

Justice

46

Spring
2009

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION
OF JEWISH LAWYERS AND JURISTS

In this issue

Gaza

Gaza and proportionality

IAJLJ supports HRC enquiry commission

Human rights

IAJLJ challenges Lithuania over Nazi collaborator

Israel and the family of nations

The new anti-Semitism

In the courts

Holding terrorist states accountable

A novel approach to Argentina's AMIA bombing

International criminal court defines racism crime

Contents

President's Message	2
Gaza and proportionality: When do the numbers embarrass the values? Allan Gerson	3
IAJL statement on the appointment of a Commission of Enquiry by the UN Human Rights Council with regard to the events of the recent conflict in the Gaza Strip	6
Holding terrorist states accountable using civil litigation Stuart H. Newberger, Aryeh S. Portnoy and Joshua Dermott	8
IAJL, AJLA host second international conference in Buenos Aires Cesar Rosenstein	14
A civil approach to the AMIA bombing in Argentina Rodrigo Luchinsky	15
IAJL panel debates media influence at Tel Aviv dinner	17
The new anti-Semitism Irwin Cotler	18
Supreme Court of Brazil defines crime of racism Jacksohn Grossman	19
Photo essay: Tel Aviv turns 100	24
IAJL challenges Lithuania's refusal to jail Nazi collaborator	26
IAJL calls for rescinding high treason charge against Panayote Dimitras	30
Israel and the family of nations: The Jewish nation-state and human rights Alexander Yakobson and Amnon Rubinstein	31
The role of international law in negotiations between states Robbie Sabel	35
Divorce, updated Israeli style Edwin Freedman	39
Redux: Membership in IAJL no proof of judge's partiality Michal Navoth	42

