

Human Rights

Center for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law

In This Issue

Economic and Social Rights in the United States:
An Overview of the Domestic Legal Framework

The Revocation of Dual Citizenship in Turkmenistan

Might v. Right: Charles Taylor and the Sierra Leone Special Court

Can U.S. Courts Learn from Failed Terrorist Trials by Military Commission in Turkey and Peru?

One Step Forward, Two Steps Back: Democracy and Legal Reform in Morocco

The Protection of Human Rights in the New Age of Terror

The Human Rights Framework Applicable To Trafficking in Persons and its Incorporation into UNMIK Regulation 2001/4

Not Good Enough: India's Freedom of Information Bill has Great Potential to Overhaul the Ills of Secrecy and Inaccessibility but There are Inadequacies that Need to be Addressed

Human Rights Brief

Center for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law

Jan 16, 2004

A Legal Resource for the International Human Rights Community

1	JESSICA SCHULTZ
5	LYNN SHAVER
8	KATHY WARD
11	RICHARD J. WILSON
14	ABDERRAHIM SABIR
16	DALIA DORNER
20	JOHN CERONE
24	RICHARD N. WINFIELD AND SHERRELL EVANS

Columns

28	Updates from the Regional Human Rights Systems
32	International Legal Updates
34	United Nations Update
36	Updates from the International Criminal Courts
38	NGO Update
39	Center News
40	Center Faculty/Staff News
42	Alumni Profile

Directors of the Center for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law | Hadar Harris, Executive Director
Robert Goldman | Claudio Grossman | Diane Orentlicher | Herman Schwartz | Richard J. Wilson