

BOSTON COLLEGE THIRD WORLD LAW JOURNAL

Volume XXIX

Spring 2009

Number 2

ARTICLE

Aggravated Circumstances, Reasonable Efforts, and ASFA

Kathleen S. Bean

NOTES

In the Name of Efficiency: How the Massachusetts District Courts Are Laying Away the Constitutional Rights of Indigent Defendants

Offending Justice: Protecting Federally-Exempt Benefits from Cannibalism and Bank Set-Offs

COMMENTS

Ending Poverty in Museums: Strategies to Encourage the Creation of the For-Profit Social Business

Corporate Aiding and Abetting Liability Under the Alien Tort Statute: A Legislative Prerogative

Due Process Restrained: The Dual Dilemmas of Discriminate and Indiscriminate Shackling in Juvenile Delinquency Proceedings

Pharmaceutical Drug Testing in the Former Soviet Union: Contract
Research Organizations as Broker-Dealers in an Emerging Testing
Ground for America's Big Pharma

BOSTON COLLEGE THIRD WORLD LAW JOURNAL

VOLUME XXIX

SPRING 2009

NUMBER 2

ARTICLE

- Aggravated Circumstances, Reasonable Efforts, and ASFA
Kathleen S. Bean 223

NOTES

- In the Name of Efficiency: How the Massachusetts District
Courts Are Lobbying Away the Constitutional Rights of Indigent Defendants*
Raisa Litmanovich 293
- Offsetting Justice: Protecting Federally-Exempt Benefits from Garnishment and Bank Set-Offs
Arianna Tunsky-Brashich 323

COMMENTS

- Putting Poverty in Museums: Strategies to Encourage the Creation of the For-Profit Social Business
Leslie Dougherty..... 357
- Corporate Aiding and Abetting Liability Under the Alien Tort Statute: A Legislative Prerogative
Michael Garvey..... 381
- Due Process Restrained: The Dual Dilemmas of Discriminate
and Indiscriminate Shackling in Juvenile Delinquency Proceedings
Leah Rabinowitz..... 401
- Pharmaceutical Drug Testing in the Former Soviet Union:
Contract Research Organizations as Broker-Dealers in an Emerging Testing Ground for America's Big Pharma
Yevgenia Shtilman 425