

CRIMINOLOGY & CRIMINAL JUSTICE

An International Journal

Volume 16 Number 2 April 2016

SAGE and the British Society of Criminology
www.sagepublications.com
ISSN 1748-8958
crj.sagepub.com

BSC British Society of Criminology

Criminology & Criminal Justice

Contents

Articles

- Is metal theft committed by organized crime groups, and why does it matter? 141

Matthew PJ Ashby

- Governing airport security between the market and the public good 158

Matthias Leese

- The online dating romance scam: The psychological impact on victims – both financial and non-financial 176

Monica T Whitty and Tom Buchanan

- Habitus, capital, and conflict: Bringing Bourdieusian field theory to criminology 195

Victor L Shammass and Sveinung Sandberg

- Motivations of women who organized others for prostitution: Evidence from a female prison in China 214

Anqi Shen

- The gangs of Bangladesh: Exploring organized crime, street gangs and 'illicit child labourers' in Dhaka 233

Sally Atkinson-Sheppard

Book reviews

- Inside Crown Court: Personal Experiences and Questions of Legitimacy 250

Jessica Jacobson, Gillian Hunter and Amy Kirby, reviewed by Diana Grech

- Blamestorming, Blamemongers and Scapegoats: Allocating Blame in the Criminal Justice Process 252

Gavin Dingwall and Tim Hillier, reviewed by Neil Hutton