

COLUMBIA JOURNAL OF TRANSNATIONAL LAW

Founded by Wolfgang G. Friedmann

VOL. 43

2005

No. 3

FRIEDMANN AWARD ESSAY

A World Without Torture

Harold Hongju Koh

TRIBUTE

Remembering Oscar Schachter

Richard N. Gardner

DISCUSSION

Medellin v. Dretke: Federalism and International Law

Curtis Bradley

Lori Fisler Damrosch

ARTICLES

Shoring Up the Weakest Link: What Lawmakers Around the World Need to Consider in Developing Comprehensive Laws to Combat Cybercrime

Richard W. Downing

Dred Scott and International Law

Mark W. Janis

Executive Plans and Authorizations to Violate International Law

Jordan J. Paust

Fig Leaves, Fairy Tales, and Constitutional Foundations: Debating Judicial Review in Britain

Lori Ringhand

ESSAYS

The Laws of War in the Pre-Dawn Light: Institutions and Obligations in Thucydides'
Peloponnesian War

Steve Sheppard

Direct vs. Indirect Obligations of Corporations Under International Law

Carlos M. Vázquez

NOTES

The Evolution of the International Law of Alienability: The 1997 Land Law of Mozambique as a Case Study

Means/Ends Reciprocity in the Act of State Doctrine

BOOKS RECEIVED

INDEX TO VOLUME 43