

The International Journal
of

Human Rights

Volume 25 Number 7 2021

SPECIAL ISSUE: Echoes from the Woods: At the Crossroads of Forest
Struggles and Human Rights in Postcolonial
India

GUEST EDITORS: Rahul Ranjan and Prakash Kashwan

ISSN 1364-2987

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

The International Journal of Human Rights

Volume 25 Number 7 September 2021

Special Issue: Echoes from the Woods: At the Crossroads of Forest Struggles and Human Rights in Postcolonial India

Guest Editors: Rahul Ranjan and Prakash Kashwan

CONTENTS

Introduction

- 1089 Echoes from the woods: at the crossroads of forest struggles and human rights in postcolonial India
Rahul Ranjan and Prakash Kashwan

Articles

- 1094 State, forest and Adivasis at crossroads: Netarhat field firing range and contestations over rights
Anjana Singh
- 1111 Our rights are carved in stone: the case of the Pathalgadi movement in Simdega, Jharkhand
Eva Davidsdottir
- 1126 Excluded Areas as the limit of the political: the murky boundaries of Scheduled Areas in India
Shaunna Rodrigues
- 1148 Our land is banked: forest rights, consent and the invention of a legal exception as land banks
Arpitha Kodiveri
- 1168 (Un)Doing rights: Adivasi participation in governance discourses in an area of civil unrest in India
Gunjan Wadhwa
- 1184 The UN declaration on the rights of peasants, national policies, and forestland rights of India's Adivasis
Prakash Kashwan, Ishan Kukreti and Rahul Ranjan