR 2149 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 177 391
- Practice — jury — verdict — claim for false imprisonment and malicious prosecution — jury finding for claimant on one claim — jury discharged — jury subsequently informing judge of misunderstanding as to identity of claimant — judge elucidating question and inviting further retirement to reconsider answer — jury finding for defendant — whether jury functus officio following discharge — whether judge entitled to allow jury to alter answer (United Kingdom)
Igwemma v Chief Constable of the Greater Manchester Police [2002] 2 WLR 204 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 953 393
- Practice — discovery — privilege — English translations of foreign documents — commercial litigation between Japanese company and French bank — substantial number of documents in Japanese — selection of documents translated into English for purpose of litigation — whether legal professional privilege attaching to translated documents — whether translations privileged on ground that selection of documents betraying trend of legal advice (United Kingdom)
Sumitomo Corp'n v Credit Lyonnais Rouse Ltd [2002] 1 WLR 479 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1152 394

Legal aid — costs — costs award in favour of assisted person — consent order for financial settlement including costs is “money judgment” with “order for costs” for purposes of Legal Aid Rules 1997, rr 12(6) and 15(3) — attorney settling action to comply strictly with Rules — may not circumvent Rules by deducting fees directly from settlement instead of billing legal aid fund
Civil procedure — settlement of proceedings — enforcement — party opposing enforcement of compromise agreement to show grave injustice would result (Cayman Islands) Ebanks v Morritt Properties (Cayman) Limited 2002 CILR 490 (Grand Ct)	326
Judiciary — judge — criticism of judge by superior court — criticism recorded in judgment — judge applying for critical remarks to be expunged from judgment — jurisdiction to expunge such remarks — exercise of jurisdiction — relevant considerations (India) Re “K”, a Judicial Officer [2001] 4 LRC 622	327
Judiciary — bias — judge — disqualification — whether judge automatically disqualified — constitutionality of Act impugned in proceedings — judge having previously held position of Attorney General — judge in previous role having certified Act as constitutional — whether “judge in his own cause”
Judiciary — bias — judge — disqualification — whether apparent or potential bias — appropriate test — real danger of bias — constitutionality of Act impugned in proceedings — whether judge disqualified — appearance of bias — judge having previously held position of Attorney General — judge in previous role having certified Act as constitutional — whether bias
Fundamental rights — right to property — right not to have property compulsorily acquired without payment of compensation — Minister of Finance exercising statutory power to assume temporary management of companies — whether amounting to acquisition of property — whether obligation to compensate (Jamaica) Panton and Another v Minister of Finance and Another [2001] 5 LRC 132 (PC); [2001] UKPC 33	328
Judge — disqualification — apprehension of bias — accused detained for organising demonstrations protesting judge’s judgment — “real danger of bias” test — whether facts gave rise to real danger of bias on part of judge (Malaysia) Mohamed Ezam bin Mohd Nor &amp; Ors v Ketua Polis Negara [2002] 1 MLJ 321 (FC)	330
Admission — ad hoc — Queen’s Counsel — requirement of Bahasa Malaysia in s. 11(2) — whether applicable under s.18 (Malaysia) Attorney General &amp; Ors v Geoffrey Robertson [2002] 2 MLJ 449 (FC)	331
Statutory presumption — accused charged for unauthorised possession of dangerous drugs — whether for accused to show that he did not have custody of drugs

Judge — criticism of counsel in written judgment — duty of counsel — whether should be avoided except in extreme cases (Malaysia)
Jonaidi bin Mansor v Public Prosecutor [2002] 2 MLJ III (CA)	332
Admission — ad hoc — Queen's counsel — requirement of Bahasa Malaysia in s. 11(2), whether applicable to application under s.18 — whether applicant had special qualifications or experience not readily available among advocates in Malaysia — whether applicant's knowledge relevant to issues and with reference to Malaysian law (Malaysia)
Re Geoffrey Robertson QC [2001] 4 MLJ 257 (CA)	333
Particulars — application for further and better particulars — statement of claim and statement of defence — particulars may be sought only of matters arising from pleadings — exercise of court's discretion — particulars not to be granted of matters of evidence or inference drawn or substitute interrogatories — whether court should allow application
Professional privilege — communication between solicitor and client — information on date and mode of client's instructions — privilege applicable to communication for purpose of seeking legal advice — whether extends to matters observed by solicitors in the course of his retainer (Malaysia)
Dato' Seri Dr Ling Liong Sik v Krishna Kumar s/o Sivasubramaniam [2002] 2 MLJ 278 (HC)	335
Defamation — libel — police report and complaint to Bar Council — forged discharge document attested by legal assistant — falsified attestation — usual practice of legal firms, whether court should condone illegality — whether defence of qualified privilege applied — unmitigated delay in filing suit — whether libel proved (Malaysia)
Albert Chew v Hong Leong Finance Bhd [2001] 4 MLJ 497 (HC)	337
Advocates — immunity — incompetence — costs — whether barristers entitled to immunity in respect of conduct of proceedings in court — High Court ordering barrister and solicitor's firm to pay costs on basis case was hopeless — breach of duty to court — whether High Court having jurisdiction to make such order — appropriate considerations
Advocates — costs — High Court — inherent jurisdiction to make costs order — alleged breach of professional conduct rules — whether relevant in exercise of jurisdiction — relevant considerations in making costs order
Advocates — breach of duty — costs — High Court — inherent jurisdiction to make costs order — test to be applied in making such order — whether barrister's conduct amounting to serious breach of duty to court (New Zealand)
Harley and Another v McDonald (New Zealand Bar Association intervening) [2001] 5 LRC 82 (PC); [2001] UKPC 18	339

Judiciary — judge — bias — allegation of bias — whether judge disqualified — appearance of bias — appropriate test — relevant considerations (New Zealand)

Man O'War Station Ltd v Auckland City Council [2001] 4 LRC 89 (CA)

341

Costs — taxation — review of taxation of costs — nature of jurisdiction of judge-in-chambers in dealing with application for review of taxation of costs — whether judge-in-chambers has unfettered or fettered discretion in reviewing decision of registrar in taxation of costs (Singapore)

Tan Boon Hai (on behalf of himself and all other unsuccessful candidates in the Singapore Hainan Hwee Kuan 1999/2000 Management Committee Elections) v Lee Ah Fong & Ors [2002] 1 SLR 10 (CA)

343

Professional discipline — application for order directing Law Society to apply for appointment of disciplinary committee — Council of the Law Society accepting and adopting report of inquiry committee that complaint lacked substance and ought to be dismissed — complainant dissatisfied with Council's determination — whether application should be allowed — whether complainant may raise points not raised before inquiry committee

Professional discipline — procedure — determination of Council of the Law Society — Council accepting and adopting report of inquiry committee — whether a determination — whether Council required to give reasons for accepting and adopting report of inquiry committee

Professional discipline — scheme of disciplinary proceedings — role of inquiry committee — extent to which inquiry committee may investigate complaint

Duty of care — preparation of affidavits — whether advocate and solicitor has duty to verify truth or otherwise of what his client deposes to in affidavit

Professional discipline — procedure — procedure to be followed by inquiry committee — failure to provide complainant with copies of correspondence between inquiry committee and solicitors concerned or opportunity to address explanation of solicitors concerned — extension of copies of correspondence between complainant and inquiry committee to solicitors concerned — whether inquiry committee acted contrary to rules of natural justice (Singapore)

Wee Soon Kim Anthony v Law Society of Singapore [2002] 1 SLR 221 (HC)

343

Admission of Queen's Counsel — defamation case — whether case contained issues of sufficient difficulty and complexity to require argument by Queen's Counsel — whether circumstances of case

- warranted court exercising its discretion in favour of admission (Singapore)
- Re Nicholas William Henric QC and another application* [2002] 2 SLR 296 (HC) 347
- Admission of Queen's Counsel — three-stage test for admission — requirement of suitability for admission — qualities which applicant must possess — relevance of applicant's past conduct showing contempt for Singapore judiciary (Singapore)
- Re Littlemore Stuart QC* [2002] 1 SLR 296 (HC) 348
- Constitution — separation of powers — judiciary — Act enabling President to establish Special Investigating Unit and appoint judge as head — Unit having extensive investigatory and executive powers — President appointing judge as head of unit — whether role incompatible with judicial office — whether separation of powers implied in Constitution — whether Act and appointment in breach of implied term of Constitution
- Constitution — breach — remedies — Act enabling President to establish Special Investigating Unit and appoint head — President appointing judge as head of unit — Acts and appointment in breach of implied constitutional separation of powers — appropriate remedy — declarations of invalidity of statutory provision and appointment — whether declarations to be suspended — relevant considerations
- Fundamental rights — right to privacy — attorneys and clients — Act enabling President to order investigations into use of state funds — Act providing for extensive investigatory powers in event of alleged unlawful or improper conduct — allegations that attorneys failing to pay clients full compensation received from state fund — whether such allegations falling within purview of Act — whether investigatory powers invading right to privacy (South Africa)
- South African Association of Personal Injury Lawyers v Heath and Others* [2001] 4 LRC 99 350
- Constitution — separation of powers — judiciary — sentencing — minimum sentence — legislation providing for mandatory minimum sentence of life imprisonment for specified offences — whether usurping sentencing function of judiciary
- Fundamental rights — right to freedom from cruel, inhuman or degrading punishment — sentencing — minimum sentence — legislation providing for mandatory minimum sentence of life imprisonment for specified offences — sentencing court entitled to impose a lesser sentence where "substantial and compelling circumstances" — whether legislation infringing fundamental right
- Fundamental rights — right to fair trial — right to public trial before ordinary court — sentencing — minimum sentence — legislation providing for mandatory minimum sentence of life imprisonment for specified offences — whether depriving courts of independence or judicial function in sentencing — whether infringing fundamental right (South Africa)

