

EUROPEAN LAW REVIEW

Volume 35 No.6 December

Editors: Panos Koutrakos and Niamh Nic Shuibhne

Consultant Editor: Anthony Arnall

Book Reviews Editor: Jukka Snell

Editorial

And So It Begins...

Articles

Can Soft Law Bodies be Effective? The Special Case of the European Systemic Risk Board

Eilis Ferran

EU Accession to the ECHR: Implications for Judicial Review
in Strasbourg

Tobias Lock

Risk and Beyond: EU Regulation of Nanotechnology

Maria Lee

Victimising Third Parties: The Equality Directives, the European Convention on Human Rights, and EU General Principles

Michael Connolly

SWEET & MAXWELL

European Law Review

Issue 6 December 2010

Table of Contents

Editorial

And So It Begins... 749

Articles

Can Soft Law Bodies be Effective? The Special Case of the European Systemic Risk Board
Ellis Ferran 751

EU Accession to the ECHR: Implications for Judicial Review in Strasbourg
Tobias Lock 777

Risk and Beyond: EU Regulation of Nanotechnology
Maria Lee 799

Victimising Third Parties: The Equality Directives, the European Convention on Human Rights, and EU General Principles
Michael Connolly 822

Analysis and Reflections

Delegated legislation after the Treaty of Lisbon: An analysis of Article 290 TFEU
Bart Driessen 837

Supremacy, Equality and Human Rights Comment on Küçükdeveci (C-555/07)
Steve Peers 849

Another classic of EU sports jurisprudence: Legal implications of Olympique Lyonnais SASP v Olivier Bernard and Newcastle UFC (C-325/08)
Katarina Pijetlovic 857

Ex ante evaluation of EU legislation intertwined with judicial review? Comment on Vodafone Ltd v Secretary of State for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform (C-58/08)
David Keyaerts 869

Book Reviews 885