

Australian Journal of Human Rights Vol 22 No 1 July 2016

r Stand Still Law

Australian Human Rights Centre

Australian Journal of Human Rights Vol 22 No 1 July 2016

Articles

Alexander Reilly Asylum seekers in the community: the importance of work for a decent life

Paulo Gerber, Human rights in Papua New Guinea: is this where we should be

Cai Wilkinson, settling refugees

Cynthio Bonhom The power of human rights rituals; torture and the Australian context

Emma Fitch and Proposed closures of remote Australian Aboriginal communities:

Patricia Eastenl dispossession without free and informed consent and legal remedies for appearing government budget decisions

Kate Fitz-Gibbon and the life imprisonment of children in New South Wales

Douglas McDonald Escaping the lions: religious conversion and refugee law

Amingth Didi Violence analyst women with disabilities is Australia mention

Garen Soldatic, tts human rights obligations?

Pater Nordan Not so straight; anguaging same-say-attracted students in Catholic secondaru schools — an Australian studu

Book reviews

Matthew Stubbs Human Rights Acts: The Mechanisms Compared

By Kits Gleonill

Hannon Harris Rethinking International Law and Justice

Eulten off Cuartez Zambtoto' Zbeucer Sticak and Derya Adom Okni.

Darathea Anthony The Contentious History of the International Bill of Hymna Rights

Bu Christopher N I Roberts

Katharine Gelber -- Freedom of Speech under Attack

Edited by Afshin Ellian and Geliin Molier

Simon Levett Acoveru or Aroyada? The Protection of News Providers in Armed Conflict

Bu Nina Burri