Dodo v State [2001] 4 LRC 318

353

Fundamental rights — right to fair trial — right to free legal assistance — criminal trial — imposition of fixed payment legal assistance — expenditure likely to be incurred by solicitors in conducting defence far exceeding amount of core fixed payment — solicitor continuing to act in case and not indicating intention to withdraw services — whether accused would be deprived of effective legal assistance thereby creating real risk that he would not receive fair trial — whether continuance of pending prosecution infringing fundamental rights — devolution issues (United Kingdom)

McLean and Another v Buchanan (Procurator Fiscal, Fort William) and Another [2001] 5 LRC 497 (PC); [2001] 1 WLR 2425 (PC); [2001] UKPC D3

356

Fundamental rights — right to fair trial — right to trial by independent and impartial tribunal — temporary judges — criminal prosecutions — prosecutors acting on behalf of Lord Advocate — Lord Advocate required to act compatibly with rights agreed by Convention — accused tried and convicted before temporary sheriffs — subsequent judicial ruling that temporary sheriff not “an independent and impartial tribunal” within meaning of Convention — whether proceedings invalid

Fundamental rights — waiver — right to trial by independent and impartial tribunal — temporary judges — accused tried and convicted before temporary sheriffs — subsequent judicial ruling that temporary sheriffs were not “an independent and impartial tribunal” within meaning of Convention — accused not expressly objecting to temporary sheriff at time of hearing — whether accused implicitly waiving Convention right (United Kingdom)

Millar v Dickson (Procurator Fiscal, Elgin); Payne v Heywood (Procurator Fiscal, Dundee); Stewart v Heywood (Procurator Fiscal, Dundee); Tracey v Heywood (Procurator Fiscal, Dundee) [2002] 1 LRC 459 (PC)

358

Trusts — resulting trust — dishonesty — lender requiring solicitor’s undertaking before making loan — third party solicitor undertaking that loan moneys only to be used for acquisition of property by borrower — third party solicitor paying moneys to borrower’s solicitor — borrower’s solicitor treating loan moneys as at free disposal of client — some moneys not used in acquisition of property — whether undertaking creating trust — whether borrower’s solicitor dishonestly assisting in breach of trust (United Kingdom)

Twinsectra Ltd v Yardley and others [2002] 2 WLR 802 (HL(E)); [2002] UKHL 12

360

subsequent proceedings brought against him by vendor that interpleader proceedings wrongly decided (United Kingdom)

Gribbon v Lutton and another [2002] 2 WLR 842 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1956

368

Solicitor — dishonesty — intervention by Law Society in solicitor's practice — nomination or appointment of solicitor to act as agent of Law Society in intervention — nominated solicitor submitting bills to Law Society in respect of costs of acting in intervention — Law Society seeking under statutory provision reimbursement from solicitor in whose practice it had intervened — solicitor seeking taxation of bills — whether bills submitted to Law Society solicitor's bills — whether solicitor's right to seek taxation of bills excluded by provision rendering him liable for Law Society's costs of intervention (United Kingdom)

Pine v The Law Society [2002] 2 All ER 658 (CA); [2002] 1 WLR 2189 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 175

370

Negligence — foreseeability of injury — nervous shock — solicitor's conduct of defence in criminal proceedings — claim for psychiatric illness resulting from alleged negligence and breach of contractual duty — whether psychiatric illness foreseeable — whether damages recoverable (United Kingdom)

McLoughlin v Jones and others [2002] 2 WLR 1279 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1743

371

Natural justice — bias — domestic tribunal — appeal process — duty to appoint unbiased members of tribunal — disciplinary committee of athletics governing body banning athlete following positive drug test — successful appeal on basis of new evidence — whether governing body contractually obliged to appoint unbiased members of disciplinary tribunal — whether existence of untainted appellate process curing defect in disciplinary committee (United Kingdom)

Modahl v British Athletic Federation Ltd [2002] 1 WLR 1192 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1447

373

Limitation of action — concealment of right of action — breach of duty — defendant solicitors raising limitation defence in action for negligence — claimant relying on statutory provision postponing limitation period where defendant had concealed from claimant any fact relevant to his right of action — statute providing that deliberate commission of breach of duty amounting to concealment if claimant unlikely to discover it for some time — whether defendant committing deliberate breach of duty for limitation purposes if unaware of breach

Cave v Robinson Jarvis & Rolf (a firm) [2002] 2 All ER 641 (HL(E)); [2002] UKHL 18

374

Probate — will — validity — knowledge and approval — burden on propounder to establish "righteousness of the transaction" —

Trusts — trustees — judicial advice — timing of application (Australia)
Re Homemaker Retail Management Ltd (2002) 187ALR 520 (SC)	91
Corporations — administrators — proposed deed between administrators and Commonwealth of Australia relating to priority of repayments of advances by Commonwealth in respect of employee entitlements — orders sought approving deed and according Commonwealth priority — prejudice to unsecured creditors — Court's powers under s. 447A (Australia)
Re Ansett Australia Ltd and Others (all administrators appointed) and Mentha and Another (as administrator) (2002) 188 ALR165 (FCA)	93
Corporations — insolvency — winding up application — company did not challenge statutory demand — grounds which company could have relied upon for purposes of setting aside statutory demand — impermissible for company to oppose winding up application on same grounds — whether winding up application abuse of process (Australia)
State Bank of New South Wales v Tela Pty Ltd (No. 2) (2002) 188 ALR 702 (ED)	95
Constitutional Law and Human Rights
Constitutional law — judicial power — High Court — original jurisdiction — “matter arising under Constitution or involving its interpretation” — Federal Court declaring Victorian legislation invalid due to inconsistency with Commonwealth legislation — application by persons who were not parties to Federal Court action for certiorari for non-jurisdictional error on face of record in respect of Federal Court decision — whether “matter” — Commonwealth Constitution s. 76(i)
Administrative law — remedies — certiorari — availability against Federal Court judge in respect of non-jurisdictional error on face of record — discretion — how exercised
Practice and procedure — Attorney General (as party) — relator action — intervention by Attorney General — whether Attorney General can make submissions partly at odds with submissions on behalf of relator (Australia)
Re McBain; Ex parte Australian Catholic Bishops Conference and Another (C22 of 2000); Re McBain; Ex parte Attorney General (CTH) (ex rel Australian Episcopal Conference of the Roman Catholic Church) (C6 of 2001) (2002) 188 ALR 1 (HCA)	96
Constitutional law — states — whether amendments inserted into Supreme Court Act 1986 (Vic) beyond legislative power of Victorian Parliament — whether amendments exceed territorial limits on legislative power of state — whether amendments

Court of Appeal precluding award of wasted costs (United Kingdom)
Director General of Fair Trading v Proprietary Association of Great Britain and another [2002] 1 All ER 853 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1217	382
Costs — payment into court — costs after payment in — defendant making payment in — claimants failing to accept payment in within time limit — defendant making amendment to case at trial on basis of information in his possession at date of payment in — claimants accepting payment in immediately after amendment — whether claimant to be treated as successful party when making late acceptance of payment in following amendment to defendant's case (United Kingdom)
Factortame Ltd and others v Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and the Regions [2002] 2 All ER 838 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 22	384
Costs — order for costs — discretion — disallowing costs of successful party — alternative dispute resolution (ADR) — adverse costs consequences of party rejecting ADR when latter suggested by court (United Kingdom)
Dunnett v Railtrack plc (in railway administration) [2002] 2 All ER 850 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 303	385
Costs — order for costs — indemnity costs — circumstances in which refusal of offer to settle would attract indemnity costs under court's general discretion on costs (United Kingdom)
Kiam v MGN Ltd (No. 2) [2002] 2 All ER 242 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 66	386
Costs — order for costs — indemnity costs — whether court having power to award indemnity costs under its general discretion only where party guilty of moral lack of probity or conduct deserving of moral condemnation (United Kingdom)
Reid Minty (a firm) v Taylor [2002] 2 All ER 150 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 1723	387
Legal aid — certificate — ambit — instant suspension of certificate pending consideration of discharge — whether lawful — whether unfair (United Kingdom)
Regina (Machi) v Legal Services Commission [2002] 1 WLR 983 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 2010	388
Practice — trial — adjournment — defendant in contempt proceedings seeking public funding for legal representation — claimants offering to fund alleged contemnor's defence by representation of his choice — whether entitled to refuse offer — whether entitled to adjournment pending determination of application for public funding (United Kingdom)
Berry Trade Ltd and another v Moussavi and others [2002] 1 WLR 1910 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 477	389

Legal Profession

301

Legislation

Legal Profession (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)

