

Australian Journal of Human Rights

Never Stand Still

Vol 17 No 2 November 2011

The Australian Journal of Human Rights is a publication of the Australian Human Rights Centre, within the Faculty of Law, University of New South Wales

AHRC  NTRE

AUSTRALIAN HUMAN RIGHTS CENTRE

LexisNexis

Butterworths

Australian Journal of Human Rights

Volume 17 Issue 2 2011

Table of contents

Articles

Claire E Brolan, Robert S Ware, Miriam Taylor Gomez and Nicholas G Lennox	The right to health of Australians with intellectual disability	1
Rhona Smith	From 'crown jewel' to 'Frankenstein's monster': reviewing, rationalising and improving the role of the UN special procedures	33
Mirko Bagaric, Theo Alexander and Marlene Ebejer	The illusion that is the right to a fair trial in Australia	59
Terry Hutchinson and Jamie Nuich	Drawing the line: the legal status and treatment of 17-year-old accused in Queensland	91
Alice Nah	Legitimising violence: the impact of public 'crackdowns' on migrant workers and refugees in Malaysia	131
Dominique Allen	Removing barriers to substantive equality: a case study of remedying disability discrimination complaints	159

Ben Golder	Human rights contra critique: preliminary notes on the politics of interpretation	185
Henrietta Zeffert	Time to expand the ACT Human Rights Act 2004? Report of the Australian Capital Territory Economic, Social and Cultural Rights Research Project	215
Book review
Terry Carney	Homelessness and the Law by Tamara Walsh	243