

Supreme Court Law Journal

No. 2

- A Study on the Breach of Warranty of Seaworthiness by Reason of Improper Method of Towage and Exemption of the Insurer from Liability
— Focus on the Analysis of Supreme Court Decision 2020Da204049
Decided June 4, 2020
Lee Jae-wook
- Remedies for Individual Debtors During the COVID-19 Crisis
— Remedies under Contract Law and Insolvency Law
Kim Ki-hong
- Customs Valuation of Royalties and License Fees for Imported Parts
Park Seolah
- Business Suspension and Loss Compensation in the Pandemic Era from the Property Rights Theory Perspective
Park Jongwon
- The Case Determining that “An Entry into a Restaurant Where Access by the Public in General is Allowed, upon the Business Owner’s Permission to Enter, Does Not Constitute an Act of Intrusion as Stipulated in the Crime of Residential Intrusion, Barring Special Circumstances”
Supreme Court en banc Decision 2017Do18272 Decided March 24, 2022
- The Case Concerning “Approval Requirements for Execution of a Final and Conclusive Judgment Rendered by a Foreign Court Ordering Compensation for Damage According to the Civil Procedure Act”
Supreme Court Decision 2018Da231550 Decided March 11, 2022

CONTENTS

Articles

- 11 ■ A Study on the Breach of Warranty of Seaworthiness by Reason of Improper Method of Towage and Exemption of the Insurer from Liability
— Focus on the Analysis of Supreme Court Decision 2020Da204049 Decided June 4, 2020

Lee Jae-wook

- 51 ■ Remedies for Individual Debtors During the COVID-19 Crisis
— Remedies under Contract Law and Insolvency Law

Kim Ki-hong

- 107 ■ Customs Valuation of Royalties and License Fees for Imported Parts

Park Seolah

- 177 ■ Business Suspension and Loss Compensation in the Pandemic Era from the Property Rights Theory Perspective

Park Jongwon

Recent Supreme Court Cases

- 227 ■ The Case Determining that "An Entry into a Restaurant Where Access by the Public in General is Allowed, upon the Business Owner's Permission to Enter, Does Not Constitute an Act of Intrusion as Stipulated in the Crime of Residential Intrusion, Barring Special Circumstances"
Supreme Court en banc Decision 2017Do18272 Decided March 24, 2022

- 261 ■ The Case Concerning "Approval Requirements for Execution of a Final and Conclusive Judgment Rendered by a Foreign Court Ordering Compensation for Damage According to the Civil Procedure Act"
Supreme Court Decision 2018Da231550 Decided March 11, 2022