301

Judicial Decisions

Jury — trial by jury — Constitution providing for trial “by jury” on indictment for offences against Commonwealth — state law permitting reduction of jury during trial to ten members — state law permitting jurors to separate after retiring to consider verdict — applicant convicted by jury reduced to ten members and allowed to separate during deliberations — whether conviction valid — whether state law inconsistent with Constitution — whether applicant having waived objection to jury — whether such waiver permissible (Australia)

Brownlee v R [2001] 5 LRC 180; [2001] HCA 36

302

Constitution — human rights and fundamental freedoms — trial judge denying applicant free legal representation — trial proceeding with applicant unrepresented — applicant convicted and appeal dismissed — applicant seeking constitutional redress — whether right to fair hearing infringed — whether adequate alternative remedy available (Barbados)

Hinds v Attorney General of Barbados and another [2002] 2 WLR 470 (PC); [2001] UKPC 56

305

Privilege — legal professional privilege — solicitor and client — circumstances in which privilege may be overridden — accused’s right to make full answer and defence to criminal charges — criminal trial pending — alleged sexual offences — complainant also commencing civil action against accused — accused seeking production of civil litigation file held by complainant’s solicitors to support defence in criminal trial — circumstances in which accused entitled to production of complainant’s civil litigation file — whether accused’s right to make full answer and defence overriding complainant’s solicitor-client privilege — circumstances where such overriding appropriate — test to be applied (Canada)

R v McClure [2001] 4 LRC 632; 2001 SCC 14

306

Tort — negligence — duty of care — professional negligence — professional body — Law Society — funds deposited in solicitor’s trust account subject to fraud — investors alleging that Law Society failing properly to monitor trust account — whether Law Society owing a private law duty of care to persons depositing funds into solicitor’s trust account — relevant considerations (Canada)

Edwards and Another v Law Society of Upper Canada, Attorney General for Ontario and Another intervening [2002] 2 LRC 523; 2001 SCC 80

308

xxvii

- Discovery — collateral use of information obtained — undertaking not to use disclosed documents for collateral or ulterior purpose — application to maintain after trial confidentiality in respect of document referred to in open court — approach to be adopted on such an application (United Kingdom)
Lilly Icos Ltd v Pfizer Ltd [2002] 1 All ER 842 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 02 395
- Court of Appeal (Civil Division) — practice — reserved judgments — arrangements for handing down reserved judgments — advance copies to be supplied to parties' legal advisers — filing of draft agreed orders — no necessity for representation where consequential orders agreed — costs of unnecessary attendances to be disallowed — applications for permission to appeal by written submissions (United Kingdom)
Practice Note (Court of Appeal: Handed Down Judgments) [2002] 1 WLR 344 (CA) 397
- Libel and slander — damages — appeal — excessive award — power of Court of Appeal to substitute own award on ground that jury's award excessive — circumstances in which power to be exercised (United Kingdom)
Kiam v MGN Ltd [2002] 2 All ER 220 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 43 398
- Counsel — payment of costs by counsel personally — costs incurred improperly, unreasonably or negligently — whether court having power to make wasted costs orders only against lawyers of party applying for such an order — whether liability of barristers for wasted costs limited to conduct of case in court — whether court to apply "but for" test or loss of chance approach in wasted costs application (United Kingdom)
Brown and another v Bennett and others [2002] 2 All ER 273; [2002] 1 WLR 713 399
- Costs — discretion of court — indemnity basis — successful defendant contractually entitled to full indemnity for legal costs — defendant failing to seek indemnity costs — court ordering costs on standard basis — defendant subsequently applying for indemnity costs — whether court having jurisdiction to reopen costs order — whether fresh proceedings necessary (United Kingdom)
John and others v Price Waterhouse (a firm) and another (Frere Cholmeley (a firm) and another, Part 20 defendants) [2002] 1 WLR 953 402
- Crown Court — practice — application for dismissal of charges — prosecution case depending on documentary evidence — applicant applying for dismissal of charge on grounds that jury could not properly convict — judge concluding that prosecution evidence not giving rise to necessary inferences as to applicant's

guilt or to inferences that were compelling — whether judge usurping role of jury (United Kingdom) R (on the application of the Inland Revenue Commissioners) v Crown Court at Kingston [2001] 4 All ER 721; [2001] EWHC Admin 581	403
Other Developments
Commonwealth Judicial Colloquium on Combating Corruption within the Judiciary, Limassol, Cyprus	405
Ombudsmen	411
Recent Publication	411
Legislation
Office of Communications Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	411
Judicial Decisions
Costs — order for costs — costs of appeal — Pensions Ombudsman — liability of Ombudsman for costs of successful appeal against his determination — Ombudsman appearing on appeal against his determination — court allowing appeal — appellants seeking order that Ombudsman pay costs of appeal — whether costs of successful appeal against Pensions Ombudsman's determination recoverable by appellant from Ombudsman when latter appearing on appeal (United Kingdom) Moore's (Wallisdown) Ltd v Pensions Ombudsman [2002] 1 All ER 738; [2002] 1 WLR 1649	411
International Developments	413
Conventions and Agreements
CARICOM: Agreement Establishing the Caribbean Community Climate Change Centre (CCCCC), 2002	413
CARICOM: Agreement Establishing the Caribbean Regional Fisheries Mechanism, 2002	426
Council of Europe: Convention on Cybercrime	439
Council of Europe: Additional Protocol to the Convention on Human Rights and Biomedicine, on Transplantation of Organs and Tissues of Human Origin	459

Council of Europe: Protocol to the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms concerning the abolition of the death penalty in all circumstances	465
UNESCO: Convention on the Protection of the Underwater Cultural Heritage	467

Legislation

United Nations Act 2001 (Singapore)	482
-------------------------------------	-----

Other Developments

UN: Security Council Declaration on the Global Effort to Combat Terrorism	483
UN: Security Council Resolution 1389 on the Situation in Sierra Leone	484
UN: Security Council Resolution 1390 on the Taliban and Al-Qaida	486
UN: Security Council Resolution 1400 on Sierra Leone	488
UN: Security Council Resolution 1408 on Liberia	490
UN: Security Council Resolution 1416 on Cyprus	493
UN: Security Council Resolution 1417 on the Democratic Republic of the Congo	494

Articles

497

The 125 Year History of Canada's Extradition Statutes and Treaties ( William H Corbett QC )	497
Human Rights in the Commonwealth: The Ombudsman Role ( Hon Judge Anand Satyanand )	547
Combating Judicial Corruption — Setting the Scene: Raising the Issues ( His Honour Judge Keith Hollis )	553
Combating Judicial Corruption ( Dr Nihal Jayawickrama )	561
Contentual Analysis and Overview of the Implementation Problematic of Codes of Judicial Conduct in Selected Commonwealth Jurisdictions ( Hon Judge C C Nweze )	573
Combating Judicial Corruption ( Hon Justice Mario F B Mangaze )	590
Combating Judicial Corruption ( Hon M C C Mkandawire )	593

Miscellaneous 598

Some Notes 598

Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting, Coolumb, Australia,
2 to 5 March 2002 598

Reviews and Notices 642

Law Reports of the Commonwealth 2001, Vols 1–5 (LexisNexis UK) 642

International Environmental Law Reports Volume 3: Human Rights and Environment (edited by Cairo A R Robb) 668

International Law in Antiquity (David J Bederman) 668

The Politics of Justice and Human Rights: Southeast Asia and Universalist Theory (Anthony J Langlois) 669

Mixed Jurisdictions Worldwide: The Third Legal Family (edited by Vernon Valentine Palmer) 669

Conflict of Laws, Third Edition, (J G Collier) 670

The Making of South African Legal Culture 1902–1936: Fear, Favour and Prejudice (Martin Chanock) 670

Personal Injury Pleadings, Second Edition, (Patrick Curran QC) 671

Commonwealth Caribbean Criminal Practice and Procedure
(Dana S Seetahal) 671

Secretariat Legal Publications Inside Back
Cover

(see also under Legal Profession and Ombudsmen sections)

Administrative Law

Administrative law — judicial review — publications related to functions of Australian Competition and Consumer Commission under s. 28 of Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth) — nature of “decisions” — whether “decision” or “conduct” for purposes of Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cth) — whether decision made “under an enactment” — whether correctness of publications under s. 28 is “jurisdictional fact” — whether improper purpose

Judicial review — jurisdiction and standing — declaratory relief — declaration under s. 163A of Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth) — declaration as to alleged errors of law in publications — whether advisory opinion — appropriateness of discretionary relief

Trade and commerce — trade practices — threats of proceedings by Australian Competition and Consumer Commission for contraventions of Pt V of Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth) — whether expression of opinion false or misleading and deceptive — declaratory relief — whether court will grant “negative declaration” in absence of actual representations (Australia)

Electricity Supply Association of Australia Ltd v Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (2002) 189 ALR 109 (FCA)

82

Arbitration

International arbitration — security for costs — power of arbitrator to order security for costs — Singapore place of arbitration — application of Model Law — whether adoption of set of rules incompatible with Model Law constituted agreement that arbitration would be resolved otherwise than in accordance with Model Law — whether opting out of Model Law or Pt II International Arbitration Act (Cap 143A, 1995 Ed) meant that both had been excluded (Singapore)

Dermajaya Properties Sdn Bhd v Premium Properties Sdn Bhd & Anor [2002] 2 SLR 164 (HC)

