

EUROPEAN LAW REVIEW

Volume 28 No. 6 December 2003

*Editors: Anthony Arnulf
Damian Chalmers*

Editorial Arguments for parliamentary authority and reform of the Commission

The Convention's Draft Constitutional Treaty: bringing Europe closer to its lawyers?

Michael Dougan

EU human rights policy and the Convention on the Future of Europe: a failure of design?

Andrew Williams

The constitutional challenge of new governance in the European Union

Gráinne de Búrca

The constitutionalisation of Community administration

Paul Craig

The new genetically modified food labelling requirements: finally a lasting solution?

Caoinnín MacMaoldúin

The EFTA Court—an example of judicialisation of international economic law

Carl Baudenbacher

Notes and Shorter Articles

THOMSON

SWEET & MAXWELL

European Law Review

December 2003

Editorial—Arguments for parliamentary authority and reform of the Commission 761

Articles

The Convention's Draft Constitutional Treaty: bringing Europe closer to its lawyers?
Michael Dougan 763

EU human rights policy and the Convention on the Future of Europe: a failure of design?
Andrew Williams 794

The constitutional challenge of new governance in the European Union
Gráinne de Búrca 814

The constitutionalisation of Community administration
Paul Craig 840

The new genetically modified food labelling requirements: finally a lasting solution?
Caoimhín MacMaoláin 865

The EFTA Court—an example of judicialisation of international economic law
Carl Baudenbacher 880

Notes and Shorter Articles

The new form of majoritarianism in the EU
Miguel Poiares Maduro 900

Europe's constitutional passion play
Neil Walker 905

Using national parliaments to improve scrutiny of the limits of EU action
Stephen Weatherill 909

Book Reviews 913

Table of Contents 2003

Table of Cases i

Table of Legislation xxvii

Index lix