

The International Journal
of

Human Rights

Volume 23 Number 3 2019

SPECIAL ISSUE: Human Rights
Monitoring and Implementation

GUEST EDITORS: Andressa M. Gadda,
Juliet Harris,
E. Kay M. Tisdall,
Elizabeth Millership
and Ursula Kilkelly

ISSN 1364-2987

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

The International Journal of Human Rights

Volume 23 Number 3 March 2019

Special Issue: Human Rights Monitoring and Implementation

Guest Editors: Andressa M. Gadda, Juliet Harris, E. Kay M. Tisdall, Elizabeth Millership and Ursula Kilkelly

CONTENTS

Editorial

- 117 Human rights' monitoring and implementation: how to make rights 'real' in children's lives
Andressa M. Gadda, Juliet Harris, E. Kay M. Tisdall, Elizabeth Millership and Ursula Kilkelly

Articles

- 123 The UN convention on the rights of the child: incremental and transformative approaches to legal implementation
Ursula Kilkelly
- 130 The general measures of implementation: opportunities for progress with children's rights
Tara M. Collins
- 157 Children's rights-based childhood policy: a six-P framework
Bronagh Byrne and Laura Lundy
- 174 The UN convention on the rights of the child, decentralisation and legislative integration: a case study from Wales
Simon Hoffman
- 192 'Making children's rights real': lessons from policy networks and Contribution Analysis
Andressa M. Gadda, Juliet Harris, E. Kay M. Tisdall and Elizabeth Millership
- 408 Child Rights Impact Assessment as a policy improvement tool
Lisa Payne
- 425 To incorporate the CRC or not – is this really the question?
Kasey McCall-Smith
- 442 A young person's guide to defending human rights
Joel Meekison and Suki Wan