84

Bankruptcy and Insolvency

Act of bankruptcy — failure to pay costs — whether appellants had committed an act of bankruptcy — bankruptcy notice founded on an allocatur — whether allocatur was a final judgment (Malaysia)

Khoo Kay Hoe (trustee to the estate of Oh Kee Lee @ Oh Phaik Sim, deceased) v Chor Phaik Har and another appeal [2002] 1 MLJ 273 (FC)

86

- Privilege — legal professional privilege — solicitor and client — communications between legal adviser and client — inspector of taxes exercising statutory investigatory power to investigate tax-related scheme — whether provision entitling inspector to require disclosure of material subject to legal professional privilege (United Kingdom)
R (on the application of Morgan Grenfell & Co Ltd) v Special Commissioner of Income Tax [2002] 3 All ER 1 (HL(E)); [2002] UKHL 21 362
- Crime — practice — trial — defendant absconding before trial — whether appropriate to proceed with trial where defendant absent and unrepresented — exercise of judge's discretion (United Kingdom)
Regina v Jones (Anthony) [2002] 2 WLR 524 (HL(E)); [2002] UKHL 5 363
- Natural justice — judge — bias — apparent bias — circumstances capable of giving rise to possibility of bias on part of judge — guidance
- Court of Appeal — jurisdiction — application to reopen appeal — whether Court of Appeal having power to reopen appeal after final judgment given and drawn up (United Kingdom)
Taylor and another v Lawrence and another [2002] 2 All ER 354 (CA); [2002] EWCA Civ 90 364
- Solicitor — negligence — damages — action struck out for want of prosecution — assessment of damages against solicitors where action struck out because delay on their part had rendered impossible fair trial of action — approach to be adopted (United Kingdom)
Sharif and others v Garrett & Co (a firm) [2002] 3 All ER 195 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1269 366
- Solicitor — fiduciary relationship with client — scope of retainer — claimants instructing solicitors in connection with unsuccessful property purchase — subsequent invitation to claimants to buy into solicitors' business venture partnership — solicitors failing to advise claimant to seek independent legal advice — whether breach of fiduciary duty — whether solicitors liable for claimant's losses resulting from failure of business venture (United Kingdom)
Longstaff and another v Birtles and others [2002] 1 WLR 470 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1219 367
- Solicitor — stakeholder — deposit — solicitor failing to ensure deposit non-refundable if contract for purchase of land not concluded — whether potential vendor entitled to return of deposit
- Estoppel — per rem judicatam — issue estoppel — interpleader proceedings — stakeholder interpleading in proceedings between vendor and purchaser — whether stakeholder entitled to argue in

- judge finding testator having known and approved of part of will only — whether judge misapplying doctrine of “righteousness of the transaction” (United Kingdom)
Fuller v Strum [2002] 2 All ER 88 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1879 376
- Costs — wasted costs orders — legal representatives — application by claimant against defendants’ counsel in respect of allegations of fraud in draft notice of appeal and skeleton argument — defendants declining to waive privilege — counsel unable to rely on privileged material in resisting application — whether court entitled to infer that counsel had no “reasonably credible material” to establish prima facie case of fraud — whether court entitled to make order (United Kingdom)
Metcalf v Mardell and others [2002] 3 WLR 172 (HL(E)); [2002] UKHL 27 377
- Costs — wasted costs orders — legal representatives — party’s former solicitors — solicitors consulted by claimant failing to commence action — proceedings later issued out of time by other solicitors but dismissed on limitation grounds — whether court having jurisdiction to make wasted costs orders against former solicitors (United Kingdom)
Byrne v Sefton Health Authority [2002] 1 WLR 775 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1904 379
- Costs — taxation — legal expenses insurance — passenger claiming compensation from driver for injury sustained in road traffic accident — claimant arranging insurance to cover cost of legal expenses — claimant unaware that insurance already available under driver’s motor insurance policy — claim settled before action for agreed damages and reasonable costs — whether claimant’s insurance premiums reasonably incurred
- Solicitor — duty — duty to advise — legal expenses insurance — extent of duty to investigate availability to client of such insurance — practice to be followed (United Kingdom)
Sarwar v Alam [2002] 1 WLR 125 (CA); [2001] EWCA Civ 1401 380
- Costs — wasted costs — restrictive trade practices — associations resisting application for discharge of exemption order — rule of procedure providing for appointment of representative respondent but no such order made — court rejecting application that it should recuse itself on grounds of apparent bias — Court of Appeal reversing that decision — associations seeking order requiring Lord Chancellor to pay wasted costs caused by infringement of right to fair trial by independent and impartial tribunal — whether trade association “victim” of unlawful act in absence of representation order — whether cure of defect by

Finance, Trade and Economic Development

Taxation and revenue — income tax — Part IVA of Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth) — sale and lease-back of industrial plant — financing arrangement — purpose of taxpayer — objective assessment — dominant purpose — scheme — tax benefit — taxpayer bears evidential burden of establishing purpose objective not one to obtain tax benefit — whether establishment fees incurred in carrying on business for purpose of gaining assessable income (Australia)

Eastern Nitrogen Ltd v Commissioner of Taxation (2002) 188 ALR 415 (FCA)

170

Trade and commerce — trade practices — misleading and deceptive conduct — bank issued certificate of accreditation to accountant — certificate represented accountant had been assessed by bank for competency and was competent to provide professional advice — accountant undischarged bankrupt with convictions for fraud — whether representation misleading or deceptive — applicants invested funds in company controlled by accountant — investment a sham — whether representation caused loss — whether substantial consideration or real inducement

Negligence — duty of care — economic loss — standard of care — negligent misstatement — bank issued certificate representing that accountant had been assessed for competency and was competent to provide professional advice — accountant undischarged bankrupt with convictions for fraud — applicants relied on representation in certificate — applicants invested funds in company controlled by accountant — investment a sham — whether bank owed applicants duty of care — bank realised customers of accountant would act in reliance on representation in connection with matter of business or serious consequence — whether reliance reasonable — whether breach of duty — whether bank took reasonable steps to ensure representations in certificate were accurate (Australia)

Smith and Another v State Bank of New South Wales Ltd (2002) 188 ALR 729 (FCA)

172

Trade and commerce — trade practices — unconscionable conduct — landlord refusing to extend time in which to exercise option to extend lease — relevant factors and circumstances to be taken into account in assessing whether conduct unconscionable (Australia)

Australian Competition and Consumer Commission v Sampton Holdings Pty Ltd and Others (2002) 189 ALR 76 (FCA)

173

Bill of exchange — cheque — delivery — conversion — deception — drawer and payee deceived by third parties as to nature of transaction — drawer intending to make loan to payee — payee intending to receive payment in exchange for payments to third parties — agent authorised to deliver cheque — agent using

Commonwealth Law Bulletin

Volume 28

No. 1

2002

page
v	Contents
1	Legislation
82	Judicial Decisions
203	Law Reform
301	Legal Profession
411	Ombudsmen
413	International Developments
497	Articles
497	The 125 Year History of Canada's Extradition Statutes and Treaties
547	Human Rights in the Commonwealth: The Ombudsman Role
553	Selected Papers from the Commonwealth Judicial Colloquium on Combating Corruption Within the Judiciary
598	Miscellaneous
598	Some Notes
642	Reviews and Notices
IBC	Secretariat Legal Publications

Commonwealth Secretariat

payment unconscionable — whether court should intervene and grant injunctive relief (Singapore)

Samwoh Asphalt Premix Pte v Sum Cheong Piling Pte Ltd & Anor [2002] 1 SLR 1 (CA)

125

Contract — interpretation — scope of condition — interpretation leading to unreasonable result cannot be correct — sale and purchase of property — Housing and Development Board industrial leased land — contract conditional on approval by HDB for change of use of property — HDB's refusal to grant approval for change of use from "light industry" to "warehousing" — whether purchaser entitled to determine contract and recover deposit

Evidence — admissibility — interpretation of contract — relevance of context of transaction — factual background known to parties at time of contracting — legislative and administrative background

Words and Phrases — "Change of the use" (Singapore)

United Lifestyle Holdings Pte Ltd v Oakwell Engineering Ltd [2002] 2 SLR 308 (HC)

126

Courts Practice and Procedure

Courts and judicial system — appeal — interlocutory order dispensing with jury — appeal of final judgment — challenge to interlocutory order — new trial ordered — whether "substantial wrong or miscarriage" occasioned by interlocutory order

Practice and procedure — juries — dispensed with — appeal (Australia)

Gerlach v Clifton Bricks Pty Ltd (2002) 188 ALR 353 (HCA)

129

Appeal — fresh evidence — extradition proceedings — on appeal from order of committal for extradition, fugitive seeking to introduce fresh evidence regarding threats made by foreign prosecutor that fugitive would be subjected to homosexual rape in American prison unless he co-operated with extradition process — Court of Appeal erred in refusing to permit fugitive to adduce fresh evidence — Court of Appeal is forum of original jurisdiction for Charter purposes under Extradition Act and has jurisdiction to control process through application of doctrine of abuse of process — evidence tendered for purpose of invoking jurisdiction of Court of Appeal to control own process not required to meet traditional criteria for admission of fresh evidence — prosecutor's statements disentitling requesting state from pursuing matter before Canadian courts extradition proceedings stayed

