

EUROPEAN LAW REVIEW

Volume 32 No. 6 December 2007

Editors: Anthony Arnall

Damian Chalmers

Editorial: The Leopard?

Solidarity decomposed: being and time in European citizenship

Alexander Somek

. . . And we keep on meeting: (de-)fragmenting state liability

Dimitra Nussimpian

EC rules on public participation in environmental decision-making at the European and national levels

Daniela Obradovic

Is there an effective European legal framework for the protection of minority languages? The European Union and the Council of Europe screened

Anneleen Van Bossuyt

Harmonising by numbers

Martin Doris

Analysis and Reflections

THOMSON

™

SWEET & MAXWELL

European Law Review

December 2007

Editorial
The Leopard?	785
Articles
Solidarity decomposed: being and time in European citizenship Alexander Somek	787
... And we keep on meeting: (de-)fragmenting state liability Dimitra Nassimpian	819
EC rules on public participation in environmental decision-making at the European and national levels Daniela Obradovic	839
Is there an effective European legal framework for the protection of minority languages? The European Union and the Council of Europe screened Anneleen Van Bossuyt	860
Review Article
Harmonising by numbers Martin Doris	878
Analysis and Reflections
Temporal aspects of the duty of consistent interpretation in the First and Third Pillars Robin Lööf	888
Return to the due process of law: the European Union and the fight against terrorism Giacinto della Cananea	896
Jia or "Carpenter II": the edge of reason Alina Tryfonidou	908
Book Reviews	919