

Human Rights

Law Journal · HRLJ

and continuation of The Human Rights Review

HRLJ
Vol. 8 (1987)
Part 1

ISSN 0174/4704

Pages 1-244

ARTICLES

Merger of the European Commission and European Court of Human Rights

Second Seminar on International Law and European Law at the University of Neuchâtel

14-15 March 1986

- Foreword by O. Jacot-Guillarmod	5
- Acknowledgements	8
- Welcome address by J. Cavadini	9
- Reports by S. Trechsel, J. A. Frowein, A. Lester, M. Krafft, W. J. Ganshof van der Meersch, G. J. Wiarda, O. Jacot-Guillarmod	11
- Written communications	71
- Debates	100
- General report by F. G. Jacobs	189
- Subject index	197
- List of participants	212

DOCUMENTATION

International instruments relating to human rights /

Instruments internationaux relatifs aux droits de l'homme

- Classification and chart showing ratifications as of 1 January 1987

Classification et état des ratifications au 1^{er} janvier 1987 ... by J. B. Marie 217

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword	5
Acknowledgements	8
Welcome address by Jean Cavadini, Président du Conseil d'Etat Neuchâtelois, Conseiller national	9
 REPORTS
1. S. Trechsel (Nos. 1-58), Towards the Merger of the Supervisory Organs: Seeking a Way out of the Deadlock	11
2. J.A. Frowein (Nos. 59-104), Assumption of the Functions Specific to the Commission by a Single Court	24
3. A. Lester (Nos. 105-138), Merger of the European Commission and the European Court of Human Rights from the Perspective of the Applicants and their Legal Representatives	34
4. M. Krafft (Nos. 139-152), Situation and Role of the Committee of Ministers in a System with a Single Judicial Organ	41
5. W.J. Ganshof van der Meersch (Nos. 153-177), Some Views on Measures which could accompany the Merger of the Commission and the Court	51
6. G.J. Wiarda (Nos. 178-190), Reflections on the Ways and Means of Solving the Problems Arising out of the Merger of the Commission and the Court ..	58
7. O. Jacot-Guillarmod (Nos. 191-206), Reflections on the Merger of the Organs of the Convention in the Perspective of the Intergovernmental Activities of the Council of Europe	64
 WRITTEN COMMUNICATIONS
8. H.-C. Krüger (Nos. 207-221), The Procedural Position of the Parties before a Single Convention body	71
9. L. Betten and J. Korte (Nos. 222-229), A Procedure for Preliminary Rulings in the Context of Merger	75
10. E.A. Alkema (Nos. 230-240), Some Suggestions to Improve the Procedures of the ECHR Pending the Merger of the Court and the Commission	80
11. M.E. Villiger (Nos. 241-252), The New Court and its Domestic and International Context	84
12. Directorate of Human Rights (Nos. 253-297), The Merger of the European Commission and the European Court of Human Rights: Questions and Possible Solutions	87
13. G. Malinverni (Nos. 298-309), Respective Roles of Judicial and Non- Judicial Settlement in the Perspective of Merger	98
 DEBATES
Morning of 14 March 1986
Under the chairmanship of Professor J. Guinand, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Neuchâtel
14. Opening address by P. Aubert (Nos. 310-321), Conseiller fédéral, Vice- Président du Conseil fédéral, Chef du Département fédéral des affaires étrangères	100
15. Presentation of his report by S. Trechsel (Nos. 322-336)	103
16. Intervention by P. Fifoot (Nos. 337-341), (challenging the justification of the "Court option"; need to seek new compromises)	107
17. Intervention by P. van Dijk (Nos. 342-356), (support for merger and refutation of objections to the reform; in the interim, anticipated implementation of Protocol No. 8 via the Commission's Rules of Procedure)	108