Constitutional law — Charter of Rights — fundamental justice — extradition proceedings as abuse of process — on appeal from order of committal for extradition, fugitive seeking to introduce fresh evidence regarding threats made by foreign prosecutor that fugitive would be subjected to homosexual rape in American prison unless he co-operated with extradition process — Court of Appeal erred in refusing to permit fugitive to adduce fresh evidence — Court of Appeal is forum of original jurisdiction for Charter purposes under Extradition Act and has jurisdiction to control process through application of doctrine of abuse of process — evidence tendered for purpose of invoking jurisdiction of Court of Appeal to control own process not required to meet traditional criteria for admission of fresh evidence — prosecutor's statements disentitling requesting state from pursuing matter before Canadian courts — extradition proceedings stayed (Canada)

United States of America v Shulman 197 DLR (4th) 69 (SC)

130

Civil procedure — amendment — addition of new cause of action — amendment to counterclaim — whether statute barred — whether amendment related back to date of counterclaim or date of writ — distinct and separate cause of action introduced, whether also statute barred — publication of libel after commencement of counterclaim, whether cause of action for libel could be added into counterclaim (Malaysia)

Sarawak Securities Sdn Bhd v William Leong Wai Ling & Ors [2002] 1 MLJ 294 (HC)

132

Civil procedure — appeal — notice — enlargement of time — merger of applicant causing internal freezing of business transactions, whether material in justifying enlargement — whether applicant's reasons for delay were material and reasonable (Malaysia)

MBf Finance Bhd v Alluwi bin Salleh & Anor [2002] 1 MLJ 497(HC)

133

Civil procedure — service — out of jurisdiction — leave to serve notice of originating process out of jurisdiction — whether proper case for leave to be granted

Arbitration — international commercial arbitration — place of arbitration — whether place of arbitration changed from Jakarta to Singapore — distinction between place of arbitration and venue of hearing — award — applicability of s. 24 of International Arbitration Act (Cap 143A, 1995 Ed) and Art 34 of Model Law — place of arbitration — whether place of arbitration changed from Jakarta to Singapore

Conflict of laws — forum non conveniens — service out of jurisdiction — whether Singapore most clearly connected with arbitration — whether Singapore most appropriate forum to hear application (Singapore)

PT Garuda Indonesian v Birgen Air [2002] 1 SLR 393 (CA)

135

Practice — pre-trial or post-judgment relief — freezing order — worldwide freezing order — pre-trial order — extra-territorial effect of order — protection of third parties — freezing order in standard form — proviso protecting third parties in respect of assets outside the jurisdiction — appropriate terms (United Kingdom)

Bank of China v NBM LLC and others [2002] 1 All ER 717 (CA)

137

Criminal Law and Procedure

Criminal law — extradition — review of determination of eligibility for extradition by Magistrate — criteria for characterisation of documents issued by requesting country as “warrants” — whether authentication required for translations accompanying supporting documents under treaty provisions — whether one seal covers multiple documents — whether partial translation of warrants sufficient — translation of statements of offences, penalties and conduct — legibility of supporting documents — what constitutes “copy” — partial illegibility — statement of conduct — whether specific allegation of conduct to offence required — extradition objections on basis that purpose of prosecution or punishment for political opinion

Constitutional law — separation of powers — whether review by court of Magistrate’s administrative decision exercise of judicial power — validity of s. 21 of Extradition Act

Words and phrases — “review” — “sign” — “certify” — “seal” — “political opinion” — “judicial power” — “warrant” — “supporting documents” — “conduct constituting the offence” (Australia)

Cabal and Another v United Mexican States and Another (No. 3) (2002) 186 ALR 188 (FCA)

139

Murder — statutory provision that person not criminally responsible for act or omission which occurred independently of exercise of person’s will — whether act that killed deceased was voluntary or willed act — whether trial judge erred in failing to direct jury to consider this question — whether no substantial miscarriage of justice (Australia)

Ugle v R (2002) 189 ALR 22 (HCA)

142

Criminal law — homicide — unlawful killing — murder — deceased died from gun shot to chest — whether shooting unwilled act or accidental event — what is “act causing death” — whether trial judge erred in failing to direct jury about unwilled acts — whether jury to decide what is “act causing death” — whether trial judge’s failure to direct gave rise to substantial miscarriage of justice so new trial should be ordered

Practice and procedure — onus of proof — whether trial judge erred in directing jury about onus of proof — whether trial judge’s direction to jury apt to mislead them about decision to be made

Words and phrases — “act” — “event” — “accident” (Australia)

Murray v R (2002) 189 ALR 40 (HCA)

143

Criminal law — sentencing — death penalty — murder — respondent convicted of murder and sentenced to death — Criminal Code providing that anyone convicted of murder “liable ... to suffer death” — Criminal Code also authorising court to impose “any less punishment, other than death” — whether imposing mandatory death penalty

Constitutional law — fundamental rights — right to freedom from inhuman or degrading punishment — limitation — saving provision — punishment lawful at specified date not to be held inconsistent with fundamental right — respondent convicted of murder and sentenced to death — mandatory death penalty for murder imposed by statutory provision — whether court prevented from holding such provision inconsistent with fundamental right — right to fair trial — right to fair hearing by independent and impartial court — sentencing — mandatory death penalty — Prerogative of Mercy — respondent convicted of murder and sentenced to death — mandatory death sentence infringing fundamental right — Committee on Prerogative of Mercy — whether providing necessary individuation of sentence — murder — statutory provision prescribing sentence of death — whether violating fundamental right — respondent convicted of murder and sentenced to death — whether relevant statutory provision void — whether such provision to be modified to conform with Constitution — appropriate order — whether judge or jury to determine sentence (St Lucia)

R v Hughes [2002] 2 LRC 585 (PC)

144

Criminal law — murder — diminished responsibility — conflicting expert evidence — whether defence made out on balance of probabilities — intention — injuries inflicted sufficient in ordinary course of nature to cause death — whether requisite intention for murder proved beyond reasonable doubt

Evidence — expert evidence — conflicting expert evidence — review of trial judge’s decision to elect between conflicting opinions (Singapore)

Khwan-On Natthaphon v Public Prosecutor [2002] 1 SLR 89 (CA)

147

Criminal procedure — charge — duplicity — charge alleging that appellants committed two or more distinct offences — duplicity resulted from use of phrase “various occasions” — whether defect curable — errors in charge — particulars of charge — ambiguity in use of phrase “various occasions” — whether errors in charge material — whether appellants misled by errors in charge — trial — joint trial — whether offences committed in same transaction — whether joint trial caused prejudice to appellants — sentencing — principles — discretion in sentencing — whether trial judge’s error in considering extraneous factors in sentencing appellants occasioned failure of justice — whether error an irregularity — whether curable (Singapore)

Lim Chuan Huat &amp; Anor v Public Prosecutor [2002] 1 SLR 105 (HC)	149
Criminal law — voluntarily causing hurt — prison brutality — prison officers in course of official duties — victim was prisoner undergoing medical treatment in prison ward
Evidence — conflicting evidence — conflicting versions of facts from prosecution and defence — prosecution's case supported by medical evidence and testimony of witnesses — effect of inconsistencies in testimonies of complainant and witnesses on prosecution's case — whether court entitled to reject one part of testimony and accept the other — whether prosecution's case proven beyond reasonable doubt — impeachment — credit of accused person — inconsistencies in testimonies — nature of inconsistencies — whether credit rightly impeached — effect of impeachment of credit on defence's case
Criminal procedure — sentencing — policy considerations — serious aggravating factors — prison brutality — prison officers setting upon defenceless prisoner — deterrent sentence to be imposed (Singapore)
Mohammed Zairi bin Mohamad Mohtar &amp; Anor v Public Prosecutor [2002] 1 SLR 344 (HC)	150
Criminal procedure — revision — conviction on plea of guilt — petitioner pleaded guilty on counsel's advice even though he was convinced of his own innocence because he wanted matter quickly disposed of — principles governing exercise of criminal revision — whether appropriate case for court's exercise of revisionary power — plea of guilt — safeguards (Singapore)
Lee Eng Hock v Public Prosecutor [2002] 1 SLR 364 (HC)	153
Criminal procedure — estoppel — issue estoppel — whether applicable in criminal proceedings — application of common law precedents (Tanzania)
Tojo v Republic [2002] 2 LRC 640 (CA)	154
Criminal procedure — jury verdicts — inconsistency — joint trial — appellants convicted of drug-trafficking offences — co-accused acquitted of same offences — identical prosecution evidence — whether inconsistent verdicts rendering convictions unsafe — whether miscarriage of justice (Trinidad and Tobago)
Minott and Others v State [2002] 2 LRC 470 (CA)	155
Defence Forces and Police
Police — powers — power to remove trespassers on land — direction requiring trespassers to leave land — local authority requiring travellers to leave its land in two days — police immediately giving statutory direction requiring travellers to leave site in two days — whether direction requiring trespassers to leave exceptionally, irrational advice or defiance of clients instructions may render conviction unsafe (Cayman Islands)

Ebanks and Powell v R 2002 CILR 197 (CA)

318

Contempt of court — civil contempt — service of court order and penal notice on defendant to be dispensed with retrospectively under Grand Court Rules, O 45, r 7(7) only exceptionally — Rules require that defendant notified, within time for compliance, of possible consequences of non-compliance — if new time-limit set under r 6(1), no enforcement proceedings before expiry

