

Stanford Law Review

CARDEX	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
VOCES	<input type="checkbox"/>
B. DATCS	<input type="checkbox"/>
CK	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
PUBLL.	1/19

© 1997 by the Board of Trustees of the
Leland Stanford Junior University

April 1997

CONTENTS

ARTICLES

- WHAT'S WRONG WITH SEXUAL HARASSMENT? 691
Katherine M. Franke
- GHOST DANCE AND HOLY GHOST: THE ECHOES OF NINETEENTH-
CENTURY CHRISTIANIZATION POLICY IN TWENTIETH-CENTURY
NATIVE AMERICAN FREE EXERCISE CASES 773
Allison M. Dussias

NOTES

- FIGHT FOR YOUR RIGHT TO LITIGATE: QUI TAM, ARTICLE II, AND
THE PRESIDENT 853
Ara Lovitt
- PLANNING FOR LOVE: THE POLITICS OF PRENUPTIAL AGREEMENTS . 887
Allison A. Marston
- ARBITRATING IN THE ALPS RATHER THAN
LITIGATING IN LOS ANGELES: THE ADVANTAGES OF INTERNATIONAL INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY-SPECIFIC
ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION 917
Julia A. Martin

REVIEW ESSAY

- THE O.J. SIMPSON CORPUS 971
George Fisher

ERRATA

In Volume 49, Number 2, January 1997, two errors appear in Sylvia A. Law's book review, Ending Welfare as We Know It. On page 479, at the fourth line from the bottom of the page, the sentence should read, "for the past three decades federal and state law" On page 486, the fifteenth line should read, "nothing prohibits Alabama" The editors regret these errors.

Stanford Law Review

April 1997