18. Intervention by P. Leuprecht (Nos. 357-362), (need for thorough overhaul of control machinery; avoid a weakening of protection; question to Mr. Trechsel on the possibility of avoiding an amending protocol; observation on intervention by Mr. Fifoot)	111
19. Intervention by W. Okresek (Nos. 363-369), (is the present two-stage system not more progressive even than the merger?)	113
20. Reply by S. Trechsel to MM. Fifoot, Okresek and van Dijk (Nos. 370-375) ..	114
21. Presentation of his report by J.A. Frowein (No. 376)	116
22. Intervention by L. Doswald-Beck (Nos. 377-380), (support for merger because of increased judicial coherence; problem of summary procedure; too great influence of the Advocate-General?)	116
23. Reply by J.A. Frowein (Nos. 381-383)	117
24. Intervention by S. Deniniolle (Nos. 384-386), (what about granting the applicant a full locus standi backed up by a strengthened legal aid scheme?) ..	118
25. Reply by J.A. Frowein (Nos. 387-390)	118
26. Intervention by E.H. Riedel (Nos. 391-395), (need in the perspective of merger for reflection on the implications of Strasbourg rulings in the national context)	119
27. Reply by J.A. Frowein (Nos. 396-399)	120
28. Reply by S. Trechsel (No. 400)	120
29. Intervention by T. Stevens (No. 401), (usefulness of merger as a means of avoiding difficulties encountered by the Committee of Ministers in applying Article 32)	121
30. Reply by J.A. Frowein (No. 402)	121
31. Intervention by C. Lush (Nos. 403-404), (the practice of the Committee of Ministers not so bad as all that)	122

Afternoon of 14 March 1986

Under the chairmanship of Professor J. Voyame,
Director of the Federal Office of Justice

32. Presentation by F.G. Jacobs of A. Lester's report (Nos. 405-420)	122
33. Intervention by P.D. Ellman (Nos. 421-426), (details of aid scheme for applicants; need for legal aid from the outset of the procedure)	126
34. Intervention by W.J. Balekjian (Nos. 427-428), (the function of filtering applications would be facilitated if they were better presented, thanks to assistance at national level)	127
35. Intervention by G.E. zur Hausen (Nos. 429-431), (lessons to be drawn for the Strasbourg system from the experience of the Court of Luxembourg: first instance and role of the Advocate-General)	128
36. Intervention by J.A. Frowein (Nos. 432-433), (filter function; summary procedure; legal aid system; role of Secretariat)	129
37. Intervention by S. Deniniolle (Nos. 434-437), (compulsory assistance of a lawyer; comparison Luxembourg/Strasbourg on establishment and publication of facts; reporting judge; Advocate-General)	130
38. Intervention by E.H. Riedel (Nos. 438-439), (creation of national commissions based on British experience)	131
39. Written intervention of L.A. Minelli, (Nos. 440-446) (Ideas on reforms which could be introduced in the present conventional framework pending merger)	131
40. Reply by F.G. Jacobs (Nos. 447-452), (legal aid scheme, filter function, comparisons between Luxembourg and Strasbourg)	133
41. Presentation of his report by M. Krafft (Nos. 453-464)	135
42. Intervention by C. Lush (Nos. 465-478), (examination of recent practice - encouraging - of the Committee of Ministers; need to take preventive measures to attenuate current crisis)	138

43. Intervention by I. Maier (Nos. 479-486), (need to weigh pros and cons of merger; usefulness of Committee of Ministers for State cases; practice concerning Article 54; filter function; practical implications of merger)	142
44. Intervention by W.J. Ganshof van der Meersch (Nos. 487-489), (two observations on Krafft report; concept of "step backwards" and reversal of powers of the organs)	144
45. Written intervention of A. Auer (Nos. 490-495), (will the institutionalisation of a judicial organ on merger not lead to politicisation of case-law?)	145
46. Written intervention of U. Fasselt-Rommé (Nos. 496-501), (proposal to empower the Commission to open proceedings according to the model of Article 169 of the EEC Treaty)	146
47. Written intervention of F. Weiss (Nos. 502-508), (comparison between role of the Committee of Ministers and that of Joint Committees in Free-Trade Agreements between EEC and EFTA)	148
48. Reply by M. Krafft to MM. Ganshof van der Meersch, Lush and Mrs. Maier (Nos. 509-515)	149
49. Intervention by M.-A. Eissen (Nos. 516-537), (doubt concerning merger; draw-backs of a very long transitional period; little time to be gained; disadvantages of losing two-fold examination of merits; usefulness of turning to intermediary solutions)	151
50. Intervention by W.J. Balekjian (Nos. 538-542), (vital function of the Committee of Ministers; usefulness of its conciliation functions in silent and invisible proceedings)	155
51. Intervention by H.-C. Krüger (Nos. 543-548), (opposite stand to that of M. Eissen)	156
52. Intervention by W. Kälin (Nos. 549-553), (usefulness of merger given the present lack of clarity of certain areas of Strasbourg case-law)	157
53. Intervention by C.A. Nørgaard (Nos. 554-562), (support for the idea of merger; need to solve the problem of friendly settlement of disputes and that of maintaining direct contacts by judges with their home countries; need to carry out simultaneously work on merger and transitional reforms)..	158
54. Intervention by S. Trechsel (Nos. 563-568), (reply to Mrs. Maier and to MM. Lush, Eissen and Kälin)	159
55. Intervention by J.A. Frowein (Nos. 569-572), (practice of Committee of Ministers on basis of Article 54; reply to intervention by Mr. Lush)	161

