

The
International
Journal
of

Human Rights

Volume 25 Number 3 2021

SPECIAL ISSUE: Beyond evidence: the use of archives in transitional justice

GUEST EDITORS: Julia Viebach, Dagmar Hovestädt and
Ulrike Lühe

ISSN 1364-2987

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

The International Journal of Human Rights

Volume 25 Number 3 March 2021

Special Issue: Beyond evidence: the use of archives in transitional justice

Guest Editors: Julia Viebach, Dagmar Hovestädt and Ulrike Lühe

CONTENTS

Introduction

- 381 Beyond evidence: the use of archives in transitional justice
Julia Viebach, Dagmar Hovestädt and Ulrike Lühe

Articles

- 403 Transitional archives: towards a conceptualisation of archives in transitional justice
Julia Viebach
- 440 From the forerunners of document collection to the trial of Klaus Barbie and beyond: the transitional justice journey of the Izieu telegram
Ulrike Lühe and Romain Ledauphin
- 467 Remembering atrocities: legal archives and the discursive conditions of witnessing Benjamin Thorne
- 491 There was this goat: the archive for justice as a remedy for epistemic injustices in truth commissions
Dietlinde Wouters
- 509 Non-recurrence, reconciliation, and transitional justice: situating accountability in Northern Ireland's oral history archive
Eliscia Kinder
- 529 Personal archives and transitional justice in Colombia: the Fonds of Fabiola Lalinde and Mario Agudelo
Marta Lucía Giraldo and Daniel Jerónimo Tobón