Contempt of court — civil contempt — court has inherent jurisdiction to punish contempt of own motion if appropriate — discretion to be exercised only if necessary to preserve respect for court's authority or ensure due administration of justice

Contempt of court — civil contempt — factors for consideration — court to consider nature of order and effect of breach, purpose of committal (coercive or punitive), whether apology offered, other parties' wishes, nature of proceedings (eg family proceedings, where public interest favours reconciliation), whether administration of justice undermined, and whether penal notice served on contemnor during time for compliance (Cayman Islands)

WX v YZ 2002 CILR 514 (CA)

321

Attorneys-at-Law — personal liability — wasted costs — ordered only if obvious case of dishonesty, misconduct, default or serious negligence, not mere mistake or error of judgment — misconduct includes abuse of litigation process — obtaining adjournment to amend claim on court's advice rarely justifies order based on negligence — irrelevant that client legally aided

Attorneys-at-Law — personal liability — wasted costs — issue of wasted costs best decided after trial — attorney to be informed of failing and given opportunity to respond (Cayman Islands)

Gill v Seymour (trading as Attic Billiard Lounge) 2002 CILR 233 (CA)

323

Attorneys-at-Law — remuneration — conditional fee agreement — valid and enforceable subject to court's approval and taxation of costs — objections based on champerty and maintenance inapplicable if no agreement to share court's award and no premium on fees if successful — representation of meritorious causes on conditional fee basis to be encouraged

Jurisprudence — precedent — English Court of Appeal — decisions not binding on Grand Court, though of persuasive authority — local circumstances may require that common law be developed differently in Islands (Cayman Islands)

National Trust for Cayman Islands v Planning Appeals Tribunal, Central Planning Authority and Humphreys (Cayman) Limited 2002 CILR 59 (Grand Ct)

324

extradition proceedings as abuse of process where abuse related to committal hearing — trial judge in requesting state threatening to impose maximum sentence on fugitives — prosecutor in requesting state publicly stating that fugitives would be subjected to homosexual rape — both statements and in particular that of prosecutor were attempt to influence unfolding Canadian judicial proceedings by pressuring fugitives not to contest extradition — requesting state governed by doctrine of abuse of process that governs conduct of all litigants before Canadian courts — foreign state having disentitled itself from pursuing recourse before Canadian courts — Court of Appeal erred in setting aside stay of proceedings imposed by extradition judge — order staying proceedings reinstated (Canada)

United States of America v Cobb 197 DLR (4th) 46 (SC)

162

Family Law

Divorce — division of matrimonial assets — property acquired after registration of marriage but before customary tea ceremony and wedding dinner or consummation of marriage — property purchased using funds from lottery prize money won by first defendant and three other siblings — whether property so acquired constituted matrimonial asset — whether property constituted matrimonial asset in its entirety or only in respect of one-quarter share (Singapore)

Ng Sylvia v Oon Choon Huat Peter & Anor [2002] 1 SLR 435 (HC)

164

Family law — children — custody — stay of proceedings — custody and access applications filed in Singapore and France — husband French citizen — wife citizen of both Morocco and France — daughter living with mother in London — application by wife for stay of Singapore proceedings in favour of French proceedings commenced by husband — whether Singapore or France the more appropriate forum to decide custody of and access to child (Singapore)

Re A (an infant) [2002] 2 SLR 137 (HC)

166

Marriage — validity — declaration — marriage void if parties not male and female — appellant correctly registered at birth as male but undergoing sex-change operation — appellant marrying man and seeking declaration that marriage was valid — whether gender of person fixed immutably at birth for purposes of marriage (United Kingdom)

Bellinger v Bellinger [2002] 1 All ER 311 (CA)

167

Adoption — application — application for adoption by one natural parent — circumstances in which such an application could be granted (United Kingdom)

Re B (a child) (adoption by one natural parent) [2002] 1 All ER 641 (HL)

168

Fundamental rights — right to fair hearing by independent or impartial tribunal — judiciary — independence — statute providing for removal of judge only upon report of Court of Appeal following inquiry at request of Minister of Justice — whether contrary to principle of judicial independence — whether contrary to right to a fair and public hearing

Judiciary — judge — removal — jurisdiction — statutory procedure — report of provincial Court of Appeal recommending removal of provincial court judge following report of inquiry panel of provincial Conseil de la magistrature — whether Supreme Court having jurisdiction to hear appeal from report of inquiry panel of provincial Court of Appeal — whether provincial Court of Appeal having jurisdiction to determine questions of law and jurisdiction in relation to inquiry relating to conduct of provincial court judge requested by Minister of Justice — whether nature and function of inquiry process procedurally fair (Canada)

Therrien v Canada (Minister of Justice) and Another [2001] 5 LRC 575

310

Fair trial — role of prosecutor — prosecutor's role to act as minister of justice, not to obtain conviction — to present all relevant and credible evidence before court in firm but fair manner

Fair trial — conduct of counsel — counsel not to interrupt oral evidence or judge's summing-up (unless factual error, quickly corrected), or address jury other than at prescribed times — contentious objections to be made in absence of jury, especially if concern merits of case — not to intimidate or insult witnesses or other counsel — to confine any disparagement of witnesses to closing speech — not to disclose existence of prejudicial matters not before jury

Fair trial — role of judge — trial judge to ensure proceedings conducted in orderly and fair manner — to monitor and correct behaviour of counsel, in absence of jury if necessary — to refrain from disparaging accused or defence counsel — personal opinions to be presented in balanced and moderate way in summing-up (Cayman Islands)

B V Randall v R 2002 CILR 254 (PC)

315

Evidence — corroboration — lies as corroboration — judge/jury to be satisfied that lies deliberate and material, and not prompted by innocent motive — jury direction required if (i) Crown relies on accused's lies to support other evidence of guilt, (ii) lies referred to as possible corroboration in summing-up, (iii) jury likely to treat lies as corroborative, or (iv) accused relies on alibi — unnecessary if rejecting lies leads inevitably to conviction

Attorneys-at-Law — obligations towards client — advice in criminal cases — accused's decision alone whether to give evidence at trial, on advice from counsel — good practice to record decision not to testify, indicating that made freely and on advice — intermediary to deliver cheque — payment duly collected — whether such delivery effectual — whether recipient holder in due course — whether drawer entitled to recover sum paid

Restitution — mistake — mistake of fact — claim for money had and received — cheque — deception — drawer and payee deceived by third parties as to nature of transaction — drawer intending loan to payee — payee intending to receive payment in US dollars in exchange for equivalent in Jamaican dollars paid to third parties — deception — whether payment made under mistake of fact — whether bank mispredicting nature of transaction (Jamaica)

Dextra Bank & Trust Co Ltd v Bank of Jamaica [2002] 2 LRC 212 (PC)

174

Health, Education and Social Welfare

Social welfare and services — veterans' affairs — veterans' entitlements — widow's pension — reasonable hypotheses — whether tribunal misapplied test of whether reasonable hypotheses connecting death to war service was raised on material before it — nature of hypotheses — task of decision-maker in determining whether hypotheses raised — role of statement of principles in assessing hypotheses

Words and phrases — "reasonable hypotheses" (Australia)

Bull v Repatriation Commission (2002) 188 ALR 757 (FCA)

178

Immigration

Inadmissible and removable classes — criminality — visa officer refusing visa on basis of reasonable grounds to believe applicant member of criminal organisation — relying on confidential, undisclosed information — Federal Court (Trial Division) dismissing application for judicial review after hearing Minister's submissions in camera and ex parte — not disclosing confidential information or providing summary to applicant or counsel — appeal dismissed — neither officer nor court breached duty to act fairly — content of secret affidavits, taken together with public record, justified officer's decision (Canada)

Chiau v Canada (Minister of Citizenship and Immigration) 195 DLR (4th) 422 (FCA)

180

Inadmissible and removable classes — terrorism — legislation providing for denial of entry to past and present senior members of governments engaged in terrorism, systemic or gross human rights violations, war crimes or crimes against humanity — defining senior members of government as persons who held positions enabling them to exert significant influence on exercise of government power and including listed positions — denial subject to Ministerial discretion — legislation not creating rebuttable presumption — persons holding listed positions inadmissible, unless granted Ministerial exemption in advance (Canada)

Canada (Minister of Citizenship and Immigration) v Adam 196 DLR (4th) 497 (CA)

181

Industrial and Intellectual Property

Patents — revocation — patentable invention — whether invention involved inventive step — whether evidence supported conclusion of obviousness or lack of inventive step by trial judge (Australia)

Firebelt Pty Ltd v Brambles Australia Ltd (t/as Cleanaway) and Others (2002) 188 ALR 280 (HCA)

182

Copyright — copyright protection — subsistence of copyright — foreign cinematograph films made or first published before 10 April 1987 — whether such films enjoy copyright protection in Singapore — nature of copyright — cinematograph films made or first published before 10 April 1987 — whether such films enjoy copyright protection as dramatic works — secondary infringement — parallel imports — elements to be proved by prosecution

Criminal law — copyright offence — possession for purposes of sale or trade infringing copies of copyright film — elements of offence — whether proven beyond reasonable doubt (Singapore)

Highway Video Pte Ltd v Public Prosecutor (Lim Tai Wah) and other appeals [2002] 1 SLR 129 (HC)