Morning of 15 March 1986

Under the chairmanship of Professor D. Bindschedler-Robert, Judge at the European Court of Human Rights, Vice-President of the ICRC

56. Presentation of his report by W.J. Ganshof van der Meersch (Nos. 573-599)	162
57. Presentation of his report by G.J. Wiarda (Nos. 600-609)	167
58. Intervention by K. Ahrens (Nos. 610-622), (merger useful as means of simplifying and speeding up procedures; need to preserve credibility of Convention organs; Parliamentary Assembly aware of its responsibilities) ...	170
59. Intervention by R. Linster (Nos. 623-631), (the Assembly can and must once again be the spearhead for reform of Strasbourg control machinery) ...	172
60. Presentation of his report by O. Jacot-Guillarmod (Nos. 632-652)	174
61. Intervention by J.L. Sharpe (Nos. 653-660), (to guarantee real and effective rights necessary to have real and effective institutional machinery; avoid overlapping activities; provide the new institution with adequate material resources)	179
62. Intervention by I. Maier (Nos. 661-666), (new developments in interpretation of Article 27?; right of individual to refer his case to the Court; powers of Advocates-General; system of chambers in new Court)	181

63. Intervention by L. Doswald-Beck (Nos. 667-669), (preference for a permanent Court made up of part-time judges; limit to comparisons with Court of Luxembourg; Advocate-General)	182
64. Intervention by H. Petzold (Nos. 670-677), (need for radical reform of Convention system; danger of paralysis of present system; reform urgent and needs political support)	183
65. Intervention by K. Weidmann (Nos. 678-685), (refutation of objections to merger; merger justified on account of advantages such a reform would entail in terms of substantive law)	185
66. Intervention by T. Stevens (No. 686), (desirability of granting individuals right to refer cases to the Court)	187
67. Intervention by H.-J. Bartsch (Nos. 687-692), (decisive argument in favour of merger: exclusion of Committee of Ministers from control machinery; criticism of present practice of Committee of Ministers)	187

GENERAL REPORT

68. F.G. Jacobs (Nos. 693-732), (historical perspective; reasons put forward in support of creation of a single full-time Court; possible alternative solutions; functions of a single Court and arrangements for exercise thereof; drawbacks of such a system; residual functions to be entrusted to the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe; conclusion)	189
--	-----

SUBJECT INDEX

I. Questions relating to the merger
1. Basic options	197
2. Detailed implementation	198
3. Powers of a new Court operating full-time	198
4. Nature of the Court and allied questions	200
5. Status of applicant before the Court	201
6. Powers of Advocates-General	201
7. Residual powers of Committee of Ministers	201
8. Powers of other bodies	202
9. Preservation of a "restricted" Commission?	202
II. Advantages and drawbacks of merger
a. Advantages	202
b. Drawbacks	204
III. Pending the merger: transitional reforms	204
IV. Other Questions (in alphabetical order)	206
V. Index of references to international instruments	209

LIST OF PARTICIPANTS	212
----------------------------	-----