

Human Rights Brief

Center for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law

A Legal Resource for the International Human Rights Community

1 |

RICHARD J. WILSON

5 |

HADAR HARRIS

9 |

BRYAN BACHNER

13 |

ERIC LERUM,
SHEILA MOREIRA, AND
RENA SCHEINKMAN

17 |

PAMELA O. DAVIES

21 |

KWADWO APPIAGYEI-ATUA

25 |

ALISON A. HILLMAN

Columns

29 | Updates from the Regional Human Rights Systems

33 | International Legal Updates

36 | United Nations Update

37 | Updates from the International Criminal Courts

42 | Legislative Watch

44 | NGO Update

46 | Center News/Faculty and Staff Updates

49 | Alumni Profile

Directors of the Center for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law : Hadar Harris, Executive Director
Robert Goldman : Claudio Grossman : Diane Orentlicher : Herman Schwartz : Richard J. Wilson

Human Rights

Center for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law

In This Issue

Defending the Detainees at Guantánamo Bay

"We Are the World" — Or Are We? The United States' Conflicting Views on the Use of International Law and Foreign Legal Decisions

Facing the Music: Traditional Knowledge and Copyright

Strengthening America's Foundation: Why Securing the Right to an Education at Home is Fundamental to the United States' Efforts to Spread Democracy Abroad

Marriage, Divorce, and Inheritance Laws in Sierra Leone and their Discriminatory Effects on Women

Political Developments in Post-Eyadema Togo: A Critical Analysis

Protecting Mental Disability Rights: A Success Story in the Inter-American Human Rights System