183

Industrial Relations

Trade unions — union elections — irregularity — whether electoral official conducted election as required by union's rules — whether "procedural defect" in rules — whether electoral official could remedy defect and impose voting system — whether union election rules valid

Words and phrases — "irregularity" — "procedural defects" (Australia)

Re Churchill (2002) 186 ALR 110 (FCA)

185

Employment — resignation — claimants were informed that employment prospects with firm and future increments would be affected negatively — whether resignation of claimants voluntary — whether resignation amounted to dismissal — whether dismissal without just cause and excuse — claimants gainfully employed immediately after termination, whether back wages should be awarded — Industrial Court — award — application to quash — delayed-judgment, whether affected judge's mind with regard to demeanour and conduct of witnesses — whether any illegality, irrationality or procedural impropriety in award (Malaysia)

VP Nathan & Partners v Illangovan s/o Dorairaj A Suppiah & another motion [2002] 1 MLJ 341 (HC)

186

---

Contents

---

Legislation	1
(see also under Legal Profession, Ombudsmen and International Developments sections)
Arbitration
Arbitration Act 2001 (Singapore)	1
International Arbitration (Amendment) Act 2001 (Singapore)	3
Children and Young Persons
Children's Homes Regulations 2001 (United Kingdom)	4
Commercial Law
Electronic Transactions Act 2001 (Barbados)	5
Electronic Signatures Regulations 2002 (United Kingdom)	9
Companies and Corporate Bodies
Singapore Business Federation Act 2001 (Singapore)	10
Constitutional Law and Human Rights
British Overseas Territories Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	10
Sex Discrimination (Election Candidates) Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	11
Contract
Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 2001 (Singapore)	11
Criminal Law and Procedure
The Intelligence Services Act 2001 (Australia)	13
Interactive Gambling Amendment Act 2001 (Australia)	22
Repatriation of Prisoners Act 2002 (Barbados)	23
Money Laundering (Prevention) (Amendment) Act 2002 (Belize)	23
Anti-terrorism, Crime and Security Act 2001 (United Kingdom)	26
Cultural Affairs
National Heritage Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	32
Defence Forces and Police
Police Complaints Authority Act 2001 (Barbados)	33
Civil Defence (Grant) Act 2002 (United Kingdom)	34
Elections and Polls
Parliamentary Elections (Temporary Suspension of Overseas Voting) Act 2001 (Singapore)	34

Insurance

Policy — construction — perils — excepted perils — “insurrection” — riot — general condition excepting liability for loss through insurrection — special condition covering loss by riot — appellant suffering loss from riot during insurrection — whether loss occasioned by or through insurrection — burden of proof (Trinidad and Tobago)

Grell-Taurel Ltd v The Caribbean Home Insurance Company Ltd and Others [2002] 2 LRC 487 (CA)

188

Land

Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders — native title — Native Title Act 1993 (Cth) — “past act” — “future act” — whether “affects” native title — protection of Aboriginal sites of significance — provisions of alternative state regimes — definition of “particular” land, “significant impact”

Constitutional law — inconsistency — inconsistency does not invalidate but renders inoperative — application of Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth) to validated acts under Native Title Act 1993 (Cth)

Administrative law — administrative decisions — application of Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cth) — whether decision of “administrative character” — availability of relief under Judiciary Act 1903 (Cth) where failure of jurisdiction
Statutes — Acts of Parliament — status of Act prior to commencement of operation (Australia)

Central Queensland Land Council Aboriginal Corporation v Attorney General (CTH) and Another (2002) 188 ALR 200 (FCA)

190

Local Government

Signboard and advertisement — licence — unilateral withdrawal of — injunction to restrain removal of advertisement — whether injunction could issue against local authority — no real prospect of succeeding for permanent injunction at trial — whether damages adequate remedy (Malaysia)

Grand Media Sdn Bhd v Dato' Bandar Kuala Lumpur (No. 2) [2002] 1 MLJ 508 (HC)

192

Maritime Law

Bill of lading — delivery of cargo — production of bill of lading — delivery of cargo without production of bill of lading — delivery by carriers on instructions of shipper — liability of defendants/carriers and third party/shipper to plaintiffs/indorsees and/or holders of bill of lading — whether bill of lading obtained pursuant to illegal money lending transaction — whether plaintiffs' loss proved — whether plaintiffs acquiesced or consented to delivery of cargo (Singapore)

The Neptra Premier [2002] 2 SLR 124 (CA)

193

Private International Law

Conflict of laws — gaming transaction — characterisation of transaction — action to recover sum of money as unpaid loans made to patron of casino to enable him to gamble — whether money sought to be recovered is “a sum of money won upon a wager” or a loan — whether lex fori or proper law of contract to be applied — whether recovery repugnant to local public policy — relevant public policy considerations

Contract — gaming contract — gaming contract made abroad — whether valid — whether enforceable (Singapore)

Star City Pty (fka Sydney Harbour Casino Pty Ltd) v Tan Hong Woon [2002] 2 SLR 22 (HC)

195

Foreign judgment — enforcement — applicable principles — conclusiveness of foreign judgment — when local court will refrain from enforcing foreign judgment — allegation that foreign judgment procured by fraud — approach to be taken by local court — whether mere allegation of fraud precluded foreign judgment from being enforced locally — circumstances in which foreign judgment may be challenged on ground of fraud (Singapore)

Hong Pian Tee v Les Placements Germain Gauthier Inc [2002] 2 SLR 81 (CA)

197

Statutes and Statutory Interpretation

Construction of statute — delivery-up of documents — whether developers of condominium obliged to hand over accounting documents/records pertaining to moneys collected after issue of temporary occupation permit from subsidiary proprietors and final defects list to management corporation — literal approach — purposive approach — applicability of s. 39 of Interpretation Act (Cap 1, 1999 Ed) to limit obligation

Civil procedure — pleadings — particulars — delivery-up of documents — whether failure to itemise specific documents required fatal to application — whether sufficient particulars provided to identify cause of action — Rules of Court O 7 r 3(1)

Words and Phrases — “other records” (Singapore)

Management Corporation Strata Title Plan No. 2192 v Regenthill Properties Pte Ltd [2002] 1 SLR 424 (HC)

199

Torts

Negligence — occupier's liability — standard of care — breach of duty — plaintiff suffered eye injury while playing indoor cricket at facility owned and operated by defendant — whether defendant should have provided helmets or eye guards to players — whether defendant should have warned players of dangers of indoor cricket and risk of eye injury — whether failure to warn — whether danger obvious such that warning unnecessary — whether voluntary assumption of risk

Evidence — admissibility — statistics — doctrine of judicial notice — whether court could have regard to statistics published by Australian Bureau of Statistics (Australia)
Woods v Multi-Sport Holdings Pty Ltd (2002) 186 ALR 145 (HCA)	201

Law Reform 203

Administrative Law
Local Authority Reports (United Kingdom)	203
Children and Young Persons
International Parental Child Abduction (Hong Kong)	204
Criminal Law and Procedure
Sentencing: Corporate Offenders (Australia — New South Wales)	212
Family Law
Recognition of Rights and Obligations in Same Sex Relationships (Canada — Alberta)	223
Guardianship of Children (Hong Kong)	231
Insurance
Marine Insurance (Australia)	243
Personal Property
Review of the Property (Relationships) Act 1984 (NSW) (Australia — New South Wales)	256
Torts
Liability for Loss Resulting from the Development, Supply, or Use of Genetically Modified Organisms (New Zealand)	260
Trusts and Trustees
Non-Resident Trustees Under The Dependent Adults Act (Canada — Alberta)	280
Exculpation Clauses in Trust Instruments (Canada — British Columbia)	283
Some Problems in the Law of Trusts (New Zealand)	293

inconsistent with requirements for exercise of judicial power by Supreme Court under Constitution

Practice and procedure — whether group proceedings in Victoria involve impermissible exercise of Commonwealth judicial power (Australia)

Mobil Oil Australia Pty Ltd v Victoria and Another (2002) 189 ALR 161 (HCA)

98

Fundamental rights — right to freedom from inhuman or degrading punishment — mandatory death penalty — murder by shooting — statutory provision prescribing sentence of death — whether violating fundamental right — appellant convicted of murder by shooting and sentenced to death — whether relevant statutory provision void — whether such provision to be modified to conform with Constitution — appropriate order — right to fair trial — right to fair hearing by independent and impartial court — sentencing — mandatory death penalty — prerogative of mercy — appellant convicted of murder by shooting and sentenced to death — mandatory death sentence infringing fundamental right — Constitution establishing Advisory Council to advise executive on exercise of prerogative — Governor-General required to act in accordance with such advice — whether such procedure rendering penalty compatible with fundamental right (Belize)

Reyes v R [2002] 2 LRC 606 (PC)

100

Charter of Rights — mobility rights — extradition — Article 6 of Canada-US Extradition Treaty permitting requested state to refuse extradition unless requesting state provides assurances not to impose death penalty — although extradition constitutes prima facie infringement of citizen's right to remain in Canada, extradition constituting reasonable limitation under s. 1 — mobility rights not implicated by potential imposition of death penalty — death penalty properly addressed under s. 7 of Charter — cruel and unusual treatment or punishment — extradition to face death penalty — although decision by Canadian Minister of Justice to extradite without assurances regarding death penalty would be necessary link in chain of causation to potential infliction of capital punishment, link too remote to implicate s. 12 of Charter — values underlying s. 12 of Charter properly considered in analysis under s. 7 of Charter (Canada)

