

ה ת ד ו ה

ז ד ק

ז ד ק

Justice

44 Spring
2007

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF JEWISH LAWYERS AND JURISTS

In this issue

Remember Budapest

Betrayal and commitment

The time was out of joint

Could the Hungarian Holocaust have been averted?

A chronicle of evil

The Courts

Israel: Targeted killing policy

Israel Bar loses appeal against IAJLJ

Scotland: IAJLJ membership no proof of judge's partiality

Jewish Law

Law and morality in wartime

Contents

President's Message: Betrayal and commitment	2
Law and morality in wartime Aviad Hacoen	4
Remember Budapest
Reflections past and future	10
The time was – and is – out of joint Péter Feldmájer	13
Lies and libels against Jews – then and now Hadassa Ben-Itto	15
The looming confrontation Efraim Halevy	19
Allied war crimes policy: The issue of crimes against Jewish nationals of Axis countries Arieh J. Kochavi	24
A chronicle of evil Haim Klugman	29
Closing the circle Shosha Schoner-Einat	30
Could the Hungarian Holocaust have been averted? András Kovács	31
Supreme Court judgment: "Targeted killings" The Court's English summary	35
Targeted killing policy: Insufficiently limited Mordechai Kremnitzer	38
Israel Bar loses appeal against IAJLJ Ariel Ainbinder	44
IAJLJ protests Egyptian Holocaust denial conference Irit Kohn	45
IAJLJ membership no proof of judge's partiality Michal Navoth	46