

The International Journal of

Human Rights

Volume 15 Number 5 June 2011

Special issue: Democracy, human rights and power

Guest editors: Daniela Nadj,
Kay Lalor and Laura Niada

ISSN 1364-2987

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF HUMAN RIGHTS
Volume 15 Number 5 June 2011

Special issue: Democracy, human rights and power
Guest editors: Daniela Nadj, Kay Lalor and Laura Niada

CONTENTS

The culturalisation of identity in an age of 'ethnic conflict' – depoliticised gender in ICTY wartime sexual violence jurisprudence Daniela Nadj	647
Space, identity, territory: Marichjhapi Massacre, 1979 Debdatta Chowdhury	664
Constituting sexuality: rights, politics and power in the gay rights movement Kay Lalor	683
The human right to medicines in relation to patents in sub-Saharan Africa: some critical remarks Laura Niada	700
Modest harvests: appraising the impact of human rights norms on international economic institutions in relation to Africa Nlerum S. Okogbule	728
Preventing coups in Africa: attempts at the protection of human rights and constitutions Frederick Cowell	749
Immutable clauses and judicial review in India, Brazil and South Africa: expanding constitutional courts' authority Michael Freitas Mohallem	765