United States of America v Burns 195 DLR (4th) 1 (SC)

103

Charter of Rights — application — extradition proceedings — section 9(3) of Extradition Act conferring Charter jurisdiction on extradition judge in respect of issues specific to functions of extradition hearing — provision not conferring expanded Charter jurisdiction on extradition judge

Criminal law — extradition and fugitive offenders — jurisdiction — Charter issues — section 9(3) of Extradition Act conferring land valid if not giving trespassers opportunity to comply with occupier's request to leave — whether direction for trespassers to leave land valid if requiring them to leave at future time (United Kingdom)

R (on the application of Fuller and others) v Chief Constable of Dorset Police [2002] 3 All ER 209 (HL)

157

Police — negligence — duty to take care — person in custody — escape — whether police having duty of care to prevent person suffering injury in foreseeable attempt to escape from police custody (United Kingdom)

Vellino v Chief Constable of Greater Manchester [2002] 3 All ER 78 (CA)

159

Extradition and Fugitive Offenders

Citizenship and migration — extradition — issue of surrender warrant — name of escort officer subsequently amended — whether Magistrate had power to amend warrant (Australia)

Hazlehurst v New Zealand (2002) 189 ALR 99 (FCA)

160

Criminal law — extradition — request by Australia for surrender of person in Poland to answer criminal charges in Australia — relief sought under s. 39B of Judiciary Act 1903 (Cth) in respect of request — whether making of request exercise of executive power of Commonwealth of statutory power conferred by s. 40 of Extradition Act 1988 (Cth) — whether request required to “conform” to Poland (Extradition: Commonwealth of Australia and New Zealand) Treaty — whether treaty contained any stipulations with which request for surrender could comply (Australia)

Oates v Attorney General (CTH) and Another (2002) 189 ALR 216 (FCA)

161

Criminal law — extradition and fugitive offenders — jurisdiction — stay of proceedings — extradition judge has jurisdiction pursuant to Charter and at common law to stay extradition proceedings as abuse of process where abuse related to committal hearing — trial judge in requesting state threatening to impose maximum sentence on fugitives — prosecutor in requesting state publicly stating that fugitives would be subjected to homosexual rape — both statements and in particular that of prosecutor were attempt to influence unfolding Canadian judicial proceedings by pressuring fugitives not to contest extradition — requesting state governed by doctrine of abuse of process that governs conduct of all litigants before Canadian courts — foreign state having disentitled itself from pursuing recourse before Canadian courts — Court of Appeal erred in setting aside stay of proceedings imposed by extradition judge — order staying proceedings reinstated

Constitutional law — Charter of Rights — fundamental justice — extradition proceedings as abuse of process — extradition judge has jurisdiction pursuant to Charter and at common law to stay

Charter jurisdiction on extradition judge in respect of issues specific to functions of extradition hearing — provision not conferring expanded Charter jurisdiction on extradition judge

Constitutional law — Charter of Rights — mobility rights — extradition — mobility rights not engaged at committal stage and extradition judge has no jurisdiction to grant Charter relief with respect to alleged violation of s. 6 of Charter — extradition judge has discretion to hear evidence relating to allegation that rights under s. 6 of Charter will be violated by surrender to foreign state — however, extradition judge should be mindful of need for expeditious disposition on issue of committal, danger of confusion from reception of irrelevant evidence and waste that will result if Minister ultimately declines to surrender — where necessary to develop proper factual basis for determination of Charter issue, Court of Appeal should receive appropriate evidence on judicial review from decision of Minister of Justice — Court of Appeal is court of competent jurisdiction to address issue of breach of s. 6 of Charter (Canada)

United States of America v Kwok 197 DLR (4th) 1 (SC)

106

Constitutional law — Charter of Rights — enforcement of rights — exclusion of evidence — Germany seeking accused's extradition on various charges, including tax evasion — accused challenging scheme of extradition established by Extradition Act and Extradition Treaty between Canada and Germany — accused seeking to call evidence in support of constitutional challenge — accused permitted to call evidence from expert on German law as to whether tax evasion extraditable as matter of German law and as to legal impediments to availability of evidence in Germany — accused also permitted to call evidence as to steps taken by Canadian authorities to ensure compliance with legal requirements in authorising provisional arrest and issuing authority to proceed — however, accused not permitted to call evidence relating to fairness of proceedings or viability of prosecution in foreign state, or evidence relating to Ministerial functions in connection with surrender

Criminal law — extradition and fugitive offenders — constitutional challenge — Germany seeking accused's extradition on various charges, including tax evasion — accused challenging scheme of extradition established by Extradition Act and Extradition Treaty between Canada and Germany — accused seeking to call evidence in support of constitutional challenge — accused permitted to call evidence from expert on German law as to whether tax evasion extraditable as matter of German law and as to legal impediments to availability of evidence in Germany — accused also permitted to call evidence as to steps taken by Canadian authorities to ensure compliance with legal requirements in authorising provisional arrest and issuing authority to proceed — however, accused not permitted to call evidence relating to fairness of proceedings or viability of prosecution in foreign state, or evidence relating to Ministerial functions in connection with surrender (Canada — Ontario)

Federal Republic of Germany v Schreiber 197 DLR (4th) 547 (SC)

109

Fundamental rights — right to freedom from inhuman punishment — mandatory death penalty — murder — statutory provisions prescribing sentence of death — appellants convicted of murder and sentenced to death — appellants challenging constitutionality of mandatory death penalty — whether death sentence mandatory — whether violating fundamental right — declaratory provisions — right to life — limitation — exception for execution of sentence of court — whether establishing right to protection against arbitrary deprivation of life — mandatory death penalty — prerogative of mercy — murder — statutory provisions prescribing sentence of death — appellants challenging constitutionality of mandatory death penalty — Constitution establishing Advisory Committee to advise executive on exercise of prerogative — whether such procedure rendering penalty compatible with fundamental right — right to freedom from inhuman punishment — transitional saving provision — lawful punishments — mandatory death penalty — murder — statutory provisions prescribing sentence of death — appellants convicted of murder and sentenced to death — appellants challenging constitutionality of mandatory death penalty — transitional provisions protecting existing lawful punishments from being held inconsistent with fundamental rights — effect — whether protecting mandatory death penalty from constitutionality challenge — fundamental rights — remedies — mandatory death penalty — murder — statutes prescribing sentence of death — such penalty violating fundamental right — appellants convicted of murder and sentenced to death — sentences quashed on appeal — appropriate orders, para 2 (St Lucia, St Vincent and the Grenadines)

Hughes v R; Spence v R [2002] 2 LRC 531 (ECCA)

112

Fundamental rights — right to fair trial — right of access to court — plaintiff seeking to institute proceedings against local authority for recovery of delictual damages — statutory requirement that local authority be given written notice of intention to institute legal proceedings for recovery of delictual damages within 90 days from commission of delict — plaintiff failing to comply with time limit — whether statutory time limit violating plaintiff's constitutional right of access to court — limitation — right of access to court — plaintiff seeking to institute proceedings against local authority for recovery of delictual damages — statutory time limit violating plaintiff's constitutional right of access to court — whether limitation on

Statutory demand — setting aside — whether statutory demand regular — whether statutory demand should have stated that creditor held security for debt — debt arising from non-payment of guarantee — whether security provided by borrower became security from guarantor pursuant to consent order under which creditor agreed to release security to guarantor upon receiving payment from guarantor — whether security provided by borrower constituted “security for the debt” for purposes of r 94(5) of Bankruptcy Rules (Cap 20, R 1, 1996 Ed) or “security in respect of the debt” for purposes of r 98(2)(c) of Bankruptcy Rules (Cap 20, R 1, 1996 Ed) (Singapore)

Sia Leng Yuen v HKR Properties Ltd [2002] 1 SLR 83 (HC)

87

Commercial Law

Agency — authority of agent — trading in shares and foreign exchange — whether authority given by customers to bank’s employee to enter into disputed transactions — whether actual or apparent authority — actual authority — whether express or implied — conduct from which actual authority may be implied — apparent authority — circumstances giving rise to agent’s apparent authority

Civil procedure — costs — appeal — appellants successful on appeal — costs to be awarded below and on appeal — whether general rule that costs follow the event applies — principles governing award of costs — whether successful appellants should be allowed costs for more than one solicitor — whether appellants should be awarded separate set of costs against each respondent (Singapore)

Banque Nationale de Paris v Tan Nancy & Anor [2002] 1 SLR 29 (CA)

89

Companies and Corporate Bodies

Corporations — managed investment schemes — first responsible entity — subsequent appointment of new responsible entity — registration of charges — extension of time for lodgement of particulars — rectification of Australian Register of Company Charges

Equity — application for relief by responsible entity — reasonable reliance on solicitors (Australia)

Re Investa Properties Ltd and Another (2002) 187 ALR 462 (SC)

90

Corporations — arrangements and reconstructions — scheme of arrangement — provision for post-approval amendment to scheme — whether allowable — supervision and regulation — ASIC — limit of functions and powers — improper attempt to confer jurisdiction