

EUROPEAN LAW REVIEW

Volume 31 No. 3 June 2006

*Editors: Anthony Arnulf
Damian Chalmers*

Editorial: Does Europe need a Fundamental Rights Agency?

Of birds and hedges: the role of primacy in invoking norms of EU law

Koen Lenaerts and Tim Cortaert

Impact assessments and fundamental rights protection in EU law

Helen Toner

The impact of the Modernisation Regulation on the guarantees of due process in competition proceedings

Arianna Andreangeli

Indirect judicial protection in EC law – the case of the plea of illegality

Matthias Vogt

Analysis and Reflections

European Law Review

June 2006

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Editorial  |     |
| Does Europe need a Fundamental Rights Agency?   | 285 |
| Articles   |     |
| Of birds and hedges: the role of primacy in invoking norms of EU lawKoen Lenaerts and Tim Corthaut                           | 287 |
| Impact assessments and fundamental rights protection in EU lawHelen Toner  | 316 |
| The impact of the Modernisation Regulation on the guarantees of due processin competition proceedingsArianna Andreangeli | 342 |
| Indirect judicial protection in EC law—the case of the plea of illegalityMatthias Vogt                                       | 364 |
| Analysis and Reflections   |     |
| Access to Member State documents in EC lawPedro Cabral   | 378 |
| Student loans: the European concept of social justice according to BidarOxana Golynger                                       | 390 |
| Reforming the Stability and Growth PactFabian Amtenbrink and Jakob de Haan   | 402 |
| The Hague Choice-of-Court ConventionTrevor C. Hartley  | 414 |
| Book Reviews   | 425 |